LITERARY NOTES .-

Peterson's Magazins is already on our table fo Peterson's stagazins is already on our table in Jahuary, a triumph of art, literature, and fashion. Either of the two steel engravings "The Playmates," or "The Letter at the Gate," is worth the price of the number. Then the treble-sized colored pattern, "Persian Embroidery in Applique, &c.," the very newest thing out, would be chean at fifty cents. As for the mammoth colored fashion plate, it is simply unrivaled; and besides this on-plate, it is simply unrivaled; and besides this here are some thirty other fashion illustrations. Then, too, there is a Supplement, with a full-size pattern for a Winter Mantill, the very latest style pattern for a Winter Mantill, the very latest style. To praise the stories in "Peterson" is unnecessary; they are always original, and always the best. Two powerful novelets are begun, one by Ann S. Stephens, another by Jane G Austin; and in addition there are stories by Frances Hodgson Burnett, Rebecca Harding Davis, Frank Lee Benedict, "Josiah Allen's Wife," &c. &c.

Now is the time to subscribe. "Peterson" is un-diet, "Josiah Allen's Wile," &c. &c.

Now is the time to subscribe. "Peterson" is unquestionably the cheapest and best of the ladies' books. The price is only two dollars a year. To clubs it is cheaper still, viz: 4 copies for $6.50, with an extra copy gratis to the person getting up the club, or 5 copies for $8.00, and both an extra copy and a superb premium engraving, "Christ Blessing Little Children." Specimens of the magazine sent gratis to persons wishing to get up clubs. Address Charles J. Peterson, 306 Chestnut Street, Philadelphia, Pa.
