We refer the above good advice to the Nationalist, and, after reading it, we hope it will cease its war against the location of the Middle Penitentiary at this place. That paper is working against the interests of the very men whose cause it professes to champion. For fear that the location of the Penitentiary at this place might make a few votes for Senator Fisher it is trying its level best to drive it to some other point. We think the laboring men of this county will have no difficulty in determining who are their real friends if they will contrast the efforts of Senator Fisher to secure the location of the new penitentiary at Huntingdon with the efforts of their professed organ to frighten them to look upon its location here as detrimental to their interest. Senator Fisher has always been the friend of the laborer, and the warm support that he is receiving from that class of our fellow citizens is proof that they fully appreciate in the friend of the laborer, and the warm support that he is receiving from that class of our fellow citizens is proof that they fully appreciate his hest friend.
