

Circulation LARGER than any other Paper in the Juniata Valley.

RESUMPTION, so far as success. There is plenty of gold, but people prefer paper money.

HON. CALB CUSHING died at his residence, in Newburyport, Mass., on the 21st inst., aged 78 years.

The message of Gov. Hartranft came to hand too late for publication in this week's JOURNAL. It will appear next week.

We are indebted to Hon. J. P. Wickham, Superintendent of Public Instruction, for his Annual Report for the year ending June 3, 1878.

We have handsome Illustrated Almanacs from the Harrisburg Telegraph and the Clinton Republican, for which the editors of these papers will please accept our thanks.

The Republicans of the Legislature met in caucus on Wednesday night and nominated Hon. J. D. Cameron for United States Senator. Mr. Cameron had no opponent in caucus.

We went into the fight for an overhauling paper, - Organ No. 2. And that "purpose" was to get, Foust & Co. to do their dirty work. "Only that, and nothing more."

DEATH OF HON. MORTON MICHAEL. - Hon. Morton Michael, editor of the North American, and ex-Mayor of Philadelphia, died at his residence in that city, on Monday last, of rheumatism of the heart. A good man has fallen.

The annual meeting of the Pennsylvania State Fruit Growers' Association will be held in Reading on the 15th and 16th inst. If there are any members of the association in our county they are respectfully invited to be present.

The funeral procession of Hon. R. W. Mackey, in Pittsburgh, on Monday afternoon, was the largest ever witnessed in that city. Prominent men from Philadelphia, Harrisburg, and other places were in attendance in large numbers.

The cold war which we have been experiencing in this latitude for the past few days, was pretty general throughout the country. In some sections of the north-west the cold was so intense that outdoor operations had to be entirely suspended, and travel was very much impeded.

"UNCLE JAKE ZEIGLER," the veteran editor of the Butler Herald, is urged for the position of sergeant at arms of the United States Senate under the approaching Democratic control of that body. If years of faithful service to that party is entitled to reward he should have the place.

Up in Bedford county, the Democratic candidate for Commissioner who was defeated by one vote, took it into his head to contest the seat of Mr. Rogers, the Republican commissioner elect, but Judge Hall, after hearing all the facts in the case, ruled that there was no grounds for a contest and dismissed the petition.

Now that greenbacks are as good as gold, the Greenback party ought to be happy. If Ben Butler and other Greenbackers had had their way, greenbacks would have been as worthless as the rags from which they are made, because they desired to make them in unlimited amounts. - Harrisburg Telegraph.

COMMUNISM is hinted at by an obscure publication in this county. "Ropes and lamp posts," "deluges of blood," etc., are pictured as in store for people who will not divide their hard earned wealth with the chronic beggars who spend their time in idleness, flogging fault with their fellows, the government and everything else. Bosh!

It was the tactics of the Nationalist, etc. - Organ No. 2. We must admit that our friend Speer managed the thing pretty well. After he and Mr. North nominated the Legislative ticket, the former gentleman turned his attention to his new newspaper purchase, and by hard work and considerable "assistance" succeeded in keeping his publication in the course laid down for him. "How we applaud you!"

EX JUDGE CHARLES T. SHERMAN, father-in-law of Senator Cameron, died at his residence at Cleveland, on the 1st inst., aged 60 years. He was a lawyer of ability and before his appointment as Judge of the United States District Court of Ohio, had a large practice in Washington. He leaves a wife and five children - two sons and three daughters - one of the former a practicing attorney in Cleveland and the other the United States Marshal of the Territory of New Mexico. His eldest daughter is the wife of General Nelson A. Miles, the celebrated Indian fighter; the second, the wife of Col. Colgate Hoyt, of Cleveland, and the youngest the wife of J. Don Cameron.

We have had a period of unbridled extravagance, of reckless waste, of heedless enterprise, of prodigious business expansion, of speculation, kite-flying and wild issues of irredeemable paper money, followed by a natural collapse, ruin, bankruptcy and stagnation. We are now commencing to build on a firmer foundation an edifice that shall be both lasting and grand. In fact, the golden age of the Republic is fairly ushered in by an immense export of trade, prodigious domestic balances, the rapid extinguishment of the foreign debt, the large and steady accumulation of gold in the National Treasury, the successful restoration of the coin basis, the triumph of American manufactures in European markets, the increased power and self-reliance of domestic capital and the progressive reduction of the principal and interest of the national debt. - Phila. North American.

