THROUGH AT LAST.

We have at last completed the unpleasant task of sending out bills to those indebted to the late firm of J. R. Durborrow & Co., for subscription to the JOURNAL, and now that each person knows the exact amount of his or her indebtedness, we hope that prompt payment will follow in every case. Owing to pressing demands upon us for money, we must insist upon an immediate settlement of all these accounts. Those who fail to respond to our appeal will find their accounts in the hands of proper officers for collection, at an early day. Town subscribers can call in at any time and pay their subscriptions. To ascertain the amount they can examine the tab on their papers or drop into the office, and we trust they will do this at

At the Agricultural Fair held in this place in 1873 a premium of $100 00 was offered by the society to the steam fire engine throwing a stream of water the greatest distance. Three steamers entered the contest, as follows, the Vigilant of Altoona, the Phænix of Hollidaysburg, and the Huntingdon of this place. At the close of the contest the prize was awarded the Vigilant, she having thrown 26 feet further than the Huntingdon and 37 feet 71 inches further than the Phænix. She was declared the run over his hands and arms the less he will require to drink. Persons who are in the habit of drinking large potations of water when heated from exercise or labor, might find this advice of great value to them. Try it.

Two old rips of horses, belonging to a couple of itinerant bone-gatherers, who have been operating in this place for a week past, performed a feat the other evening, which would have done credit to Dan Rice's trained horse, "Excelsior." They were carroled in the vicinity of the "cut," on the opposite side of the river, and the grass not being very luxuriant, they made up their minds to seek new pastures. They got upon the track of the Broad Top railroad, travelled the trestle-work and crossed three bridges, and landed at the foot of Fifth street safe and sound. In getting town is concerned, with "firemen" or any person else, about which the Mirror seems so solicitous, we think it is quite as good as Altoona. We think it is "unblushing impudence" coupled with unfairness, for that paper to be everlastingly prating about the dishonesty of our firemen. They are the peers of Altoona firemen in everything that constitutes good citizens and honorable gentlemen, and the false "sympathy" of the Mirror is neither needed nor desired.

SWINDLERS.—Several weeks ago, says the Mechanicsburg Journal, a party of sharpers traveled this county securing agents for the Eureka Harvest Grinder, never failing to secure farmer's names, and as they said, to have their address so as to ship them the goods. Last week several others of the parties called on the farmers again, and produced orders signed by them for grinders to the amount of $198. Quite a number of farmers in this vicinity have been swindled by forcing the signatures from them, and then threatening prosecution, etc. They secured quite a number of signatures to notes before the farmers really knew what they were signing. FANNIE DAVENPORT'S BLACK EYE .-Last summer Fannie Davenport brought home from California, among other trophies, a very handsome century plant. This rare exotic she attended with all the lavish care she expends upon all her numerous pets. One afternoon, just before preparing for the theatre, in the early part of the present season, she was watering her plant and examining its buds—for it had just begun to put forth its centennial blossoms—when by an accident, her right eye came in violent collision with it. The blow was sudden and sharp, and the luckless beauty had, within five minutes, to lament the possession of a bad black eye. Her fille de chambre happened to have applied once before, to a bruise on her arm, some of Giles' Liniment Iodide Ammonis, which is said to be a specific for all such unsightly contusions. The second application removed the swelling and discoloration in half an hour. Fannie Davenport is, therefore, one of Dr. Giles' warmest admirers.
