The Pennsylvania Legislature will meet on Tuesday next the 7th inst.

FIFTEEN contests will be made for seats in the House of Representatives of the XLVth Congress.

THE walking match between O'Leary and Campa, which had been in progress at Gilmore's Garden, New York, for the last six days, terminated in a victory for O'Leary on Saturday evening.

We see a notice going the rounds of the press to the effect that Mr. Edgar King, esq., of the Blair County Radical, is to have a position under the incoming Hoyt administration worth $1,800 per year. We hope that the rumor may be correct.

THE Teller investigating committee started this (Thursday) morning, for New Orleans, Charleston and other places, for the purpose of taking testimony bearing on the crookedness of the late elections in that Democracy-cursed section of our country.

ALLEN C. LAROS, the partridge, who escaped from the Insane Asylum, a few months ago, is back in his old quarters. He says that he prefers hanging to imprisonment, and is anxious that the sentence be carried out. He should be accommodated by all means.

A LARGE building, known as "The Cottage," containing twenty-eight rooms, situated about a half mile from Minnequa Springs, and used as sleeping quarters during the season, was totally destroyed by fire on the morning of the 27th ult., together with a large quantity of elegant furniture.

ROBERT FOX, of Fox's theatre, Philadelphia, undertook to inaugurate Sunday performances a couple of Sundays ago, and as a feeler he gave a public full-dress rehearsal on the day referred to. He attempted to evade the law by not receiving an admission fee, but it seems that he has got himself into trouble and three indictments are now pending against him. On the occasion referred to about three thousand persons crowded his theatre. Major Stokely and his police are determined that the Sunday law shall be respected.

JOHN WANAMAKER'S Grand Depot was lighted by twenty-four electric lights, one night last week, which did the work of 2,400 gas jets. Quite a large number of scientific gentlemen were present to witness the experiment, and they seemed to be of the opinion that it was a success. If the electric light can be brought to perfection it will knock gas light higher than Gilderoy's kite, as it is claimed that a light of two hundred candle power can be furnished at a cost of about one-half cent per hour.

COL. OWEN JONES, at one time a prominent Democratic politician, who resided in a palatial residence at Wynewood, near Philadelphia, died suddenly of heart disease, on Christmas night. He left his house at nightfall to visit a neighbor, instructing one of his hired help to call for him at 10 o'clock. The man called at the hour named but was informed that Col. Jones had not been there that evening. Search was at once instituted for the missing man and about midnight his lifeless body was found by the roadside, a short distance from his own home. The deceased was an ultra Democrat, and represented the Fifth District in Congress during the Buchanan reign. He died several millions of dollars.

IN LAST week's issue we stated that a rumor was current that S. L. Glasgow, esq., of Saltillo, would be an applicant for Deputy Attorney General under Gov. Hoyt. Since then we have authentic information that such is the fact, and we trust he will succeed. He has the reputation of being a good lawyer, and we know he deserves the place. We have known Mr. Glasgow long and intimately, and we are safe in saying that no better Republican lives than he. We learn that he is very favorably recommended by the Republican members of the Huntingdon bar, and by quite a number of other leading men of the party in this county and other portions of the State. We hope to be able to announce his appointment at the proper time. We say emphatically that he is made.

THE LATEST ABOUT CHARLIE ROSS.—Dr. Mary Walker announces that she knows all about the Charlie Ross story. She says that when he disappeared she hastened to his parents, and gave them not only condolences but also money and her personal efforts to fathom the mystery. She lived in the family for some time. She stumbled across a bit of information which led to the belief that all was not right, and she finally discovered that Charlie's father had put the little boy out to board with a family who were in the conspiracy. She says she did not expose the fraud, because it took her many months to find out where the boy was kept. She claims that Ross has made a large sum of money out of the sympathies of the public, and that he has offered to pay her handsomely if she would keep her knowledge to herself. The boy would have been discovered long ago, and indeed, arrangements were once made to have the child found at St. Albans, Vt., but it was known that he would expose the fraud, and so he has kept secluded. She says that within three weeks she has seen and spoken with the child, and that she is acquainted with his entire history since the supposed abduction. She will publish a book in two or three weeks containing the complete story of what she calls the greatest hoax ever perpetrated upon the American people. A good many people have given considerable credence to Dr. Mary's story, while others think it a shrewd device for raising the wind in a forthcoming literary effort.

