

READING MATTER ON EVERY PAGE.

W. L. FOULK, Agent of the Pennsylvania, Ohio and West Virginia Press Association.

Is the only person in Pittsburgh authorized to receive advertisements for the Journal. He has our best rates.

Laws Relating to Newspaper Subscriptions and Newsapers.

The following is the law relating to newspapers and subscribers.

- 1. Sales of papers which do not give express notice to the contrary, are considered as being for sale to the subscriber.
- 2. If subscribers order the discontinuance of their subscription, the publisher may continue to send them until all arrears are paid.
- 3. If subscribers neglect or refuse to take their periodicals from the office to which they are directed, they are considered as having authorized their delivery to the office.

LOCAL AND PERSONAL.

Brief Mention—Home-made and Stolen.

It's very hard to get a good one.

Did you get a valentine?

Manie sugar is in market.

Democratic visages are elongated.

Democratic roosters can leave their perch.

The Cambria Herald starts a new head.

Blair county has 9,068 pupils in her public schools.

Believers in the blue glass cure are multiplying.

Langdon's distillery is again turning out the juice.

Republicans wear smiles that are "child like and bland."

The Robertdale miners have resumed work at the old pits.

The shrewd business man will now advertise his spring wares.

The Democrats are as mad as March hares.

Blair for Hayes!

Pittsburgh glass houses are now manufacturing blue glass.

The prettiest girl in Huntingdon has received her valentine.

Another invoice of snow on Sunday night and Monday morning.

Check and impudence are sometimes mistaken for intelligence.

Some portions of West Huntingdon are sorely in need of side-walks.

Everything is lovely, and the Republican goose hangs antipathetic.

The M. E. Conference will convene at Wilkes-Barre on the 21st prox.

They will have "The Drummer Boy of Shiloh" in Altoona next month.

Rev. J. Deer preached in the Piquin building on last Sunday evening.

The school children are a great annoyance to the clerks in the post-office.

The spring birds were no doubt astonished at the snow on Monday morning.

The force of workmen in the Altoona railroad shops has been largely increased.

A telegraph office has been established at Barre station on the line of the P. R. R.

Violators of the law will soon be seen standing along the Juniata dipping for suckers.

"Sandbars" is a cloak to cover the injudicious expenditure of the peoples' money.

There will be 119 applications for license at the March term of Cambria county court.

The bridge over Crooked Creek, on 4th street, has been much improved. It was much needed.

Several Clearfield county Nineros have been arrested for killing deer out of season.

Hon. B. L. Hewitt, of Blair county, has been re-appointed Fish Commissioner by the Governor.

Altoona has a ghost, and therefore the women and children of that mountain city are not happy.

The hats which the ladies pull down over their eyes are known as the "What's the matter with you?"

Rev. F. B. Riddle preached in the First M. E. Church, Altoona, on last Sunday morning and evening.

The German Baptist Brethren School has been removed into the Barchinelli property in West Huntingdon.

Diphtheria is said to be caused in a great degree by the gas thrown off from coal stoves in ill ventilated rooms.

Fifteen school teachers are wanted for the Huntingdon public schools. See advertisement in another column.

Great numbers of school children—and some of them claiming to be young ladies—are in the habit of playing truant.

Koch Brothers were sold out on Monday last. They say they were sincerely sympathetic with these young men.

Three boy-tramps occupied the lockup the other night. They were very young, and not "knee high to a grasshopper."

The public school building presents a ragged appearance as viewed from Moore street. It is simply a disgrace to our town like Huntingdon.

We will furnish any of our subscribers with the American Agriculturist for the year 1877 for $1.15. It is a chance to save money. If Rev. James Curns, pastor of the First M. E. Church, Altoona, preached in the M. E. Church, in this place, on Sunday morning and evening last.

Some fellow has predicted that we are to have the coldest winter of the winter the last of the present month. Shoot him in the spot.

We are glad to hear that Mr. Over, of the Hollidaysburg Register, is recovering from his late severe attack of inflammatory rheumatism.

