"BREAD OR BLOOD!"

These startling headings suggested themselves to us as we mentally asked the question, What do those of our patrons mean, who make no effort to pay? A short time ago we sent out an even 400 duns, not one of them for less than $4. The response was scarcely enough to pay the postage. What on earth are we to do? We can't buy paper, furnish labor, pay postage, rent, and the Lord only knows what all, without money. Must we shut up our establishment because we cannot get enough ready cash to keep it run
The condense of the benefit of the ning? There are hundreds who owe us a mere trifle of from two to very well. The people are paying too Is not so brisk as last week. The uncertainty as ten dollars that would put us out of much for keeping up this go between when all embarrassment if they would only pay up. We appeal to you to do it. The size is also to be reduced somewhat, for which we feel sorry. A reduction is size in many of the periodicals would add materially to their value, but to reduce this one where every sentence is a has failed, and now to evade the declaration of war, PAY UP!

NO MORE BRIBERY.

The Supreme Court, at Pittsburgh, or Thursday last, rendered an opinion in the case of George Walton, High Sheriff of Butler county, against him for violating the following provision of the Constitution. viz: "Any person who shall, while candidate for office, be guilty of bribery, fraud, or willful violation of any election law, shall be forever disquailified from holding an office of trust or profit in this Commonwealth, and any person convicted of willful violation of the election laws shall in addition to any penalties provided by law, be deprived of the right of suffrage absolutely for a term of four years." This decision will go far towards stopping this sort of bribery, but it will not put an entire stop to it unless the honest voters take a hand in it. Year after year men are bought up, like so many cattle, to vote, by men who hold their heads high up in our religious and moral institutions, and who claim to be models of propriety. No wonder that it is so common. This provision of the Constitution comes in not a day too soon to save our institutions. All honor to the Supreme Court for the faithful and prompt discharge of its duty in the premises. And, now, it behooves the good citizens to come to the assistance of the officers of the law. This evil should that Leagues be formed, in every country of the Commonwealth, to be composed of the Commonwealth of the Medical Sciences, commonly called "Hays' Journal," which is the leading medical periodical in American Journal of the Medical Sciences, commonly called "Hays' Journal," which is the leading medical periodical in America, and published in Philadelphia, by H. C. Lea, has, with its October number—the 14sth—closed the volumes for the year 15th. men known for their integrity, to prevent such practices as are prohibited by the Constitution, and to bring those who violate its provisions to condign punishment. A league, with its head at the county seat and secret auxiliaries in every voting precinct, would soon tear up the evil by the roots. Huntingdon county wants just such a league badly, and the sooner it is formed, in view of the next Autumn election, the better.

THE Governor has appointed W. Mc Knight Williamson, esq., of the firm of Woods & Williamson, attorneys-at law, to fill the vacancy in the Prothonotaryship occasioned by the death of Lewis M. occasioned by the death of Lewis M.

Stewart, esq. This appointment created much surprise and dissatisfaction. Sur
For 1878, an extra offer is made to all new subprise, because very few knew that Mr Williamson was an applicant, and dissatisfaction, on the part of the members of the bar, that an appointment should be made from one of the leading legal firms of the county, thus placing it in a position to take advantage of all the information which must necessarily come into the office, and thereby putting all others at a disadvantage, and on the part of those who figure in politics, that the Governor should appoint the man against whom the first factional fight was made, and by whom it was continued for years most bitterly. They assert if the Governor desired to renew the factional fight in Huntingdon county he cauld not have done more to promote it because the whole factional trouble grew out of Mr. Woods' efforts to control the business of the county in his office. It was thought, by the people, that this matter had been set at rest, but it appears the Governor has once more thrust the vexed question upon them.

Mr. Williamson is a very good man, and will make a very creditable Prothonatary. Against him personally, very little, if anything, can be said, and we think there is no disposition to assail him in this manner.

Much speculation has been prevalent in regard to the influences which have been brought to bear upon the Governor, to bring about this appointment. Many attribute it to Senator Fisher, others to the Members, and a still more numerous class to the Senior Cameron, but all is mere speculation. The people will learn soon enough to act intelligently on the subject.

Our New York Letter.

NEW YORK, Nov. 26, 1877. The Vanderbilt Will Case-The Vanderbilt Wedding-The War against Rum-Tilton-Busine THE VANDEPBILT WILL CASE

Is adjourned to Dec. 4. It is the engrossing topic of conversation, everywhere. Scott Lord, the Attorney for the contestants, is very busy getting up the testimony, and a pretty array of it he has. He asserts that he can prove every point mentioned in my last, and has a mass besides that he thinks will not be necessary to introduce. For instance, as far back as 1854, there was a cheque signed "Cornelius Vanderbilt," paid for a lot of groceries to be shipped to California. The signature was forged. William H. impressed his father with the beliet that it was Cornelius who had altered it, and the two family physicians got out a writ of lunacy, and Cornelius was seized and hurried off to the Bloomingdale Asylum. Fortunately the chief of that asylum knew Cornelius, and refused to receive him, knowing him to be entirely sane. The conspirators excused themselves with the plea that they did it to save him from a criminal prosecution for forgery. Cornelius demanded a legal investigation, but at the urgent request of the Commodore the matter was dropped. Mr. Lord expects to show that for twenty years William systematically and continually conspired with his tools to blacken Cornelius and keep him in disfavor with his father, that in the end the vast property the old man had accumulated would come to him. It is probable that the will will be broken, in which are the Vardeshilt preserved. erty the old man had accumulated would come to him. It is probable that the will will be broken, in which case the Vanderbilt power will be gone. It is weil. $100,000,000 is too much for one man to control, and the most important of the trunk lines from East to West ought not to be owned by one man. The public have an interest in the issue of this battle. Sympathy runs almost entirely with the contestants. And, speaking of the Van-berbilts, the great social event of the season was