UP, SCYPHANT, AND BLUSH FOR SHAME!

Organ No. 2, of last week, contained an article, written, we believe, by the man who was hired to do the dirty work of Speer, Foust & Co. during the campaign of last fall, in which he charged M. S. Lytle, esp. with being the author of an article on "the U. S. Senatorship," published in the JOURNAL of the 13th ult., and in the course of which he tried to be severe on the JOURNAL for its advocacy of Hon. J. D. Cameron for United States Senator. We don't care to whom he attributes the authorship of our articles, or what he may say about the "toadism and flunkism" of our paper, we give him full license to say what he pleases in this direction, but we cannot refrain from drawing the attention of our readers to the reason why this man is opposed to the Camerons. He confesses his shame when he says:

"(We meaning myself) asked the Camerons to give us some assistance, not only once, but repeatedly, but they turned a deaf ear to our appeals, and having been spurned in this manner we resolved that hereafter we would help to tear down the house which we had built as a willing hand in raising."

There's a confession that "ought to make angels weep" and devils laugh with joy. Poor fellow! Though known for years, by a few, to be purchasable at the highest price offered, he has never before flaunted his depravity to the world at large. Party creed, platform and national issues are of but little account to him who attempts to justify his desertion of party because, and only because, he wanted favors of a man who belonged to the same political household and was refused. The Golden calf, graven by Aaron of old, never had a more devoted worshiper than the editor of organ No. 2. He says that he bore it at that shrine until a "deaf ear was turned to his appeals for assistance."

We are a Cameron man from principle, and if we had occasion to ask the Camerons for "assistance," even "repeatedly," we would deny it, we would not "henceforward help to tear down the house which we had lent as a willing hand in raising."

From May, 1855, to December, 1859, we published the Huntingdon American, and a reference to the files of our paper will show that Gen. Simon Cameron was our ideal of a Statesman during these years. Under our control the American was the first paper in the Union to hoist the name of Simon Cameron as a candidate for the Presidency, and in May, 1860, we accompanied the large Pennsylvania delegation to the Chicago National Convention in his interest. We believed then, and we believe now, that the Republican party of Pennsylvania would be infinitely safer with men of his make-up as standard bearers than to entrust its management to the McClares, Curtiss, and others who are now running side shows to the Democratic circus, probably for the same reason that the editor of organ No. 2 is - for a price.

But enough. We wash our hands of further controversy on this subject, and will use our best endeavor to edit and manage the JOURNAL as a Republican paper, in which we have not any secret, assistant or advisory editors, as has been specially mentioned for the benefit of the Nationalist.

THE CAMERON LEADERSHIP. The Lebanon Courier says that the propriety of re-electing the Hon. J. D. Cameron to the Senate is now generally conceded. This unanimity of opinion is a very efficient service in the position of the unchallenged leaders of the party, and their fidelity to the party's principles, and their generous liberality, have won them the respect and good wishes of the greater part of the workers in the party's cause.

The Courier, as usual, is level headed in the expression of its views. The course of the opposition to the Camerons, in fighting them outside of the party lines, only drew the great mass of the Republicans more closely to them. They admired their devotion to principle, and their fidelity to party, while others who had been equally trusted, were faithless. The Camerons became the leaders of the party by necessity, and because they had adhered closely to it, they have retained their hold on the affections of the Republican masses. Their worst enemies must concede that their leadership has been a success to the party, as well as to themselves; and so long as they yield the scepter discreetly, and recognize the just claims of the active members of the party their sway is not likely to be disturbed by any formidable organization within the party lines. Parties must have leaders, the Republicans of Pennsylvania are satisfied with the present dynasty, and they will be slow to exchange it until well assured that something better is offered. The course of the enemies of the Camerons has made them supreme in the councils of the party in this State.

