It is not improbable that the enforced economy of the times will modify to some extent the holiday shopping this season. There will be the average amount expended, but it will be less in the line of ornamental and fancy goods than in articles of substantial value to the consumer. Judging from the Christian Union (New York) of December 26th. activity of our leading retail dry goods houses, the fact is already apparent, and we are therefore pleased to observe that, among others, such leading establishments as that of Messrs. Strawbridge & Clothier, at Eighth and Market Strawbridge & Clothier, at Eighth and Market streets, have made special provision for this feature of the holiday trade. It is well known that chieven-pox, (varicella), of which there are several varieties, in its mildest form, has prevailed here for several months, that a few weeks ago it rapidly assumed the gravest character of that disease. The eruptions became more profuse, and all the characteristic symptoms of the disease assumed a graver form, and up to this time three deaths, though not all believed to be dependent alone on the disease, have occurred, with it, and now we are asked what it is. THE RAILROAD EXTENSION.—In accordance with the proposition to pledge the credit of the city for the sum of $65,000 for the purpose of aiding in the construction of the six miles of railroad necessary to form a connection with the Bedford and Bridgeport and the Pennsylvania Railroads. There was no apparent extraordinary interest manifested on the streets, yet the vote polled shows clearly that individually the people and the majority given in favor of the ordinance was nexpectedly large. The whole vote polled was 1213. The majority is so decided as to show clearly that the great mass of the people of the city favor the enterprise, since out of 1213 votes only 175 opposed it.—Civilain.

A PLEA FOR THE LABORER. HUNTINGDON, PA., December 27th, 1877. MR. EDITOR:—I read an article in your paper week or two ago, on the subject of church taxa tion. If fully concur in the sentiments expressed in that article, and have no hesitation in saying that the sentiments fully accord with the sentiments of those in the labor movement, but the question is, could such a law be passed? If the laboring classes were united throughout the State there would be no trouble in securing such legislation. They have the power to pass just such laws as they need for their protection, if they could only be induced to unite on one com-mon platform and stick together. They have it in their power to send men to the Senate and the Head and all complete in two hours. No House of Representatives, that will advocate their cause, and work for the good of the community at large. But the repeal of this tax is not the only legislation they need. There should be an exemption law passed exempting at least $1500 worth of fee till head passes. Seat, Pin and Stomach Worms removed by Dr. Kunkel, 259 North Ninth Street. Advice free. No fee until head and all passes in one, and alive. Dr. Kunkel is the only successful physician in this country for the removal of Worms, and his Worm legislation they need. There should be an exemption law passed 'xempting at least $1500 worth of property. Such a law would benefit the poor laborer, the farmer and mechanic. But you ask how would the exemption law benefit the poor man? It would prevent rascality and dishonesty. How often are poor men sold out of house and home, and that too when they had their homes half or two-thirds paid for? thereby making the rich richer and the poor poorer. How often has this been done, in this county, within the last six years? Laboring men, would not such a law be a benefit to you? You know it would. It would protect you and save you bread in such times as these. You must look to your own interests. Therich do this. Almost every law that is passed is passed to save the money of the rich men and protect them in their wealth. You must put men into office who will advocate your cause. Men can be found who cannot be bought up and made go against your interests. You have the power if you will only use it. You want laws that will prevent dishonest men from selling you out after you have paid within a few dollars, of what you owe upon your little homestead. You know there are three rich men one out of every five who will do this thing. They are in every community. More robbery of this kind is prevalent than any one has an idea of. Just look over your county papers and you find them full of Sheriff Sales. Look when you will and you see notices stuck up—yes some poor man's farm, or house, or household goods when you will and you see notices stuck up-yes when you will and you see notices stuck up—yes some poor man's farm, or house, or household goods are to be sacrificed.

Farmers, Mechanics, and Laboring men how long will you suffer these things? Will you not for once stand together and vindicate your own interests and stop the saap judgment business? Crush out the shirt-tail note which are an infamour outrage upon civilization. Once more farmers, mechanics and l-boring men, I call upon you to study well your own interests and the welfare COUNTERFEIT MONEY .- Mr. R. > CONSISTENCY, THOU ART A JEWEL! MR. EDITOR:—Can you tell me the object of the Board of Trade about to be organized in this place? On looking over the names of the persons placed in nomination for officers and directors I find that the most of them go to Philadelphia to buy their clothing, groceries, and any other necessaries, and in this way build up the city trade, while the merchants and mech nics can take care of the little trade left at home. Perhaps the object is to form a Board of Trade so they can get their goods cheaper in Philadelphia than they now do. Or, perhaps, they think they can prevail npon the railroad company to give them passes so they can go more frequently. Or, perhaps, they think they can occasionally get a big, nice, dinner at the public expense. I would like to know; you know ic ezpense. I would like to know; you know MECHANIC.
