Circulation LARGER than any other Paper in the Juniata Valley.

THE Additional Law Judge project, we suspect, has gone to the bottom. It was wanted by no one save those who wished to fill the place.

THE "Big Fee" business, at Harrisburg, is creating a bad odor. It is astonishing what ingenious ways they originate down there to raise the wind. It takes money to run the machine, and this is one of the ways of doing it without an appropriation.

THERE appears to be a larger crop of toadies at Harrisburg this year than usual. There are hardly half a dozen Republicans in the House who can stand up against the party lash. Backbone is at a discount down there. Heavens how humiliating!

THE election in New Hampshire, on Tuesday last, resulted in a sweeping victory for the Republicans. They elected their Governor, and the Democrats concede them a majority of fifty in the house and the carrying of eight out of the twelve senatorial districts.

IT is hinted that there is going to be a spirited contest for the control of the Pennsylvania Railroad, at the Annual election. A fuller representation of the stock is expected than has been known for years. The opposition to Thomas A. Scott is becoming formidable.

GOLD was down to 101 on Saturday last. Thus we go. The gold-bugs are not so confident now as they were a few weeks ago. Business is already looming up on every hand. We have two bows to our string now and we feel as "independent as a wood-sawyer with two bucks and two saws."

THE Legislature has not succeeded in creating offices for all of the numerous Ring favorites as yet unprovided for, and until it does there is not much prospect of its adjourning. Let every fellow be pensioned. It will come to this in the end if Harry Huhn is to run the machine, and it may as well be done now as again.

AT the annual meeting of the stockholders of the P. R. R., held in Philadelphia, on Tuesday last, Gen. Lemuel Todd charged the management of that corporation with incompetency, and urged the infusion of new blood into it, the cutting down of the corps of officers and the reduction of the fabulous salaries now paid to some of them. His remarks were greeted with hearty cheers.

THE Pittsburgh Telegraph is one of the most fearless, independent Republican papers in the State. It calls things by their right names. This is what is wanted at this time. Independence may save the Republican party. As it now stands it is merely the Sinbad with the Ring dancing about its neck. If it can cast it off and crush its head it may survive, if not it will go to the wall. It is true that the leaders are mad but they stick worse than Stanton.

THE leaders of the old political parties hardly know what to make of the gay, plump, erect, young rooster just from Toledo. The miserable, old, drooping, bedrappled, shabby-looking fellows eye him with much interest, and fear to attack him single-handed. There is a wonderful amount of caucusing and speculating as to how they may rob him of his plumes But he will keep on in the even tenor of his ways without turning either to the right or to the left.

THE Philadelphia Sunday Press says: We do not hear so much about the country going to the devil now as we did ten days ago. A decided change has come over the spirit of the gold-bug organs. They have become perfectly docile; in fact, seem to be awe stricken at the practical workings of the Silver bill. All their predictions have gone for nothing, and the wisest have shown themselves to be consummate asses in matters of finance, and should at once drop all further discussion of that subject until they have made themselves masters of it.

THE "Recorder Bill," at the latest accounts from Harrisburg, had not been forced through the Senate under the immediate pressure of the whip and spur.—The Philadelphia Ledger, speaking of this piece of iniquity, says:

"The state senate is respectfully notified that the select and common council of Philadelphia, have passed, by unanimous votes in both branches, a resolution requesting the defeat of the "Recorder's bill"—which is a bill to compel the milliners, trimming store keepers, small trades-man, mechanics and others in Philadelphia to return tribute in the shape of compulsory fees towards making a lucrative salary for an utterly useless office."

THE Legislature is trying to make up for its political profligacy by throwing a large sop to the religious element. There are in the State of Pennsylvania several thriving societies of Seventh Day Baptists, who are as moral, as religious and as intelligent as any of their neighbors who belong to the orthodox churches, but they believe in the IVth commandment, and because they do, and labor on Sunday, they are hounded down, persecuted and reviled worse than ordinary felons, and there can be no exemption for them! Oh no! This is a violation of the Constitution of the United States, but what of that? It makes no difference to the average orthodox christian. If a man wants immunities he must be orthodox.—If there is any one thing that would make an infidel or an atheist out of a man of ordinary common sense it would be the conduct of many of those who claim to be Christians.

Harrisburg Correspondence.

HARRISBURG, March 8, 1878.

