

The Huntingdon Journal. Farm and Household.

Things Worth Knowing. White Spruce Beer is thus made: Three pounds of loaf sugar, four gallons of water, one ounce of ginger, a quarter of a pound of essence of spruce, one cupful of good yeast, and a little lemon peel. Mix all together, and when fermented bottle it close.

Moths will work into carpets in rooms that are kept dark or warm, in winter as well as in summer. Before laying down the carpet pour strong alum water about the floor, and occasionally sprinkle dry salt over the carpet before sweeping.

To revive withered flowers, plunge the stems into boiling water, and by the time the water is cold, the flowers will revive. The ends of the stalks should then be cut off, and the flowers should be put to stand in cold water, and they will keep fresh for several days.

When a pen has been used until it appears to be spoiled; place it over a flame (a gaslight for instance) for, say, a quarter of a minute, then dip it into water, and it will be again fit for use. A new pen, which is found too hard to write with, will become softer by being thus heated.

To mount chromos, take unbleached muslin and stretch it over a wooden strainer; dampen the back of the picture with paste, and lay it on the canvas to prevent blistering. If you use card or pasteboard, simply dampen the back of the picture with paste and lay it on the board, taking care that it is smoothly laid out.

The best baking powder is made of bicarbonate of soda, three parts of cream of tartar with the flour. Dissolve the soda with a little boiling water, and add it the last thing.

Gleanings from Farm Journals.

To safely bring a pig from weaning to the pork barrel requires nine to twelve months.

An extensively cultivated growing country, may be profitable for a series of years, but the land will be of less value the longer it is cropped, for there is nothing to restore fertility. Few portions of the earth produce more abundant crops than the Mississippi Valley, and the farmer who is discontented here will probably be wiser anywhere.

A correspondent of the Cincinnati Gazette says: The Seneca is a red chaff, smooth, white wheat, rather early, stands up well in moderately rich ground, does not mildew or winter kill, makes the very best flour, and a large yield of it.

Mr. Harris in the Agriculturalist gives it as his opinion, "that we shall find it our interest to work our land more and more in the fall, and the earlier the better. Our springs are short and we are in a hurry to get in our seed; the land is wet, and plowing in this condition does more harm than good."

The Troy Times relates the case of a farmer who made it an invariable rule to turn his crops into cash as soon as they were ready for market whatever the price might be. Sometimes he lost and sometimes he gained, but the experience of thirty years convinced him that he made no mistake in adhering to his rule.

The Scientific Farmer says it is a common practice in some parts of the South to "lay by" the corn by going through with a one-horse mold board plow, cutting deep, and this is late as when the tassels are shooting, and with the best results. When the theory of root pruning is generally recognized and practiced upon it will be a long step forward in agriculture.

Neat Farming.

The Rural thus describes what it understands to be implied by this heading: "The neat farmer keeps everything around him neat and clean, and gives his fields a clean culture; stumps, bushes and rocks are taken out and removed where they will do most good, his door-yards are kept clean and smooth, fences always in repair, gates and bars always ready to open and shut, all old logs, bushes, and other refuse taken from the sides of the road in front of his buildings, his barn and outbuildings are kept in repair, and painted or white washed; floors and windows whole, and always provided with hinges and fasteners for instant use, his tools sharp and always in their places when wanted—a place for everything and everything in its place. His farm wagons, plows, harrows, are all carefully housed when not in use, his house is a model of neatness outside and in; he lets nothing go to waste that will make manure, his stock is well taken care of and fed, and always kept in a healthy condition, barn and stable floors kept clean and dry; he has manure legs nice stock to sell every year, and generally out of debt; he owns more or less bank stock, and of course is happy and contented, and enjoys the blessings of life."

A TIMELY WARNING.—Cooling off suddenly when heated sends many of our farmer's youth to an early tomb. It is often the matter of surprise that so many farmer's boys and girls die of consumption. It is thought that abundant exercise in the open air is directly opposed to that disease. So it is; but judgment and knowledge of the laws of health are essential to the preservation of health under any circumstances. When overheated cool off slowly—never in a strong draft of air. Gentle fanning especially if the face is wet with cold water, will soon produce a delightful coolness, which leaves no disagreeable results.—Economist.

TABLESPOONFUL of black pepper put in the first water in which gray and buff linens are washed will keep them from rotting. It will also keep the colors of black and colored cambrics from running, and does not harden the water. A little gum arabic imparts a gloss to ordinary starch.

VEGETINE AN EXCELLENT MEDICINE. This is to certify that I have used Vegetine, manufactured by H. R. Stevens, Boston, Mass., for the treatment of a General Paralysis of the Nervous System, with good success. I recommend Vegetine as an excellent medicine for such complaints.

OUR MINISTER'S WIFE. Mr. H. R. STEVENS. Dear Sir.—Three years ago I was suffering terribly with Indigestion. Our minister's wife told me to take Vegetine. After taking one bottle, I was entirely relieved. This year, feeling a return of the disease, I again commenced taking it, and am being benefited greatly. It also greatly improves my digestion.

SAFE AND SURE. Mr. H. R. STEVENS. In 1872 your Vegetine was recommended to me, and, yielding to the persuasion of a friend, I ordered it to be sent to me. At the time I was suffering from general debility and nervous prostration, and was unable to do any regular work. The wonderful strengthening and curative qualities of Vegetine in my case, and the relief afforded, led me to purchase it, and I have since used it, and I have not had a day since that I have not been benefited by it. I have not had a day since that I have not been benefited by it. I have not had a day since that I have not been benefited by it.

VEGETINE. The following letter from Rev. G. W. Mansfield, formerly pastor of the Methodist Episcopal Church, Hyde Park, and at present settled in Lowell, Mass., confirms every one who reads his letter of the wonderful curative qualities of Vegetine as a thorough cleanser and purifier of the blood.
