EX-SECRETARY OF WAR WELLS, diad on Monday last.

Dear, happy lady, what' now?

Up? No sir, not up. The fi all the other way. It's down! Do

Well, what's down ?

Why, sir, I have just been d at Brown's Carpet Sto buying Carpets, Furniture, Paper, Window Shades, &c., a never saw such low prices, for goods, in all my life. And its lively on the "Hill" during the week just pass-ed. Business was pushed along rapidly and more real progress made than during any pre-vious two weeks of the session. Several bills of great importance to the people were consid-ered and though not passed finally the action upon them was such as to show along a provide the set of the session.

00		Attorney for Commissioners, was not really com .
00	$18,068 75	missions, as the order states, but was paid for services as Attorney.
	150 00	SUGGESTIONS.	1.40
f He	nderson:	Each order drawn by the Commissioners should,
00		on the face of it, bear a full explanation of itself,
00		which would save much time and trouble at the
00		Annual Settlement. As a large amount was paid for extra work on
00		bridges, we would recommend that contracts be so
00		drawn as to prevent such charges.
	579 00	And, also, that the Commissioners see that the
I	352 48	Assessors make a proper return of all property
20		subject to State tax, as we found several townships having no State tax assessed.