Gov. Curtin is now a recognized leader of the Democratic party. Col. McClure and Col. Forney do not claim, we believe, to be in full sympathy with the Republicans, while declining to be regarded as Democrats. When all were Republicans in good standing, they never could for any length of time harmonize with Gen. Cameron. If occasionally a treaty of peace would be patched up among them, it would not have the strength of a rope of sand. True, it was difficult for an outsider to see what they fought about, but somehow or other they managed to keep up an incessant quarrel. There was no principle involved in it except as to who should be leader, a question in which the masses of the party did not take any very lively interest. The State of Pennsylvania is large, and if there had been entire harmony in the Republican ranks at that time, all these men who esteemed themselves great, could have been provided for by the National and State administrations. A common interest should have dictated a policy of peace and forbearance, but as both Cameron and Curtin were determined to be the leader of the party, to the exclusion of the other, one of them must necessarily go under in the conflict. Cameron

Hosts of People are Martyrs

To sick headache, that infatigable symptom of a disordered stomach, liver and bowels. Many suffer from it as many as three or four times a week. It is the result of indigestion, and is cured by the use of Dr. Kunkel's Bitter Wine of Iron. It is a powerful purgative, and restores the system to its normal condition. It is a powerful purgative, and restores the system to its normal condition. It is a powerful purgative, and restores the system to its normal condition.

Mr. Walker named W. C. Shurlock, of Beaver. A ballot was then taken with the following result: Mr. C. Shurlock, received 111 votes; T. O'Leary, received 75 votes; W. Schuckers received 10 votes.

Of the Greenbackers Messrs. Thickstun, Seaton, Doyle, Shear, Conroy, Welsh, Morris and White voted for W. Schuckers. Messrs. Gans, Hines, O'Leahon, Mooney and Shoenor voted for W. C. Shurlock.

Mr. Curran voted for P. O'Leary. The oath of office was then administered to Mr. Shurlock by Speaker Long.

Mr. E. W. Davis, of Philadelphia, then nominated John A. Snull for the position of Resident clerk, and Mr. Snull, of Philadelphia, moved that Mr. Snull be elected by acclamation, which was agreed to.

For reading clerk Mr. Leigh, of Philadelphia, named Henry Hahn, and Mr. Francis named James Monahan.

The ballot for these gentlemen, both of Philadelphia, resulted as follows: Mr. Hahn received 114 votes. Mr. Monahan received 83 votes.

Of the Greenbackers Messrs. Reader, Thickstun, Doyle, Foust, Shear, Curran and White voted for Mr. Monahan. Messrs. Seaton, Gans, Hines, O'Leahon, Mooney, Conroy, Welsh, Shoenor and Morris voted for Mr. Hahn.

Messrs. Davis, Burgess and Early were appointed a committee of three to wait upon the Senate and inform them the House was ready to proceed to business.

Messrs. Walter, Pollock and Sherwood, of York, were appointed a committee to act with a similar committee on the part of Senate to wait upon the governor.

On motion of Mr. Hall last year's rules were adopted until further orders. After passing a resolution concerning the arrangements for the inauguration ceremony the house adjourned until Wednesday morning at eleven o'clock.

Our Washington Letter.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Jan. 8, 1879. The recent murder of witnesses in Louisiana on their way to testify before the United States court, has been the last feather to break the democratic camel's back. Many Democratic papers begin to see the truth which they have been denying and censuring for the last ten years, and some of them denounce the cry of the blood shirt as no longer potent to keep back the disagreeable exposure to follow the rebel methods in the South.

The Centra Democrat, the new paper just started at Bellefonte, is under the editorial management of Messrs. Shagart & Foster. It is an eight page paper, part of which is printed in New York and part in Bellefonte. The paper is started, we understand, with the intention of breaking down Meek's Watchman, because that gentleman refused to eat crow and support the "War Governor" for Congress at the late November election. It is said that the new concern has ample capital, - some of Curtin's profits in the mule and shoddy clothing contracts during the war we suppose - but with all its boasted wealth it will find that it has a big contract on hand when it undertakes to supplant the Watchman. The new paper is printed on the material used in the publication of the Herald, the greenback organ which has died with its party.

The Chicago post-office building, in which Gen. Sheridan has his headquarters and a number of prominent lawyers have offices, was destroyed by fire on the afternoon of the 4th inst., entailing a loss of about $100,000. The fire originated in the basement of the building, which was used as a carpenter shop by men employed in finishing the structure. For the present the postal business will be conducted in the large building of the Singer Sewing Machine Company.

THE LEGISLATURE ORGANIZED.

