

Laws Relating to Newspaper Subscriptions and Arrearages.

The following is the law relating to newspaper subscriptions and arrearages.

1. Subscribers who do not give notice to the publisher, are considered to have continued their subscription.

2. If subscribers order the discontinuance of their publication, the publisher may continue to send them until the arrears are paid.

3. If subscribers neglect or refuse to take their periodicals from the office, they are held responsible for the same until they have settled their bills, and ordered them discontinued.

4. If subscribers move to other places without informing the publisher, and the papers are sent to the former address, they are held responsible for the same.

5. The courts have decided that "refusing to take periodicals from the office" is prima facie evidence of intentional fraud.

6. Any person who receives a newspaper and makes no notice, whether he has ordered it or not, is held in law to be a subscriber.

7. If subscribers pay in advance, they are bound to give notice to the publisher, at the end of each time, if they do not wish to continue taking it; otherwise the publisher is authorized to send it on, and the subscriber will be responsible until an express notice, with payment of all arrears, is sent to the publisher.
