During the last political campaign in this coun-y, in order to elect Messrs. Port, Dewees, and fisher, there was no inconsiderable effort made to It is the totes of "poor people" as it is well known, that on whatever side the "poor people" fall in on election, the votes will be most numerous. As an inducement to catch these votes it was loadly pro-claimed, of these gentlemen, that they were fast friends of the "poor people," and had bestowed many, and lasting favors on them, of course; it was not alleged that these worthy conclusion on the many, and using having a loss on them, or course, it was not alleged that these worthy gentlemen had made any donations, or any thing of that kind, for the benefit of the "poor," only that they had employed them when they could use their services at a profit to themselves, and have honorably paid for such service. This was, without doubt, a great favor to "poor people." The votes of these men-dicants were secured, and the gentlemen are at their posts of honor and profit in our legislative reason to modify the claim which is urged, alone among it contemporaries, that the vote of the 7th of November secured a majority of E-ectoral votes for Hayes and Wheeler. Readers of The Thirts on the day following the election were placed in possession of returns which were simply the most complete and trustworthy published in any part of the Union. The more thoroughly the field of the election are disentangled from the mass of Demo-cratic falsehood and pretense which has been thrown around them the more clearly is the justice revealed of the claims made by The Trust sthe morning after election. Now that Hayes and Wheeler is perceived by impartial observers of both parties to be a certainty. The Thirs is recognizes the fresh responsibilities which this renewal of a great public trust imposes upon the Republican Party.
