THE Democratic papers throughout the State are going for the National party like vengeance, and nearly all of them, having taken the key-note from Chairman Speer, are begging their partisans to "come back."

REV. DOYLE says he "has to wash his mouth out every time he mentions the JOURNAL or the Globe." He didn't do so after he said that the Democratic party gress. came from Hell. He has that in his eloquence. People will be surprised to and those of Mr. Stonger are far from hear how much can be said about elover- harmonizing on the question of finance.

THE spook candidate for Register and Recorder is not depending upon any personal effort for his election. He has all the inhabitants of another world at work in his interests, and after political parties see the result they will never again nominate any but mediums. Rev. Doyle is also depending upon the fellows who come from-"no, not Nazareth, but that other calls it "vanity." This is a common thing

THE Nationals will have no difficulty in earrying the next election. It will only be necessary for them to do enough "fiat" voting. If they can succeed in getting about six hundred thousands tickets into the ballot boxes bearing the inscription "this is a vote," they will probably have a considerable majority in the State. The advantage of "fiat" voting is that it can be done without voters.

SPEER'S "Editorial Band" are hammer ing away at W. M'K. Williamson, our present and next Prothonotary. One week they publish a column of base falsehoods in organ No. 1, the assertion of the nomimal editor of that sheet that he "writes his own editorials" to the contrary notwithstanding, and the following week the same article appears in the Mud-Slinger as editorial. "My organs" are doing the very best they know how to advance the political interest of the Salary Grabber and the would be United States Senator.

"My organs," the Monitor and the Nationalist, will have it that Mesers. M'-Vitty and Smith are for Don. Cameron for United States Senator. If Mr. Cameron should happen to be the caucus nominee of the party, as a matter of course they will support him, but when these papers but he will have more trouble in "perassert that these gentlemen are running as suading" Republicans to vote for him than Cameron men, they assert that which is his friends had in "persuading" Swineford, not true. THE town of Edenburg, in Clarion county, on Sunday morning last, was almost wiped from the face of the earth by the fire fiend. This is hunting sea of flame. Owing to the scarcity of water the firemen were powerless to render any valuable assistance, and two hundred and twenty-five buildings were burned, entailing a loss of $400,000, and rendering hundreds of families homeless and pennileas. SPEER wants the Democrats to swear that they will not vote for a Greenbacker. Suppose the Greenbackers swear that they won't vote for a Democrat, then what will become of Foust, Speer's candidate for Assembly? The Greenbackers can swear just as well as Democrats, and a number of them in this place, since they have read Mr. Speer's Address, have already sworn that they will not vote for his mongrel ticket in this county. That gentleman should remember that "what is sauce for the goose is sauce for the gander."-"Swear" away, boys, but see that Speer don't get "the last swear" on you. Vote the Republican ticket from Governor down to Auditor and you will have no occasion to "swear" after the election, for you will have discharged your duty as honest men by voting for honest candidates who are in favor of honest money.

THE Greenback is the child of Republican the conflict, it was the star of hope and promise of redemption to struggling liberty. Persecuted in its infancy by the Herods and High Priests of Democracy, who sought the young child's life, it was jeered for illegitimacy by the Pendletons; buffeted for vagabondism by the Vallandighams; mocked with a crown of rags by the Thurmans, and crucified by Copper-heads and parricides on the cross of treason; and now, on its re ascended estate and glory victory, the patriots to whom it restored country, have sworn that its old arch-enemy shall reign .- Judge West's Speech at Hillsborg.
