LATE ELECTIONINTHIS COUNTY.

At the Presidential election of 1876. 6,525 votes were polled in this county, and at the late election, 5,136 were cast, or publicans held almost their own. Huntingdon county has a Republican majority, Greenback vote, as near as we can ascerparties. We know that the Democrats from them, but the figures do not warrant this cenclusion. It is true that in Huntingdon, Walker and Jackson they lost heavily but these losses were balance I in Birmingham, Brady, Cromwell, Lincoln, Mapleton, Mt. Union and Union. Nor is there anything in the charge that Republicans went back on their pledges to vote the Greenback Labor ticket. We have not heard of a single Republican who pledged himself to vote that ticket that did not vote the State ticket, and this was about all that could be expected from any one. The object was simply to manifest some strength preparatory to next Fall's campaign when members of Congress and members of the Legislature are to be elected. We allude to this matter for the purpose of vindicating

ADDITIONAL LOCALS. Thanksgiving Proclamation,

The following proclamation has been issued y Gov. Hartranft:

During the year the care of God has given an abundant harvest to the land and health to the people, and sustained them in hope through the trials and sorrows with which, in His infinite wisdom, He had tempered His mercies.

Now, therefore, I, John F. Hartran't, Governor Town. Now, therefore, I, John F. Hattran't, Governor of Pennsylvania, do appoint Thursday, the 29th day of November, 1877, as a day of thanksgiving and prayer, asking the good people of the Commonwealth to assemble at their usual places of worship on the said day and give thanks to Almighty God for the great benefits which they have received at His hands.

Given under my hand and the great seal of the State, at Harrisburg, this fifth day of November, in the year of our Lord, one thousand eight hundred and seventy-seven and of the Commonwealth the one hundred and second.

John F. Harranff.
