The last JOURNAL brought things to a focus graphy is faultless, while its contents cannot A FINE HEAD OF HAIR is such an in-A FINE HEAD OF HAIR is such an in-dispensable adjunct to beauty that no one who prizes good looks should neglect to use "London Hair Color Restorer," the most delightful article ever introduced to the American people for increas-ing its growth, restoring its natural color, and at the same time a lovely hair dressing and beautifi-er. It is totally different from all others; not sticky and gummy, and free from all impure in-gredients that render many other articles obnox-ious; in fact it is exquisitely perfumed and so perfectly and elegantly prepared as to make it a lasting hair dressing and toilet luxury. Sold by all dealers in fine toilet articles at 75 cents a bot-tle, or air bottles for $4. Sold by J. H. Black & Co., Huntingdon. [Aug31-1y '77 New Advertisements. The Huntingdon Journal. peedily.