A series of meetings, conducted by Rev. Clipping, have been held in Alexandria, with good results, several persons having professed conversion.

Hon. Alex. Port has introduced a bill to amend the Act in relation to the Lower House, also, a bill for a special Local Option Law for this county.

Fresh bread has put in an appearance in this market, but they are entirely too high in price for a poor dealer of a printer to indulge in the luxury.

The election passed off quietly, and present writing we are of the opinion that the result cannot be determined without the aid of a High Commission.

Stewart McMurtrie, esq., and his sister, Maggie, left for Florida on Monday last. Her boyage and excellent health in the overglades, is our fervent prayer.

The Bedford Gazette of a recent date says that Mr. Joseph Wilson, formerly a resident of Huntingdon county, died in Cumberland Valley at the advanced age of 92 years.

A tender of a patent gas burner has been gathering in the ducaus from our citizens for the past ten days, and all who have invested seem to be satisfied with them.

Counterfeit ten cent pieces are in circulation. They are made of lead, and although pretty well executed are easily detected by the ring. They are dated 1877.

The series of meetings, held in the Presbyterian church, in this place, during the past week or two, closed on Sunday night, after having accomplished much good.

On last pay-day the P. R. R. Company paid their employees, in the vicinity of Altoona, $188,464 and in January, an increase of $36,601. This looks healthy.

The Colomnade Mill, Philadelphia, Pa., by its judicious reduction of rates, will maintain its famous reputation as a model first class house, alive to the demands of the times.

There seems to be no abatement in the number of mourners nightly crowd the altar, asking the prayers of God's people in their behalf.

We understand that remonstrances are being circulated for signers against the granting of licenses, and that they will be presented to the Court at the approaching April term.

The Appropriation Committee of the House of Representatives, on Friday night, on their way to Pittsburgh, whither they go to visit the Morganza school.

The Grand Central Hotel, New York, noted for its elegant table, now offers the same accommodations at a reduction from $4.00 to $2.50 and $3.00 per day.

Wetlocks ("Common School Literature" and "How to Write," for sale at the Journal Store, 100 North Second St., in the hands of every person. It is the best thing of the kind we have ever seen.

Twelve additional persons were admitted to membership in the Presbyterian church, in this place, on Sunday morning, making a total of seventy odd during the series of meetings just closed.

The task of putting brick walls under our power press was rather a heavy and laborious job, but our boys, H. W. Rumbaugh and J. W. Underwood, who were engaged, did it well, and equal to the emergency.

We have just received an additional supply of "cuts" suitable for embossing sale bills, and are better prepared than ever to do this kind of work. We have also a large stock of receipt print attention.

There was considerable interest manifested in the contest for constable between William Bricker and John H. Weidman, which was held on Monday night. We do not believe that there are "milions in it."

Notwithstanding the fact that our Democratic fellow-citizens wear visages about twice as long as usual, our farmers have not increased the price of their wheat, and the hirate appendages from their faces.

We learn from the Altoona Daily Globe that Col. J. F. Millikin will, on Monday next, resign his office of District Attorney of Blair county, and the same paper names Fred Jackson, esq., as his probable successor.

Mr. Levi Cramer, of Middleville, who was injured on the railroad, near Middleville, a week or two ago, a notice of which appeared in the Journal at the time, died on Tuesday of last week from the effects of his injuries.

Charles McMurtrie, who lived a hard and busy life from a man named Ross, residing in Pennsylvania, and sold them in Clinton county, was last week convicted, and was languishing in the Western Penitentiary.

John S. Bromough, esq., of New Enterprise, one of Blair county's most substantial farmers, paid a visit last week. There are few more pushing and thrifty farmers of the soil than he.

An ounce of alum is added to the last rinsing water in which clothing are put after washing; they cannot burn even if they are taken. If children's dresses were so treated many fatal accidents would be prevented.

The members of the First M. E. Church, Altoona, on the evening of last week, presented their pastor, Rev. James Curns, with a beautiful gold-headed ebony cane, and Mrs. Curns with a costly silk wool cashmere dress.