NEWSPAPERS.—

B. F. FRIS, esq., who started the Green back paper in this town, is about to start a new paper at Reading.

The Altoona Sun, we understand, will be enlarged this week. We are pleased to note this evidence of prosperity.

Owing to ill health, S. M. Wherry, esq., was compelled to retire from the Carlisle Volunteer, and he has been succeeded by Mr. Zeamer who has purchased the establishment.

The Philadelphia Times says that a new Democratic paper is to be made to appear in Bellefonte. The Herald, the organ of the defunct Greenbackers, has been purchased and the material will be used in the publication of the new paper. There is "fun ahead," and there will be "music in the air" "over there."

The Oel, published at Patterson, Juniata county, by "Some One," which was temporarily suspended a short time since, has again made its appearance, and, as usual, is filled with pointed local persons. We have no doubt its "hoot" is unpleasant to many of the young people of that locality.

The Chambersburg Valley Spirit changed hands a few weeks ago. Mr. J. W. Wolfkill having purchased the establishment from Mr. C. Clugston, is now its publisher. J. M. Cooper, esq., who has so ably presided over its editorial columns for some time past, will retain his position as its editor and continue to grind out pure and unsullied Democracy. The Spirit is ably conducted, and is a paying establishment. We wish all parties success as far as an accumulation of this town's goods is concerned, but in every political contest we want them to come off second best.

We are in receipt of The Teacher, a new publication just started by the Eldridge Brothers, at 17 North Seventh street, Philadelphia. The number before us contains many things of value to teachers, and in fact is a storehouse of general information. It is a monthly publication and is furnished at the low price of fifty cents a year. We recognize in one of the publishers our old-time friend George P. Eldridge, who, in 1855 '6, up in Morris township, "taught the young idea how to shoot." For a number of years past he has resided in Philadelphia where he is extensively engaged in the book trade.

And still they come. The Home Monthly is the latest acquisition to the large list of papers printed in this county. The paper is published at Huntingdon, by our worthy young townsman, E. B. Swayne, and the initial number is a handsome specimen of typography. It is an eight page sheet, each page being 11x16 inches, containing four columns of matter, and is issued at the low subscription price of fifty cents per annum. In view of the fact that there are so many papers in this county we fear that our young friend will not make a fortune out of his venture, but we hope that we may be wrong in our opinion, and that the shekels may roll in and fill his coffers to repletion.

Mr. YOCUM, who defeated the "War Governor" for Congress, in the Centre district, and whose seat is to be contested, in the preparation of his answer to Curtin's notice of contest, has stumbled on some very damaging evidence against the Curtinists. He will be able to prove that large sums of money were used for the purpose of bribing and buying men to vote for Curtin. A Bellefonte dispatch says that "there are some men who have hitherto claimed a reputation for honesty and integrity, both in public and private life, who will realize that their zeal in the recent canvass in behalf of Curtin has placed them in the very unenviable position of gross violators of the election laws, and probably successful candidates for the penitentiary."

SAYS the Philadelphia Press: "The Infatigations who prophesied that resumption was impossible and the attempt to resume would prove disastrous, must be rather surprised at the ease with which gold touched par in advance of the date fixed upon. Fortunately, the people were able to distinguish sophistry from common sense and supported the party of honest money."

DEATH OF HON. ROBERT W. MACKAY.—This sad event occurred at Philadelphia, at ten minutes past ten o'clock on Wednesday morning last. The disease which cut short a useful career was consumption, from which he has been suffering for several years.

JUDGE SHERMAN, of Ohio, brother of Secretary and General Sherman, died suddenly, at his residence, in Cleveland, on Wednesday morning.
