

WASHINGTON, April 15, 1877.

President Hayes said yesterday, in the course of conversation, that he had no concealments regarding his Southern policy, which, however, had been foreshadowed in oral and written utterances, and in this connection he adverted to the gubernatorial campaign in 1875, which resulted in his election over Governor Allen, the people of the State having full knowledge of his sentiments on national questions, including of course those which related to the South.

The opening speech of the gubernatorial candidate is generally considered to be the keynote of the campaign, and in such speech as early as the 31st of July of that year, at Marion, he freely and distinctly expressed his opinions.—This speech was published at length in all the Republican and many other newspapers, and therefore his views were generally known.

In that speech, after congratulating his fellow-citizens on the complete triumph over those who sought to destroy the Union, and the grand results of the war, he alluded to the bringing together again of Northern and Southern men in a spirit of harmony and friendship, including those who had fought against one another, and as a prominent feature in this evidence of good feeling, he on that occasion spoke of the kindly manner in which Vice President Wilson was received on his visit to the South. In this era of good feeling and reconciliation, he further said, there were still persons who talked of bayonets, and who sought to revive the prejudices of the past. This was much to be regretted, but it was enough to fill every heart with gratitude, the House being no longer divided, and all inhabitants having a fair start in the race for life. In this, and in all his other speeches, he earnestly condemned the re-opening of old issues between the North and South, assuming that the time had come for complete reconciliation.

The President, in further conversation, referred to the fact that the National Republican Convention which nominated him for the Presidency, passed a resolution solemnly pledging the Republican party to protect every citizen of the United States in all his civil and political rights, and declaring that permanent pacification of the South should be effected by removing all causes of discord. The spirit of this resolution was in perfect accord with his own views previously expressed, and he repeated them in his letter of acceptance of the nomination, and more fully elaborated them in his inaugural address, consistently maintaining the policy of reconciliation and local self-government apart from military support, and when he entered upon the duties of the Presidency he intended that this policy should be one of sentiment merely, but of actual administration.

He spoke with emphasis when he said "My belief in this course tends to give good government to the South. It tends to secure peace between the sections and between races and parties at the South, and it tends to secure the rights, interests, and safety of the colored people. Therefore I am in favor of the policy. I do not know whether I shall succeed in carrying it out, because there are Northern and Southern men who in various ways may possibly thwart me, but of one thing I am confident—namely, I think it is my duty to carry out the policy, and I am going to do it.

"LOCAL HOME RULE," as our late erring southern brethren are wont to call it, means the rule of the Democratic whites in contradiction from the Republican colored and white union men. The Democrats mean, down there, to rule whether they are in the majority or not. And it seems their arrogance is to be permitted to have its own way. This was about all that they expected to secure by the triumph of the rebellion. Haul down the flag! Bot out of the constitution the provision which guarantees to every State a Republican form of government. What is the use of fooling? The bones of 500,000 brave northern men lie rotting in southern soil who died for a principle, but what of that? The country wants peace and why not on the terms dictated by the late rebels?—Certainly!

Quite an excitement was created in Philadelphia, on Monday last, by a cowardly attempt made by Nat. McKay, a government contractor, to dog-whip Col. A. K. McClure, editor of the Philadelphia Times. McClure was in the company of ex-Governor Curtin, when McKay approached with a dog-whip, and struck him. Then McClure caught McKay by the throat, and while holding him some one from behind dealt McClure a blow, while another in front of him struck him over the left eye. These men are supposed to be friends of McKay. One of them got away, and the other was arrested, along with McKay.—The prisoners were given a hearing at the Central Station, and were held to bail to answer.

The capital little poem entitled, "Only a Tramp," which appeared in the JOURNAL of the 6th instant, is from the pen of Mrs. M. B. Sibley, and appeared originally in Harper's Bazar, to which it should have been accredited. It is a gem, and will often make a callous heart to the warts of this only so frequently reproached class. Hunt up the JOURNAL and read it again. It will be hearing many times.

Mr. S. P. Farmer has been promoted to the position of General Passenger Agent of the Pennsylvania railroad, made vacant by the death of D. M. Boyd. Mr. Farmer has been in training and is fully competent for the important trust.

GOLD sold up to 107 1/2 cents on Monday last. This is extraordinary, but grows out of the impending European conflict and the general unsettled condition of stocks.

A Curious Fact.

