PROCLAMATION BY THE GOVERNOR.

In the name and by the authority of the Com-monwealth of Pennsylvania, I, John F. Hartranft,

M. S. QUAY, Secretary of the Commonwealth.

WE regret very much that our candidate for Congress was unsuccessful. But we work nobly.

THE thanks of the Republican party of Huntingdon county are due to every man terrible consequences which might follow who did his duty at the late election and any attempt to seize the government in there were very few who did not. THE latest Congressional returns indieate that the House stands 144 Republicans and 146 Democrats. The New Hampshire elections are yet to be held. Should they go Republican, which is not unlikely, we would have a House with one or two majority on that side, yet the probabilities are that the Democrats will have a bare majority. The excess either way will be trifling.

and as early as seven o'clock the streets in the vicinity were crowded with an excited mass of people, awaiting news of the result. Twenty third street, Fifth avenue, and the streets adjacent were packed with a throng, with and without umbrellas, all eager to hear the returns, and know who was to be the next President. The doors of the committee rooms were gnarded by policemen to keep out the impatient throng who had money, or what was nore, opinions staked upon the result.

At eight o'clock the news commenced con

ing in. It was all one way. New York city had gone democratic by majorities which no one anticipated, and the Republicans looked blue, and many of them went home feeling that chaos had come again, and that there was no hope for anything in this world. Following this came the returns from Indiana, showing a complete and overwhelming demo-cratic victory in that State, and there was another exodus of republicans.

Then I left the Fifth Avenue Hotel and went down to Tammany Hall and Irving Hall, the

The Determinant of New York, beyedden by the solid. mocracy of New York, backed up by the solid South, intend, if the election is decided for Hayes by a majority of one or two States, to put in a claim of fraud and dispute it. That this is their purpose is evident from the exons that have been made on the streets and in their newspapers, whenever the returns indicated the success of the Republican ticket. Desperate men can make trouble, but it is difficult to see what they can do when the Government happens to be in the hands of the conservative class of the people, whose only interest is in favor of law and order and opposed to the Mexicanizing process of deciding elections by revolutionary methods. If this is attempted it will come to an ignominious end.

A Dastardly Attempt.

A few days since an effort was made to steal the remains of the immortal Abraham Lincoln, but the plot was discovered, and the parties detected in the act. A special dis patch to the New York Times regarding the pears that there are only as many presidential voters as there are States. The person who matter says :

Chicago, that there was an attempt to be made to remove the remains of Abraham Lincoln from the monument at Springfield. The most extraordinary part of this disclosure was the agency of the friend of old Ben Boyd, the norious counterfeiter, now serving a ten years term in the Illinois penitentiary, had in the proposed scheme of villiany. Ben Boyd was held the outer forts, on the Deleware river in the west. So captured by Elmer Washburne sometime ago, and a gang of counterfeiters such as seldom obtain a foot-hold in the State was broken up. Boyd through the agency of his friends and his own wealth, has for some time past been trying to liberate himself from prison. The shrewd scheme was to carry off the remains of as a new thing, by some.