Both branches of the Legislature met and organized at noon on Tuesday. In the Senate, A. J. Herr, of Dauphin, was elected speaker pro tem, and the following officers chosen: Chief Clerk, Thomas B. Cochran; Journal Clerk, Lucius Rodgers; Reading Clerk, E. W. Smiley; Messager, W. A. Hinchman, Franklin; transferring clerks, F. A. Weaver, Indiana; Maurice B. Hamann, Delaware; sergeant-at-arms, Robert Graves, Philadelphia; first assistant, Frank Murray, Allegheny; second assistant, J. G. Berry, Schuylkill; doerkeeper, Samuel Baker, Chester; Ed. Cochran; Journal Clerk, Lucius Rodgers; second assistant, Albert Tresselt, Erie; messenger, A. C. Corbett; Philadelphia; assistant messenger, Samuel Hastings, Allegheny; post master, Charles Algeo, Philadelphia. Superintendent of folding room, J. K. Lutz, Washington. Pastors, schoolmen, and folders, C. P. Kench, Chester; Ed. Loush, Lackawanna; Henry I. Meily, Lehigh; Lyman Rhodes, Allegheny; Chas. Miller, Philadelphia. Firemen (cellar), Adam Myers, Perifer, A. Kennedy, Janitor wash room, H. Mueller, Dauphin. Janitor committee room, F. Manley, Bradford. Watchman, A. W. Bell, Armstrong.

The House was called to order by Chief Clerk Shurlock at 12 a. m. after which prayer was offered by Rev. James Neill, member elect from the Fifteenth district, Philadelphia.

Mr. Linn, secretary of the commonwealth, was then announced, and presented the returns of the several representative districts of this commonwealth, after the reading of which the roll was called - all the members answering to their names except Messrs. Lowing and Porter.

On motion of Mr. Neill, of Philadelphia, the members were then sworn in according to law, by Judge Pearson, of Dauphin county.

On motion of Mr. Neill, of Philadelphia, the speaker then went into an election for speaker.

Mr. Hewitt nominated Henry M. Long, of Allegheny. Mr. Francis nominated D. L. Sherwood, of Northumberland.

The ballot being then resulted as follows: Henry M. Long, 111; Daniel L. Sherwood, 76; M. P. Doyle, 11.

(Messrs. Thickstun, Seaton, Doyle, Foust, Reader, Shear, Conroy, Welsh, Morris, Curran and White, all nationally, voted for M. P. Doyle, of Huntingdon. Messrs. Gans, Hines, O'Leahon, Mooney and Shoenor, also nationally, voted for Henry M. Long.) Mr. Long was conducted to the speaker's chair by Messrs. Doyle and Sherwood and made the following remarks:

GENTLEMEN OF THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES. - I thank you for the honor you have conferred upon me by electing me to the office of speaker of the commonwealth. I am deeply indebted to you for the confidence you have placed in me, and I assure you that I will do my best to discharge the duties of the office with fidelity and to the satisfaction of all.

Mr. Long was conducted to the speaker's chair by Messrs. Doyle and Sherwood and made the following remarks:

GENTLEMEN OF THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES. - I thank you for the honor you have conferred upon me by electing me to the office of speaker of the commonwealth. I am deeply indebted to you for the confidence you have placed in me, and I assure you that I will do my best to discharge the duties of the office with fidelity and to the satisfaction of all.

Mr. Long was conducted to the speaker's chair by Messrs. Doyle and Sherwood and made the following remarks:

GENTLEMEN OF THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES. - I thank you for the honor you have conferred upon me by electing me to the office of speaker of the commonwealth. I am deeply indebted to you for the confidence you have placed in me, and I assure you that I will do my best to discharge the duties of the office with fidelity and to the satisfaction of all.

Hosts of People are Martyrs

To sick headache, that infatigable symptom of a disordered stomach, liver and bowels. Many suffer from it as many as three or four times a week. It is the result of indigestion, and is cured by the use of Dr. Kunkel's Bitter Wine of Iron. It is a powerful purgative, and restores the system to its normal condition. It is a powerful purgative, and restores the system to its normal condition. It is a powerful purgative, and restores the system to its normal condition.

Mr. Walker named W. C. Shurlock, of Beaver. A ballot was then taken with the following result: Mr. C. Shurlock, received 111 votes; T. O'Leary, received 75 votes; W. Schuckers received 10 votes.

