WYOMING, Pa., Oct. 12, 1878. A Falsehood Exploded.

We made a cautious allusion, a short time since, to certain reports designed to affect the standing of General Hoyt, our candidate for Governor, before the religious portion of the community. Our attention was first attracted to the subject by receiving a postal card, inquiring if we knew anything concerning his religious belief, the writer stating that it was reported he was an infidel. Further inquiry established the fact, not only that such reports were current, but that a brother of Mr. Dill, the Democratic candidate for Governor, was helping the circulation of such reports. We denied, on our own knowledge, the correctness of this report; but learning that Rev. Dr. Nelson, one of the agents of the Methodist Episcopal Book Concern, at New York, knew General Hoyt quite intimately, we took the liberty of writing him on the subject. Me was naturally surprised at such reports, and before replying to us, took the precaution to was naturally surprised at such reports, and before replying to us, took the precaution to fortify his own knowledge by writing to friends in Luzerne county, and now forwards to us replies received. Our triends will please notice that all speak from personal knowledge. The the surprise specific three surprises of the letters:

The above bill took from the sinking fund $9,500,000 of bonds amply secured, of which the interest and part of the principal was annually paid, substituting therefor the mortgage bonds of projected and experimental roads, thus geopardizing the safety of the funds.

From his youth up till the change of my residence from Wyoming Valley thange of my residence from wyoming variey to this city, six years ago, so Intimate was my acquaintance with General Hoyt that had he been in the least degree inclined to infidelity, I could not have failed to discover it. When I read your note, I said to myself, "it can't be I read your note, I said to myself, "it can't be that within the past few years my friend Hoyt had fallen a prey to scepticism," so firmly had I regarded him established in the belief of Christianity. However, to be absolutely sure that no such change in Gen. Hoyt's religious views had taken place within the past six years as to give any occasion, whatever, for charging him with being an infidel, I wrote Rev. Dr. W. H. Olin, presiding elder of Wyoming district, and resident of Wilkesbarre, the General's home.

Herewith I hand you Dr. Olin's letter, and

We have, indeed, one degenerate specimen of the former generation in the person of the Hon. Hendrick B. Wright, who occupies a prominent position with the ruling element of the times. Col. Dear Sir:—Your note informing me that General Herry M. Hoyt is charged with being an infidel surprised me beyond measure. I have known him from his boyhood. He prepared for college at the Wyoming Conference Seminary under my charge, and having graduated at college, at my request, the trustees elected him as one of our teachers in the Seminary.
