The Republicans Sweep the Field!

Hon. H. H. Mater, in his salutatory in the Independent, says: "The last so-called Republican Convention presented the spectacle of a grand old scramble between candidates, and it resulted in the nomination of two venerable Democrats for the Legislature. The whole ticket of Rings and Secret Cliques, and it should be re-puted by the people of our county irrespective of party."
 The italics are ours. We admit that there was a scramble between candidates, but not by any means a disgraceful one. It was simply the usual scramble which attends the nominations of a predominant party intensified, perhaps, by the efforts of certain persons to increase the number of candidates excessively, and especially for their own selfish purposes. We ought to know something about this matter. But when Mr. Mater says: "The whole ticket is the spawn of Rings and Secret Cliques," he simply mistakes the facts. If he is versed in the politics of Huntington county, as he should be, he knows that P. P. Dewees, Alex. Port, Perry Moore, Daniel Conrad, John X. Lutz, and Dr. Hewitt were not in harmony with any of the "Rings or Cliques" of the county. Not one of them. Some of these "Rings or Cliques" may have defected to Mr. Dewees because they could not see any way to successfully resist him, but beyond this every secret or clamorous element had united upon other men than those who were nominated. We know this to be the case, because we helped to pull the lions down about their cars. We were crushed, it is true, in the general ruin, but we were content with the universal destruction of states. The only individual who received a nomination from outside pressure was Mr. Port. His nomination was made out of respect to the demands of the Globe and without any "Ring or Clique."

As to the charge that Messrs. Dewees and Port are both Democrats we can only answer: They may have been Democrats at one time, but they have seen the error of their ways. We cannot see how a Republican could, by voting for Miercy and Geisinger, who are running on a regular Democratic ticket, improve on Dewees and Port who claim to be Republicans and who are endorsed by a Republican Convention.

THE Industrial World, a paper published in the interest of the laboring classes, at Oscoda, Genesee county, has this to say in reference to our nominee for Senator: "We observe by the Huntington papers that Hon. H. H. Mater has received the nomination for State Senator, in the district composed of Huntington and Franklin counties. The nomination was unanimously conceded by his party, which was no doubt the result of Mr. Fisher's popularity in the district. It is not directly interested in the political affairs of Mr. Fisher's district, but being personally acquainted with him, we are fully satisfied that the people of Huntington and its vicinity would have made a better selection for that position, and if elected, they can rest satisfied, that their interests will be well and faithfully taken care of by a man who has more than twenty years of experience in the political arena. Mr. Geisinger is quite sure he didn't do it."

THE Atlanta (Ga.) Commonwealth publishes a poem eulogizing John Wilkes Booth. In the next column is an editorial urging the election of Tilden.

Who robed "Jimmy Walls" is likely to be asked a question as "Who Killed Cook Robin?" or "Who Struck Billy Patterson?" It is evident some person did it, but who it was is deponent saith not. Mr. Geisinger is quite sure he didn't do it.

The first number of the Independent made its appearance on Friday last. It is under the editorial management of Hon. H. H. Mater. The first edition is full of local politics and indicates that the pot will soon reach the boiling point.