Of the Greenbackers Messrs. Thickstun, Seaton, Doyle, Shear, Conroy, Welsh, Morris and White voted for W. Schuckers. Messrs. Gans, Hines, O'Leahon, Mooney and Shoenor voted for W. C. Shurlock.

Mr. Curran voted for P. O'Leary. The oath of office was then administered to Mr. Shurlock by Speaker Long.

Mr. E. W. Davis, of Philadelphia, then nominated John A. Snull for the position of Resident clerk, and Mr. Snull, of Philadelphia, moved that Mr. Snull be elected by acclamation, which was agreed to.

For reading clerk Mr. Leigh, of Philadelphia, named Henry Hahn, and Mr. Francis named James Monahan.

The ballot for these gentlemen, both of Philadelphia, resulted as follows: Mr. Hahn received 114 votes. Mr. Monahan received 83 votes.

Of the Greenbackers Messrs. Reader, Thickstun, Doyle, Foust, Shear, Curran and White voted for Mr. Monahan. Messrs. Seaton, Gans, Hines, O'Leahon, Mooney, Conroy, Welsh, Shoenor and Morris voted for Mr. Hahn.

Messrs. Davis, Burgess and Early were appointed a committee of three to wait upon the Senate and inform them the House was ready to proceed to business.

Messrs. Walter, Pollock and Sherwood, of York, were appointed a committee to act with a similar committee on the part of Senate to wait upon the governor.

On motion of Mr. Hall last year's rules were adopted until further orders. After passing a resolution concerning the arrangements for the inauguration ceremony the house adjourned until Wednesday morning at eleven o'clock.

Our Washington Letter.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Jan. 8, 1879. The recent murder of witnesses in Louisiana on their way to testify before the United States court, has been the last feather to break the democratic camel's back. Many Democratic papers begin to see the truth which they have been denying and censuring for the last ten years, and some of them denounce the cry of the blood shirt as no longer potent to keep back the disagreeable exposure to follow the rebel methods in the South.

The Centra Democrat, the new paper just started at Bellefonte, is under the editorial management of Messrs. Shagart & Foster. It is an eight page paper, part of which is printed in New York and part in Bellefonte. The paper is started, we understand, with the intention of breaking down Meek's Watchman, because that gentleman refused to eat crow and support the "War Governor" for Congress at the late November election. It is said that the new concern has ample capital, - some of Curtin's profits in the mule and shoddy clothing contracts during the war we suppose - but with all its boasted wealth it will find that it has a big contract on hand when it undertakes to supplant the Watchman. The new paper is printed on the material used in the publication of the Herald, the greenback organ which has died with its party.

The Chicago post-office building, in which Gen. Sheridan has his headquarters and a number of prominent lawyers have offices, was destroyed by fire on the afternoon of the 4th inst., entailing a loss of about $100,000. The fire originated in the basement of the building, which was used as a carpenter shop by men employed in finishing the structure. For the present the postal business will be conducted in the large building of the Singer Sewing Machine Company.

THE LEGISLATURE ORGANIZED.

Both branches of the Legislature met and organized at noon on Tuesday. In the Senate, A. J. Herr, of Dauphin, was elected speaker pro tem, and the following officers chosen: Chief Clerk, Thomas B. Cochran; Journal Clerk, Lucius Rodgers; Reading Clerk, E. W. Smiley; Messager, W. A. Hinchman, Franklin; transferring clerks, F. A. Weaver, Indiana; Maurice B. Hamann, Delaware; sergeant-at-arms, Robert Graves, Philadelphia; first assistant, Frank Murray, Allegheny; second assistant, J. G. Berry, Schuylkill; doerkeeper, Samuel Baker, Chester; Ed. Cochran; Journal Clerk, Lucius Rodgers; second assistant, Albert Tresselt, Erie; messenger, A. C. Corbett; Philadelphia; assistant messenger, Samuel Hastings, Allegheny; post master, Charles Algeo, Philadelphia. Superintendent of folding room, J. K. Lutz, Washington. Pastors, schoolmen, and folders, C. P. Kench, Chester; Ed. Loush, Lackawanna; Henry I. Meily, Lehigh; Lyman Rhodes, Allegheny; Chas. Miller, Philadelphia. Firemen (cellar), Adam Myers, Perifer, A. Kennedy, Janitor wash room, H. Mueller, Dauphin. Janitor committee room, F. Manley, Bradford. Watchman, A. W. Bell, Armstrong.