Our mutual friend, Rev. M. P. Doyle, of the United Brethren Church, has been elected a delegate to the General Conference of that body which assembles in Illinois in May next. We hope he may come home every inch a bishop.

We will accommodate parties with the Philadelphia Ledger, Times and Inquirer at 52 cents per month; the Press at 70 cents; the New York Herald at $1.15; the Times, Tribune, World at $1.20. You can commence or discontinue at any time.

An Altoona paper states that the building of a railroad from Green Tree, in Blair county, to Lloydsville, Cambria county, is talked of by capitalists who are interested in the development of the coal and lumber interests in the vicinity of the latter place.

Our neighbor of the Globe "goes for" a certain class of politicians in this county in the right way. They should look for support from those to whom they pay the postage. Now is the time to teach such support that "there is powder in the cellar."

The colored people have fixed up the house at the extreme West end of Moore street for the purpose of holding a meeting. The town should make an effort to protect the old Baptist church when the new edifice of that congregation is completed.

While a couple of boys were standing on the side of the railroad, at the corner of Moore street, one of them threw a stone at the Day Express which passed either through a Pullman car. Boys, that sort of thing may introduce you to the House of Refuge.

The young man who exhibited his bad breeding and his proficiency in blackguardism, by dancing on the street-crossing, at the corner of Fifth and Main streets, on Sunday evening, and then going to church, should spend a few minutes in the lockup the next time he undertakes such a performance.

A printer, being asked to give his opinion of salvation as expounded by Brother Murphy, replied by the reply that he had heard when a man became converted he was marked "alive" and placed upon God's "standing gallery" for future use; but when a man died without knowing the way to heaven, he was thrown into the "hell-box" by the "devil" and melted over.

The Hollidaysburg Register tells this hog story: Two men named Fred Mossel and Daniel Jones cut down a tree in Greenville township, on the other day, and on splitting it open they discovered in the part that was about seventy-five feet from the ground, a living hog, weighing over a hundred pounds, which is still in the house. This can be proven by the parties concerned.

Ladies, now is the time to buy your patterns of Spring styles at the Journal Store. We are selling large numbers daily. The patterns are made of the best quality of paper, and are admitted to be the best in the market. We refer with pleasure to Mrs. Madara, Mrs. Liblikier, Miss Mary Bumbaugh, or any other Dress-maker who will furnish you with a pattern on hand promptly ordered.

The wife and daughter of Mr. Benjamin Eyear, of Union township, are reported to have deserted him because he was "bull dozed" into signing a waiver of exemption note which thought they were to be exempted from military duty. It is an amusing encyclopedia deeply with Mr. Eyear, but we cannot help adding that if a few more wives would desert their husbands, who are stupid enough to give waiver notes, there would be less of it done.

To give our readers an idea of how property sells at Sheriff's sales in this county, we will state that on Tuesday, the 19th inst., the personal property of John B. Kookan, at Kookan's Distillery, near Birmingham, a three year old colt, valued at $100, a buggy, a dog, a good riding mule, $25; a good spring wagon, $25; rye whiskey, over a year old, from $1.10 to $1.20 a gallon, and farming utensils, were sold at the following rates:—Blair County Radical, 15th inst.

A newspaper is a window through which men look out on all that is going on in the world. Without a newspaper a man is shut up in a small room and knows little or nothing of what is happening outside of his door. It is a window through which we keep pace with history and record it. A newspaper will keep a sensible man in sympathy with the world's current events, and it is a window through which we can see the world as it is, and not as we wish it to be.

"HACKMETACK" a new and delightful Perfumery is sold by JOHN READ & SONS, Huntingdon, Pa. Elsewhere by all dealers. oct29noe-6m.