The regular legislative business of the week past has been principally routine. A large number of bills have been advanced upon the calendar. The discussion has been principally upon local measures. The Philadelphia Recorder's bill and the bill creating a State banking department—the two most important measures of the session are virtually in the same position they were last week. The Bank bill has been sent to committee twice during the week, and again stands upon the Senate calendar for final passage, amended so as to restore bank assessors, the first time it was sent to committee a second time and when it again appeared among its amended provisions was the section abolishing bank assessors. If passed at all it will most likely be in its present shape.

The all important event of the week has been the developements in regard to alleged irregularities in the collection of State taxes due from the "Union railroad and Transportation company." The facts in connection with this case have been so thoroughly mixed up with newspaper and street gossip that it is almost impossible to arrive at any correct statement of the affair. It seems that in October last at the time when the above mentioned company went into liquidation it was discovered by Messrs. Simonton and Olmstead—the first, formerly corporation clerk, in the Auditor General's office and at present a law student, and the second a prominent attorney of the Harrisburg bar—that a large amount of tax aggregating some $200,000 was under the law due from but unpaid by the corporation above mentioned. These gentlemen "taking time by the forelock" went to the officers of the accounting department and the Attorney General and proposed to collect this tax for a commission of ten per cent. An agreement to this effect was drawn up by Messrs. Simonton and Olmstead and signed by the chief clerk of the Auditor General's office, by the State Treasurer and by the Att'y General in person. The tax to the amount above named less an abatement of about $18,000 was promptly paid over by the corporation without litigation to Simonton and Olmstead who upon the receipt of a warrant upon the State Treasurer drawn by the Auditor General for their commission of ten per cent. paid over to the Commonwealth the amount collected, viz: $191,000.00 upon which their commission was $19,000.

The large amount of the fee paid in this case soon attracted attention and the matter began to be generally gossiped about on the "hill" and in the city. At length certain articles were published in a daily paper in Lancaster which were in the nature of an adverse and severe criticism of the transaction and which cast reflections of a serious character upon all parties whose names were appended to the contract under which the money was collected, and upon the present corporation clerk in the Auditor General's office, Wm. F. Bayard, whose name does not appear upon any of the papers connected with the contract, and who denies any improper connection with the affair. Now a legislative investigation has been demanded by both sides and the following committee appointed by the Senate, are sitting upon the case, Senators Clark, Gazzam, Davies, Herr and Peale, are sitting upon the case. A number of witnesses have been examined, the most important of whom was Jno. McMurray, who made some damagiug disclosures. The testimony of Mr. Bayard has not yet been given, and until all the testimony has been taken, your correspondent deems it advisable to express no opinion on the subject.

Apples of Gold in Pictures of Silver.

"A word fitly spoken is like apples of gold in pictures of silver." When the body becomes diseased, the mind is thereby necessarily influenced. National wars, State dissensions, neighborhood broils, and family differences, are more frequently than otherwise the result of diseased and disordered constitutions. When the body is suffering, the mind, acting in sympathy, will become irritated and perplexed. When the physical system is in health, the mind perceives things in their true light, and the disposition assumes a very different phase. Nothing more directly tends to destroy the happy, cheerful disposition of a woman, and render her peevish, nervous, and fretful, than a constant endurance of uterine disorders. The diseases peculiar to woman take away the elasticity and bouyancy of health and reduce her body and mind to a mere wreck. Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription is a real peacemaker in a family. No woman suffering from uterine disorders can afford to be without this remedy. The Favorite Prescription saves unnecessary doctor bills, prevents divorces, wards off suicides, brings back buoyant joyous feelings, restores the woman to health and her family to happiness. It is sold by all druggists.

DRY-GOODS.

The success of past seasons in collecting, from markets of the world, fabrics suited to the clothing of man, woman, and child, has had a tendency to make us feel that our experience has given us a kind of intuitive knowledge of what will be wanted each coming season, so seldom do we err in the selections, although many things are contracted for months before wanted.

For the coming spring and summer we have in store a larger stock than ever, and are still daily receiving goods from not only home manufacturers but from those abroad, each steamer arriving at this port having its quota for our house.

Persons at a distance can by writing us have a catalogue sent them, or samples of specialities if preferred. A visit, though, which incurs no obligation to buy, would be most satisfactory.