THE VANDERBILT WEDDING. The daughter of William H. Vanderbilt, the great Railway King, was married with great pomp and circumstance last Wednesday evening at St. Bartholomew's, the ultra fashionable church of New York. Probably no wedding that could be announced would be the object of more curiosity, and the display was designed to reflect the consequence of the bride's family in a manner suitable to a fortune of ninety-five millions. But one order was given regarding the wedding dress,—that it should be the coetliest that ever passed from the hands of the fashionable modiste, the same who furnished the wedding dresses for Miss Grant and Boss Tweed's daughter. Numbers were bidden to witness the wedding at the church, but the recepwitness tweet staughter. Numbers were binden to witness the wedding at the church, but the reception at the house was very select. The bride is about twenty, and blonde. She marries a Boston gentleman named Twombley. The father of the bride performed his part by giving his daugiter a diamond necklace worth $50,000, and checks and other securities for nearly a million, which will take the young couple comfortably through the

It was as snobbish an affair as ever New York saw, and precisely the kind of thing that the mush room shoddyites always do. The gifts were advertised for days before, the cost being very carefully mentioned in each case. Now the real old families, who have something besides money to fall back upon, never do this. Their weddings are gorgeous enough, but publicity is always avoided. The newspaper reporter is not invited to inspect the house and make notes of everything from the djamond necklaces down to the bride's outfit, and if anything beyond the mere announcement gets into the papers, it is because of the superior impudence of a reporter. The Yanderbilts and

FOR 1878. A POLITICAL, LITERARY, AND GENERAL NEWSPAPER. Devoted to Reform in Municipal, State, and General

ESTABLISHED, 1851.

During the long and exciting Presidential campaign of 1876, and the anxious period of political uncertainty which succeeded it, THE NEW YUBK TIMES had a very important share in determining the result of one of the most momentous contests in American history. The course of THE TIMES during the whole of that evential struggle has secured for it a large addition to the number of its supporters, and has placed beyond controversy its position as the foremost Republican newspaper in the United States. The course of THE TIMES will be guided in the future as it has been in the past, by the consideration that the interests of the Republican Party are in all cases to be set above the interests of its leaders, and that the honor and welfare of the country are to be considered before either. Its attitude is that of independence within the Republican Party, for in that way can the interests of the people be most effectually served.

weifare of the country are to be considered before either. Its attitude is that of independence within the Republican Party, for in that way can the interests of the people be most effectually served.

So long as any of the great principles with which the Party has been identified remain in dispute, THE TIMES will refuse to consider the work of Republicanism as ended. It will to maintain the highest standard of partisan obligation in the treatment of questions affecting the anancial honor of the nation, the purification of the public service, and the gradual readjustment of the fiscal system to meet the changing conditions of trade and manufactures. It will steadily oppose all plans, no matter by whom urged, which tend to postpone the date of resumption beyond that fixed by law, to pay the national creditor on any other basis than that of gold, to preserve important duties which clog the developement of American industry, or to perpetuate in the public service the peralcious principle that 'to the victure belong the spoils."

While carefully avoiding all that may tend to promote sectional animosity among our people, THE TIMES will urge, with the utmost decision, the national duty of protecting the freedmen and the Northern immigrants in the South in the possession of rights guaranteed them by the Constitution. It will de all in its power to promote the policy of peace and conciliation between North and South, but will not lose sight of the fact that the Northern confidence and amnesty must find their return in the enfercament of aven-handed justice and scrupplous regard for the letter and spirit of the law on the part of the South.

Its influence as a leading exponent of political opinion will be strengthened by all that is needful to enhance the value of THE TIMES as a daily record of news. The acknowledged excellence of its correspondence by mail and telegraph from all parts of the world will be fully maintained. THE TIMES has shown during the Busso-Turkish war how ample are its resources, and how well direct throughout society. It will be in the future, as in the past a newspaper specially adapted for family reading.

THE WEEKLY TIMES, containing as it does selected editorials on topics of mational and general interest from the columns of the daily issue, as well as a concise summary of political, social and foreign news, besides other features which recommend it to all classes of readers, is a paper admirably fitted to circulate in every portion of the United States. No Republican newspaper approaches it in circulation, and it will be the aim of its conductors to use every means, pot only to maintain its well-earned supremacy, but to make its popularity still more docided.

announce that their Autumn and Winter Fashions in Clothing for Men and Boys are ready. The great buildings at Sixth and Market are crowded from top to bottom with such Clothing as merits the confidence of the people. WANAMAKER & BROWN'S Cloths and Cassimeres are, in many instances, made expressly for them. No house in the trade confines itself so exclusively to the first-class manufacturers. Indeed, a long and mature experience is necessary to know just what goods to select and make up. WANAMAKER & BROWN'S Order De-partment will be found full of fabrics of every good kind, either Novel and Fashionable styles or the plainer and rashonable styles or the plainer and more useful things. Talented cutters, who have been successful for years in our service, are in waiting to make garments according to the ideas of the people who are to wear the goods. Good hands are employed to make up, and only good trimmings used. WANAMAKER & BROWN'S Ready-Made Department offers every accommodation to those who do not care to go through the process of measurement. The stock in all Departments for Men and Boys is immense and complete, and does not lack in style, workmanship or finish, while the prices can be proven to be nearly, if not quite, 25 cents on the dollar lower than the market. WANAMAKER& BROWN'S Little Boys' and Youths Clothing has always been a well-cared-for and prominent feature of the business. All ages can be fitted, and the styles are not surpassed—the "fits" have always been the subject of admiration

WANAMAKER & BROWN'S Shirt, Necktie, and Hosiery counters enable their customers to get complete outfits at more advantageous rates than they expect.