A CERTAIN HEADACHE CURE.—If you suffer from sick or nervous headache, morning sickness or neuralgia, go to your druggist and get a bottle of this certain cure for Headache, Headache Powders, or J. R. Heisley & Co., Salem, N. J. will mail them post paid. A single powder actually cures the most distressing headache in ten minutes. It is a purely vegetable, entirely harmless, a physician's discovery, and we guarantee it to do all we claim. It is sold by the 50 cent retail price. A full trial sent at Frank C. West's in Huntingdon, and at all other first-class druggists everywhere. Convince yourself. [Jan 26] 1-7

HUNTINGDON AND BROAD TOP RAILROAD.—Report of Coal Shipped. For week ending Feb. 17, 1877. 8589 Same time last week. 8494 Increase for week. 995 Decrease for week. 604

Total amount shipped to date. 28652 Same date last year. 30782 Increase for year 1875. 2130 Decrease. 2128

The finest assortment of picture ornaments or adorning ladies fancy work and any thing that a highly-colored head, picture, or motto will adorn, for sale at the Journal Store, if

HART TIMES.—One strange thing about this soil of hard times is that Providence seems to have nothing to do with it, except to permit it as a rebuke to reckless and unprincipled men, who, in the name of religion, take hold of the matter, and at no distant day organize a Band that will compare favorably with the late Silver Cornet.

ST. JOHN'S CHURCH

Services for Lent and Easter.

SUNDAYS: Morning service, 10:30; Litany and Catechizing, 2:00; Evening Service, 7:00.

EASTER SUNDAY, (April 1st.): Sunrise Service, (additional), 5:45.

WEEK DAYS: Morning Service, 7:00; Afternoon Service, 2:00; Evening Service, 7:00.

HOLY DAYS: Morning Service (additional), 5:30; HOLY COMMUNION: At the Morning Service. On all Sundays (as usual throughout the year). On all Holy Days (only for the season).

PREACHING: On Sundays, Morning and Evening, on Holy Days, morning, on Wednesday and Friday, evening; also, at any other service, as there may be occasion.

NOTICE: The Holy Days that do not fall on Sunday are Ash Wednesday, February 14th; Maundy Thursday, February 24th; every day in Holy Week, March 26th to 31st, and the Monday and Tuesday in Easter Week, April 24th and 25th.

REGISTRATION: Gifts or loans of Flowers, especially white, will be gladly received, if sent in time for the decoration of the Church at Easter. The congregation are requested to raise or engage as many flowers as they can.

OFFERTORIES: The Easter offerings will be devoted to India, if no other offering is provided. Let our offering in Christ's resurrection be no empty show; but let us lay by something every week, in love, and by some self-denial, to be used for the good of the poor.

CHAS. H. MEAD, Huntingdon, Pa., Feb. 12, 1877. Pastor.

COURT REPORT AT MURDER.—On Monday night last a second attempt was made on the life of J. H. B. Rumbaugh, at his place. Our readers will remember that at a late hour of the night, as he stood in his possession, a man entered his place, and fired a shot into his chest, which was fatal. The man who fired the shot was identified as John S. Bromough, esq., of New Enterprise, one of Blair county's most substantial farmers, paid a visit last week. There are few more pushing and thrifty farmers of the soil than he.

On Monday night last a second attempt was made on the life of J. H. B. Rumbaugh, at his place. Our readers will remember that at a late hour of the night, as he stood in his possession, a man entered his place, and fired a shot into his chest, which was fatal. The man who fired the shot was identified as John S. Bromough, esq., of New Enterprise, one of Blair county's most substantial farmers, paid a visit last week. There are few more pushing and thrifty farmers of the soil than he.

On Monday night last a second attempt was made on the life of J. H. B. Rumbaugh, at his place. Our readers will remember that at a late hour of the night, as he stood in his possession, a man entered his place, and fired a shot into his chest, which was fatal. The man who fired the shot was identified as John S. Bromough, esq., of New Enterprise, one of Blair county's most substantial farmers, paid a visit last week. There are few more pushing and thrifty farmers of the soil than he.

