A few brick pavements are being laid in the West End. We hope more will follow, for those loose boards are an abomination to pedestrians.

A large number of partridges were seen in the eastern end of town on Saturday last.—On and after the 15th inst., the law legalizes the skooting of these birds.

At a glass-ball practice, on Friday afternoon last, the score footed up as follows: Frank W. Stewart, 0; W. E. Lightner, 7; W. W. Dorris, 0; T. C. Fisher, 5.

The excursionists who left this place, for the younker city, on Tuesday of last week, are arriving at home like the Irishman's cows, "in droves of one or two."

Mere lix Smoker, which he sold to butchers and farmers in this county. Of these cattle also quite a number have since died quite suddenly, and the apprehension now is that the disease may spread.—Lewistown True Democrat.

John F. Moore, formerly of Altoona, better known as "Jack" Moore among the printers of the Juniata Valley, and another printer and imprisoned on suspicion of having killed two men and mortally wounding another, near the village of St. Elmo, Illinois. Moore is in prison at McLeansboro, and McQuigan at Vandalia. We hope Jack and his partner will be able to establish their innocence. The Harrisburg Telegraph, of the 28th ult., says this about them: "Both these printers were should not be intered in the cemetery on Sunday afternoon, followed to their last resting place by a large concourse of citizens. Because of the overwhelming proportion of the Great London, and the great outlay attending its transportation and daily exhibition, it will only pause in the larger towns or cities, where the population is fully adequate to insure its expenses. But excursions and regular trains will be arranged for upon all lines centering at the place of exhibition, at greatly reduced rates of fare, and coupon tickets issued at all railroad stations, which will entitle the purchaser to admission into all the pavilions. It is hoped this will obviate all difficulty, and give all an opportunity to attend all these stupendous exhibitions. Two grand performances, at 2 and 7 p. m. Doors open one hour previous. Admission, 50 cents; Children under nine years, 25 cents. Reserved Cushion Chairs, 25 cents extra. Comfortable seats for seven thousand people. In order to avoid crowding at the box offices on the grounds, tickets will be sold at the usual slight advance, in Blair's vacant room near the Drug Store. The railroads will also run excursion trains at greatly reduced rates.
