- The Ashland Advocate, published by our friend, J. Irvin Steel, esq., comes to us wear-ing a new suit, and giving every evidence of funancial prosperity. Our friend Steel struck a bonanza when he pitched his tent in Schuylkill county, all of which we are glad to know. If more care was taken in the mechanical department of the Advocate it would look as well as the Journal, the "handsomest and best made under what is called the "Railroad" printed paper in the county."
- Rev. D. H. Geissinger, of Lancaster, preached two sermons in this place on Sunday last. He occupied the pulpit of the Presbyterian church in the morning and of the Lutheran church in mere announcement that he is to preach in any of our churches is a sufficient guarantee that a large congregation will greet him.
- Two persons arrived in this place, on Sunday last, in pursuit of a man who had stolen a horse at some point in Clearfield county, on Friday night. On Saturday an individual, with a horse in his possession, answering the description of the thief, stopped and took dinner at the Washington house in this borough. He left for the east immediately after dinner. His pursuers were about ten hours behind him, and it is more than probable that they will succeed in capturing him.

He does, and when he leaves, notwith standing the farmer's protests, insists upon paying therefor, which he does— with a counterfeit ten dollar bill. We hope none of our farmers will allow themselves to be swindled by the scoundrels.
- Huntingdon's popular green grocer, Bob Westbrook, has placed us under obligations for the present of a basket brim-full of vegetables. He deals largely in all kinds of vege-tables and fruits, and the best in the market can always be found at his stand. We are pleased to know that our big-hearted friend is liberally patronized by an appreciative public. All purchases delivered free of charge to any part of town. - SEASONABLE INFORMATION .-- TREAT MENT OF INFANTS.—During the hot weather of July, August and September, there is more fatality among infants, as a general thing, than in any other three months of the year. This is caused through a want of knowledge how to properly minister to the wants of the little ones. The Board of Health of the city of New York has issued a circular in relation to the care and feeding of infants, and as it is considered exceedingly good authority we give some of the points touching this subject for the benefit of mothers and others who may
- have infants under their care : In nursing, over-feeding does more harn han anything else; nurse an infant a month or two old every three hours. Nurse an infant of six months and over five times in twentywhisky may be added to either water or food, the whisky not to exceed a teaspoonful in 24
- If the infant must be fed, boil a teaspoonful of powdered barley (ground in a coffee grind-er) and a gill of water, with a little salt, for 5 minutes, strain, then mix it with half as much boiled milk, add a lump of white sugar, size of a walnut, and give it lukewarm from a nursing bottle; keep bottle and mouthpiece in water when not in use, to which a little derful cures as Hop Bitters do, but when old soda may be added. For infants five or six and young, rich and poor, Pastor and Doctor months old give half barley water and half Lawyer and Editor all testify to having been boiled milk, with salt and a lump of sugar. cured by them you must believe and try them For older infants give more milk than barley water. For infants very costive give oatmeal instead of barley. Cock and strain as before. When your breast-milk is only half enough change off between it and this prepared food In hot weather, if blue litimus paper, applied o the food, turns red, the food is too and you must make a fresh mess, or add a small pinch of baking soda. Infants of six months may have beef tea or beef soup once a day, by itself or mixed with other food; and when ten or twelve months old, a crust of bread or a piece of rare beef to suck. No child
- under two years ought to eat at your table. Give no candies, in fact nothing that is not contained in these rules, without a doctor's Summer complaint comes from overfeeding and hot and foul air. Keep doors and wind-ows open. Wash your well children twice a day with cold water, and oftener in the hot season. Never neglect looseness of the bowels in an infant : consult the family or dispen should be nursed. Keep your rooms as cool as possible, have them well ventilated, and do not allow any bad smell to come from sinks, privies, garbage boxes or gutters about the house where you live. - serious accident, on Wednesday forenoon, at what is known as "Hefright's quarry," in the suffering and risk by the timely use of "Dr. Swayne's Compound Syrup of Wild Cherry," and the tree. Upon an examination of the growth of the tree it was found that the ball had been shot into the tree over one hundred years ago. The question now is, who pulled the trigger of the old flint-look, which sentthat ball "whitzin" and in order that the handling of them may be as convenient as possible a large platform has been erected, near the main track, and is connected with it by a moveable track space through which his body passed, we must infer that they are serious, and that his chances of recovery are very doubtful. Mr. Kauffman was formerly a resident of this place, but for some time past has resided at Mapleton.
- prisoner, a villamous-looking tramp, ganname as Thomas Green, and said he was from name as Thomas Green, and said he was from Denver, Colorado. He was committed to the lock up to await the first train to Hollidaysburg, where he was taken last evening by Sheriff Stiffler. Swoope, who has a brother in this city, went to see him in order to arrange for eity, went to see him in order to arrange for sessing a tax against any person after the time specified in the law for closing his labors.
