The Huntingdon Journal. The Budget of Jun

Serenading the Wrong Party.

C. Claude Culpepper came down from Dayton, Wednesday evening with an intention. During the bright Lexington of youth he had met a Baymiller street belle, who smote him heart and soul, Mr. Culpepper's intention in coming to Cincinnati was to screnade his love. So, gathering a quartette of his toneful friends he started on Wednesday evening for the house of his heart's idol. It was twelve o'clock when the boys anchored under the window of what C. Claude believed was the sheltering fold of his dear lamb. He made a mistake of 100 in numbering the houses, and it was John Sandscript's humble abode that was about to be honored by a serenade. John, however, is one of those misanthropic men who never seem to recognize a favor when they meet one, and when he was awakened from his slumber by "Don't you remember sweet Alice, Ben Bolt ?" sung in one treble, one tenor, two basses and four keys, he was, to draw it mild, ruffled in his temper. Mrs. Sandscript heard the melody, too, and whispered: "Them's serenaders.'

"I'll serenade them." snarled John, getting up, opening the blinds slyly and looking down on the choristers below. "What in the name of the Numidian lion are you going to do, Sandscript?"

asked Mrs. S. rather uneasily. "Just wait and see," said he, gathering up an armful of boots and laying them

VEGETINE.

HER OWN WORDS. BALTIMORE, MD., Feb. 13, 1877.

MR. H. R. STEVENS.

Dear Sir.—Since several years I have got a sore and very painful foot. I had some physicians but they couldn't cure me. Now I have heard of your Vegeting from a lady who was sick for a long time, and became all well from your Vegeting, and I went and bought me one bottlet of Vegeting; and after I had used one bottle, the pains left me, and 't began to heal, and then I bought one other bottle, and so I take it yet. I thank God for this remedy and yourself; and wishing every sufferer may pay attention to it. It is a blessing for health.

MRS. C. KRABE, 638 West Baltimore Street.

VEGETINE SAFE AND SURE.

MR. H. R. STRYENS.

In 1872 your Vegetine was recommended to me, and, yielding to the persuasions of a friend, I consented to try it. At the time I was suffering from general debility and nervous prostration, superinduced by overwork and irregular habits. Its wenderful strengthening and curative properties seemed to affect my debilitated system from the first dose; and under its persistent use I rapidly recovered, gaining more than seals health and good feeling. Since then I have not hesitated to give Yesetime my most unqualified indorsement, as being a safe, sure, and powerful agent in promoting health and restoring the wasted system to new life and energy. Yesetime is the only medicine I use; and as long as I live I never expect to find a better.
