Thanksgiving Day. WASHINGTON, October 26, 1876.

A PROCLAMATION.

From year to year we have been accustomed t pause in our daily pursuits and set apart a time to offer our thanks to Almighty God for special blessings He has vouchsafed to us, with our prayers for a continuance thereof. We have at this time equal reason to be thankful for His continued protection and for the many material blessing. ance of His divine favor to us as a nation and a

By reason of all these conditions, I, Ulysses S. Grant, President of the United States, do recom-mend to the people of the United States to devote the thirtieth day of November next to the express-ion of their thanks and prayers to Almighty God, and laying aside their daily avocation and all secular occupantions, to assemble in their respective places of worship and observe such day as a day of thanksgiving and rest.

In witness whereof I have hereunte set my hand