On Monday night last a second attempt was made on the life of J. H. B. Rumbaugh, at his place. Our readers will remember that at a late hour of the night, as he stood in his possession, a man entered his place, and fired a shot into his chest, which was fatal. The man who fired the shot was identified as John S. Bromough, esq., of New Enterprise, one of Blair county's most substantial farmers, paid a visit last week. There are few more pushing and thrifty farmers of the soil than he.

On Monday night last a second attempt was made on the life of J. H. B. Rumbaugh, at his place. Our readers will remember that at a late hour of the night, as he stood in his possession, a man entered his place, and fired a shot into his chest, which was fatal. The man who fired the shot was identified as John S. Bromough, esq., of New Enterprise, one of Blair county's most substantial farmers, paid a visit last week. There are few more pushing and thrifty farmers of the soil than he.

On Monday night last a second attempt was made on the life of J. H. B. Rumbaugh, at his place. Our readers will remember that at a late hour of the night, as he stood in his possession, a man entered his place, and fired a shot into his chest, which was fatal. The man who fired the shot was identified as John S. Bromough, esq., of New Enterprise, one of Blair county's most substantial farmers, paid a visit last week. There are few more pushing and thrifty farmers of the soil than he.

On Monday night last a second attempt was made on the life of J. H. B. Rumbaugh, at his place. Our readers will remember that at a late hour of the night, as he stood in his possession, a man entered his place, and fired a shot into his chest, which was fatal. The man who fired the shot was identified as John S. Bromough, esq., of New Enterprise, one of Blair county's most substantial farmers, paid a visit last week. There are few more pushing and thrifty farmers of the soil than he.

On Monday night last a second attempt was made on the life of J. H. B. Rumbaugh, at his place. Our readers will remember that at a late hour of the night, as he stood in his possession, a man entered his place, and fired a shot into his chest, which was fatal. The man who fired the shot was identified as John S. Bromough, esq., of New Enterprise, one of Blair county's most substantial farmers, paid a visit last week. There are few more pushing and thrifty farmers of the soil than he.

On Monday night last a second attempt was made on the life of J. H. B. Rumbaugh, at his place. Our readers will remember that at a late hour of the night, as he stood in his possession, a man entered his place, and fired a shot into his chest, which was fatal. The man who fired the shot was identified as John S. Bromough, esq., of New Enterprise, one of Blair county's most substantial farmers, paid a visit last week. There are few more pushing and thrifty farmers of the soil than he.

On Monday night last a second attempt was made on the life of J. H. B. Rumbaugh, at his place. Our readers will remember that at a late hour of the night, as he stood in his possession, a man entered his place, and fired a shot into his chest, which was fatal. The man who fired the shot was identified as John S. Bromough, esq., of New Enterprise, one of Blair county's most substantial farmers, paid a visit last week. There are few more pushing and thrifty farmers of the soil than he.

On Monday night last a second attempt was made on the life of J. H. B. Rumbaugh, at his place. Our readers will remember that at a late hour of the night, as he stood in his possession, a man entered his place, and fired a shot into his chest, which was fatal. The man who fired the shot was identified as John S. Bromough, esq., of New Enterprise, one of Blair county's most substantial farmers, paid a visit last week. There are few more pushing and thrifty farmers of the soil than he.

On Monday night last a second attempt was made on the life of J. H. B. Rumbaugh, at his place. Our readers will remember that at a late hour of the night, as he stood in his possession, a man entered his place, and fired a shot into his chest, which was fatal. The man who fired the shot was identified as John S. Bromough, esq., of New Enterprise, one of Blair county's most substantial farmers, paid a visit last week. There are few more pushing and thrifty farmers of the soil than he.

On Monday night last a second attempt was made on the life of J. H. B. Rumbaugh, at his place. Our readers will remember that at a late hour of the night, as he stood in his possession, a man entered his place, and fired a shot into his chest, which was fatal. The man who fired the shot was identified as John S. Bromough, esq., of New Enterprise, one of Blair county's most substantial farmers, paid a visit last week. There are few more pushing and thrifty farmers of the soil than he.

