Educating Horses.

voking obstinacy and vicious habits of

We once saw an aged lady drive a high spirited horse, attached to a carriage down a steep hill, with no hold back straps upon his harness, and she assured us that there was no danger, for her son accustomed his horses to all kinds of usages and sights that commonly drive the animal into

How to Have Healthy Pigs.

Prof. Law, of Cornell University writes s follows in regard to the proper treat - ment of swine for the preventive of disease :

Keep your hogs clean. Protect them ell as outside it, furni-happropriate food for the disease poison, and favor its increase, while they depress its vital powers, most frequently at fault. Fifty or a hun-

PRESERVING APPLES .-- Apples that are designed to be preserved till spring, must be hand-picked, as every farmer probfound that apples packed in barrels, in ground charcoal can be shipped to England in excellent condition, and keep a passage. Buckwheat chaff is probably the best thing for farmers to pack apples in that are designed for long keeping, as ground charcoal is not so easily obtained Sawdust, if perfectly dry, is as good as buckwheat chaff. First put in a layer of chaff or sawdust, then pack in a layer of The Yambill Co. (Oregon) Reporter gives some excellent hints in regard to educating horses which we copy:

DR. SWAYNE'S Horses can be educated to the extent of their understandings as well as children, and "can be as easily damaged or ruined by bad management." We believe that the great difference found in horses as to vicious habits or reliability, comes more from the different management of men, than from variance of natural disposition in the animals. Horses with high mettle are more easily elucated than those of less or duller spirits, and are more susceptible to ill-training, and consequently may be as good or bad, according to the education they receive.

Horses with dull spirits are not by any means proof against bad management, for in them may often be found the most provoking obstinacy and vicious habits of different processing the properties of the management of the most provoking obstinacy and vicious habits of different processing as the difference of the control of the processing as the descendance of the processing as th heir understandings as well as children,

TO ALL! A Solemn Warning! WE,

B. OPENHEIMER & SONS,

Compound Syrup of Wild Cherry in the interest of the people of Huntingdon county, see ourselves compelled to proclaim the following caution to all the trusting people of this county, and to open the eyes of the truth loving: It having come to our knowledge that a certain class of shop-keepers in this town considered themselves smart enough, as they are certainly unscrupulous enough in their means to at tain a certain end, to pull the wool over the eyes of their former patrons, under a FALSE PRETENSE of shielding them against us by warning them not to buy an inferior article than they sell, they try to get a high price for their goods. Why do they not act as men of uprightness and fairness would do, acknowledge equality of goods, and by try-ing to undersell us, compel people to buy of them? But they seem to have forgotten, if they ever knew it, that the straight path is the best, and instead they choose to follow the path of crookedness, with its natural consequences of falsehood, and blindness to all that common sense dictates. We are astonished to hear a man talk of shoddy trash who advertises one of Dr. Swayne's Compound Syrup the necessities of life, namely calico, one of the commonest trashes (to use his refined expression) the universe can boast of. It has been remarked to us that a man who offers the best Mudder prints, an article which would be easily mistaken for a poor imitation of cob web, must be either a knave, or a fool, or both. He either imagines he can fool his enlightened fellow-citizens with > SOFTWORDS and bland smiles, or thinks they are not able to tell the difference, which would bring him under the humbugs. Having probably been living in the city for a short time and listening to the harrangue of street peddlers, now tries to imitate their style and tricks on an enlightened public. by advertising an article, which he either never kept, or never intends to sell at the advertised price. As they have posted in

"BEWARE OF PICKPOCKETS!" we are to post up in front of such people's houses, BEWARE OF HUMBUGS! and would do a lasting favor to all our fellow citizens.
