PRTRESDURG, PA., Sept. 10, 1878. EDITOR JOURNAL:--The campaign was opened here last night by a rousing Republican meeting. The Union School building was crowded to over-flowing. The first speaker was J. W. Mattern, esq., who discussed the financial question in a masterly manner, and to the satisfaction of every doubting mind. J. W. Baer, esq., the "Buckeye Blacksmith" brought up the rear, and by his winning manners, and his own way of discussing the vital issues of the campaign, infused such enthusiasm into the minds of the voters present as has not been seen here for years.