On Monday night last a second attempt was made on the life of J. H. B. Rumbaugh, at his place. Our readers will remember that at a late hour of the night, as he stood in his possession, a man entered his place, and fired a shot into his chest, which was fatal. The man who fired the shot was identified as John S. Bromough, esq., of New Enterprise, one of Blair county's most substantial farmers, paid a visit last week. There are few more pushing and thrifty farmers of the soil than he.

On Monday night last a second attempt was made on the life of J. H. B. Rumbaugh, at his place. Our readers will remember that at a late hour of the night, as he stood in his possession, a man entered his place, and fired a shot into his chest, which was fatal. The man who fired the shot was identified as John S. Bromough, esq., of New Enterprise, one of Blair county's most substantial farmers, paid a visit last week. There are few more pushing and thrifty farmers of the soil than he.

On Monday night last a second attempt was made on the life of J. H. B. Rumbaugh, at his place. Our readers will remember that at a late hour of the night, as he stood in his possession, a man entered his place, and fired a shot into his chest, which was fatal. The man who fired the shot was identified as John S. Bromough, esq., of New Enterprise, one of Blair county's most substantial farmers, paid a visit last week. There are few more pushing and thrifty farmers of the soil than he.

On Monday night last a second attempt was made on the life of J. H. B. Rumbaugh, at his place. Our readers will remember that at a late hour of the night, as he stood in his possession, a man entered his place, and fired a shot into his chest, which was fatal. The man who fired the shot was identified as John S. Bromough, esq., of New Enterprise, one of Blair county's most substantial farmers, paid a visit last week. There are few more pushing and thrifty farmers of the soil than he.

On Monday night last a second attempt was made on the life of J. H. B. Rumbaugh, at his place. Our readers will remember that at a late hour of the night, as he stood in his possession, a man entered his place, and fired a shot into his chest, which was fatal. The man who fired the shot was identified as John S. Bromough, esq., of New Enterprise, one of Blair county's most substantial farmers, paid a visit last week. There are few more pushing and thrifty farmers of the soil than he.

On Monday night last a second attempt was made on the life of J. H. B. Rumbaugh, at his place. Our readers will remember that at a late hour of the night, as he stood in his possession, a man entered his place, and fired a shot into his chest, which was fatal. The man who fired the shot was identified as John S. Bromough, esq., of New Enterprise, one of Blair county's most substantial farmers, paid a visit last week. There are few more pushing and thrifty farmers of the soil than he.

On Monday night last a second attempt was made on the life of J. H. B. Rumbaugh, at his place. Our readers will remember that at a late hour of the night, as he stood in his possession, a man entered his place, and fired a shot into his chest, which was fatal. The man who fired the shot was identified as John S. Bromough, esq., of New Enterprise, one of Blair county's most substantial farmers, paid a visit last week. There are few more pushing and thrifty farmers of the soil than he.

On Monday night last a second attempt was made on the life of J. H. B. Rumbaugh, at his place. Our readers will remember that at a late hour of the night, as he stood in his possession, a man entered his place, and fired a shot into his chest, which was fatal. The man who fired the shot was identified as John S. Bromough, esq., of New Enterprise, one of Blair county's most substantial farmers, paid a visit last week. There are few more pushing and thrifty farmers of the soil than he.

On Monday night last a second attempt was made on the life of J. H. B. Rumbaugh, at his place. Our readers will remember that at a late hour of the night, as he stood in his possession, a man entered his place, and fired a shot into his chest, which was fatal. The man who fired the shot was identified as John S. Bromough, esq., of New Enterprise, one of Blair county's most substantial farmers, paid a visit last week. There are few more pushing and thrifty farmers of the soil than he.

On Monday night last a second attempt was made on the life of J. H. B. Rumbaugh, at his place. Our readers will remember that at a late hour of the night, as he stood in his possession, a man entered his place, and fired a shot into his chest, which was fatal. The man who fired the shot was identified as John S. Bromough, esq., of New Enterprise, one of Blair county's most substantial farmers, paid a visit last week. There are few more pushing and thrifty farmers of the soil than he.