Take a map of the United States, place its eastern and western edges together, and fold it; and then double it from North to South; you will know that Kansas is the center and heart of America. It is a curious coincidence, that the routes of the first explorers, and the folds of the map, should be so nearly identical. The Kansas Pacific Railway passes through the diminished route of Fort Riley. To such advantage of location, on the part of the Government, it can be said to be a coincidence of unexplained richness, and a fascinating, undulating beauty of surface, with a health-giving climate, calculated to insure a powerful and generous people, worthy to be a central pivot of American institutions. A few short years ago, the people of the Missouri Territory, in their country was open only to the savage who ran wild in its woods and prairies; and now, it has drawn to its bosom a population of freemen larger than Athens, crowded with her historic gates, when her sons, under Marathon, won liberty for mankind on the field of Marathon; more than Sparta counted when she led Greece and her devoted allies, children, quickened by a mother's benediction, to return with their shields or on them; more than Rome gathered on her seven hills, when, under her kings she overcame the world; more than London held, when on the fields of Creecy and Agincourt, the English banner carried victory and the triumphal hosts of France. The Kansas Pacific Railway owns and has for sale a large number of acres of very desirable land, in the vicinity of Fort Riley, principally rolling prairie, with soil deep and rich, and on easy terms—the Junction City and Fort Kearney Railroad connects with the Kansas Pacific Railroad at a powerful and short distance from Fort Riley. This region represents many attractions. S. J. Gilmore, Land Commissioner, Salina, Kansas, will send you full particulars.

PolITICAL matters ought to move off smoothly down south. The old rebel element is having it all its own way. At last the prayer of Jeff. Davis, after many years, is being answered. They are being left severely alone. It has been a long time coming to this but it is coming at last. Darks, you have been too big an elephant on the hands of the government. This accounts for your being tossed overboard. You caused too much botheration.

MONEY is extremely plenty in the east. Banks are refusing to pay interest on deposits and it only commands from three to six per cent.

Russia and Turkey. THE TURKS REJECT THE PROTOCOL OF THE POWERS—THE DIPLOMATS GIVE UP THE HOPE OF PEACE.

LOANOS, April 14.—So far as the latest information can be weighed, no declaration of war has yet been made by Russia; but all hopes of preserving peace in the east are given to the winds. The news that has been received from the British government, it apparently being thought useless. There has been a panic on the London exchange today, resulting in a fall of console, and prices of stocks are depressed.

WORMS! WORMS! WORMS! E. F. Kunke's Worm Syrup never fails to destroy Pin Worm and Stomach worms. Dr. Kunke, the only successful physician who removes Tape worms in 2 or 3 days, and which, and no fee until removed. Common sense teaches if Tape worms be removed all other worms can be readily destroyed. Send for circular to E. F. Kunke, 232 North Ninth Street, Philadelphia, Pa., or call on your druggist for a bottle of Kunke's Worm Syrup, price $1. It never fails. [Apr. 16-3m]

A Card from Senator Blaine.

BOSTON, April 12.—The Herald publishes the following card from Senator Blaine: To the Editor of the Herald: Your Columbia correspondent is in error in his statement that I had a conference with Governor Chamberlain in this city on the 11th inst. I have never seen Chamberlain but once for a year, and that in the private Cabinet room of President Hayes on the 27th of March. Nor have I ever seen or telegraphed him, or heard from him in any way.

The Towanda Nail Works are about to put in operation again. The Republican primaries in Bradford county are to be held on the 8th of May. The Bethelites now have four brass bands and still they are far from being happy. The fires in the woods in Berks county last week, burned a good many cords of tan bark and cord wood.

The mountains in Scykill county are on fire in all directions, but no harm, as yet, has been done. In Lancaster county milk sells for three cents per quart and the consumers accuse the producers of extortion. W. D. Wetmore, of Spring, Crawford county, has made nearly twelve hundred pounds of maple sugar this season. The men at work on the Ashland water works in Scykill county, are paid six cents a day, in addition to their pay.

An eight feet vein of coal has been discovered near Susquehanna Station, in Susquehanna county, on the line of the Erie Railroad. Ex-Senator Simon Cameron is going to Europe with General Grant on the 10th of next month. He is making his preparations now for the journey. B. E. Taylor has sued the supervisors of Lower Oxford township, Chester county, for the value of a male killed by sliding off a log road into the water, last winter, and has gained the first point in the case. The First National Bank of Bethlehem has decided to pay only three per cent. per annum interest on deposits, and such interest will not be paid on money deposited less than six months. A vein of anthracite coal twenty-four feet thick has been struck at the Preston Colliery No. 3, by the Philadelphia & Reading Co., and is reported to be one of the best in the "Manchu vein."

"By their Works ye shall know them." The Irishman who thought the druggist silly because the emetic was so small, is only surpassed in his passionless droolery by those who persistently adhere to the use of those nauseating, disgusting large and costly pills, while Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Purgative Pellets, which are sugar-coated, and little larger than mustard seeds, will, by their steady and gentle action on the liver, correct all the morbid humors, and give to the system a healthy and pleasant circulation. In South America they have almost entirely superseded all other pills, and are relied on fully by the people, and often used as a preventive of the various affections of the stomach, liver and bowels, so prevalent in that climate. Pierce's Pocket Memorandum Books are given away at drug-stores. Skyesia, Aroostook Co., Maine, Nov. 6, 1876. R. V. PIERCE, M. D. Dear Sir—Write to inform you that I have used your best medicine that I ever used. I have also used your Favorite Prescription in my family with entire satisfaction. I have seen your People's Common Sense Medical Adviser and I think it is the best thing that I have ever seen. Yours truly, C. HERMAN.