On Monday night last a second attempt was made on the life of J. H. B. Rumbaugh, at his place. Our readers will remember that at a late hour of the night, as he stood in his possession, a man entered his place, and fired a shot into his chest, which was fatal. The man who fired the shot was identified as John S. Bromough, esq., of New Enterprise, one of Blair county's most substantial farmers, paid a visit last week. There are few more pushing and thrifty farmers of the soil than he.

On Monday night last a second attempt was made on the life of J. H. B. Rumbaugh, at his place. Our readers will remember that at a late hour of the night, as he stood in his possession, a man entered his place, and fired a shot into his chest, which was fatal. The man who fired the shot was identified as John S. Bromough, esq., of New Enterprise, one of Blair county's most substantial farmers, paid a visit last week. There are few more pushing and thrifty farmers of the soil than he.

On Monday night last a second attempt was made on the life of J. H. B. Rumbaugh, at his place. Our readers will remember that at a late hour of the night, as he stood in his possession, a man entered his place, and fired a shot into his chest, which was fatal. The man who fired the shot was identified as John S. Bromough, esq., of New Enterprise, one of Blair county's most substantial farmers, paid a visit last week. There are few more pushing and thrifty farmers of the soil than he.

On Monday night last a second attempt was made on the life of J. H. B. Rumbaugh, at his place. Our readers will remember that at a late hour of the night, as he stood in his possession, a man entered his place, and fired a shot into his chest, which was fatal. The man who fired the shot was identified as John S. Bromough, esq., of New Enterprise, one of Blair county's most substantial farmers, paid a visit last week. There are few more pushing and thrifty farmers of the soil than he.

On Monday night last a second attempt was made on the life of J. H. B. Rumbaugh, at his place. Our readers will remember that at a late hour of the night, as he stood in his possession, a man entered his place, and fired a shot into his chest, which was fatal. The man who fired the shot was identified as John S. Bromough, esq., of New Enterprise, one of Blair county's most substantial farmers, paid a visit last week. There are few more pushing and thrifty farmers of the soil than he.

On Monday night last a second attempt was made on the life of J. H. B. Rumbaugh, at his place. Our readers will remember that at a late hour of the night, as he stood in his possession, a man entered his place, and fired a shot into his chest, which was fatal. The man who fired the shot was identified as John S. Bromough, esq., of New Enterprise, one of Blair county's most substantial farmers, paid a visit last week. There are few more pushing and thrifty farmers of the soil than he.

On Monday night last a second attempt was made on the life of J. H. B. Rumbaugh, at his place. Our readers will remember that at a late hour of the night, as he stood in his possession, a man entered his place, and fired a shot into his chest, which was fatal. The man who fired the shot was identified as John S. Bromough, esq., of New Enterprise, one of Blair county's most substantial farmers, paid a visit last week. There are few more pushing and thrifty farmers of the soil than he.

On Monday night last a second attempt was made on the life of J. H. B. Rumbaugh, at his place. Our readers will remember that at a late hour of the night, as he stood in his possession, a man entered his place, and fired a shot into his chest, which was fatal. The man who fired the shot was identified as John S. Bromough, esq., of New Enterprise, one of Blair county's most substantial farmers, paid a visit last week. There are few more pushing and thrifty farmers of the soil than he.

On Monday night last a second attempt was made on the life of J. H. B. Rumbaugh, at his place. Our readers will remember that at a late hour of the night, as he stood in his possession, a man entered his place, and fired a shot into his chest, which was fatal. The man who fired the shot was identified as John S. Bromough, esq., of New Enterprise, one of Blair county's most substantial farmers, paid a visit last week. There are few more pushing and thrifty farmers of the soil than he.

On Monday night last a second attempt was made on the life of J. H. B. Rumbaugh, at his place. Our readers will remember that at a late hour of the night, as he stood in his possession, a man entered his place, and fired a shot into his chest, which was fatal