The House was called to order by Chief Clerk Shurlock at 12 a. m. after which prayer was offered by Rev. James Neill, member elect from the Fifteenth district, Philadelphia.

Mr. Linn, secretary of the commonwealth, was then announced, and presented the returns of the several representative districts of this commonwealth, after the reading of which the roll was called - all the members answering to their names except Messrs. Lowing and Porter.

On motion of Mr. Neill, of Philadelphia, the members were then sworn in according to law, by Judge Pearson, of Dauphin county.

On motion of Mr. Neill, of Philadelphia, the speaker then went into an election for speaker.

Mr. Hewitt nominated Henry M. Long, of Allegheny. Mr. Francis nominated D. L. Sherwood, of Northumberland.

The ballot being then resulted as follows: Henry M. Long, 111; Daniel L. Sherwood, 76; M. P. Doyle, 11.

(Messrs. Thickstun, Seaton, Doyle, Foust, Reader, Shear, Conroy, Welsh, Morris, Curran and White, all nationally, voted for M. P. Doyle, of Huntingdon. Messrs. Gans, Hines, O'Leahon, Mooney and Shoenor, also nationally, voted for Henry M. Long.) Mr. Long was conducted to the speaker's chair by Messrs. Doyle and Sherwood and made the following remarks:

GENTLEMEN OF THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES. - I thank you for the honor you have conferred upon me by electing me to the office of speaker of the commonwealth. I am deeply indebted to you for the confidence you have placed in me, and I assure you that I will do my best to discharge the duties of the office with fidelity and to the satisfaction of all.

Mr. Long was conducted to the speaker's chair by Messrs. Doyle and Sherwood and made the following remarks:

GENTLEMEN OF THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES. - I thank you for the honor you have conferred upon me by electing me to the office of speaker of the commonwealth. I am deeply indebted to you for the confidence you have placed in me, and I assure you that I will do my best to discharge the duties of the office with fidelity and to the satisfaction of all.

Mr. Long was conducted to the speaker's chair by Messrs. Doyle and Sherwood and made the following remarks:

GENTLEMEN OF THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES. - I thank you for the honor you have conferred upon me by electing me to the office of speaker of the commonwealth. I am deeply indebted to you for the confidence you have placed in me, and I assure you that I will do my best to discharge the duties of the office with fidelity and to the satisfaction of all.

Hosts of People are Martyrs

To sick headache, that infatigable symptom of a disordered stomach, liver and bowels. Many suffer from it as many as three or four times a week. It is the result of indigestion, and is cured by the use of Dr. Kunkel's Bitter Wine of Iron. It is a powerful purgative, and restores the system to its normal condition. It is a powerful purgative, and restores the system to its normal condition. It is a powerful purgative, and restores the system to its normal condition.

Mr. Walker named W. C. Shurlock, of Beaver. A ballot was then taken with the following result: Mr. C. Shurlock, received 111 votes; T. O'Leary, received 75 votes; W. Schuckers received 10 votes.

Of the Greenbackers Messrs. Thickstun, Seaton, Doyle, Shear, Conroy, Welsh, Morris and White voted for W. Schuckers. Messrs. Gans, Hines, O'Leahon, Mooney and Shoenor voted for W. C. Shurlock.

Mr. Curran voted for P. O'Leary. The oath of office was then administered to Mr. Shurlock by Speaker Long.

Mr. E. W. Davis, of Philadelphia, then nominated John A. Snull for the position of Resident clerk, and Mr. Snull, of Philadelphia, moved that Mr. Snull be elected by acclamation, which was agreed to.

For reading clerk Mr. Leigh, of Philadelphia, named Henry Hahn, and Mr. Francis named James Monahan.

The ballot for these gentlemen, both of Philadelphia, resulted as follows: Mr. Hahn received 114 votes. Mr. Monahan received 83 votes.

Of the Greenbackers Messrs. Reader, Thickstun, Doyle, Foust, Shear, Curran and White voted for Mr. Monahan. Messrs. Seaton, Gans, Hines, O'Leahon, Mooney, Conroy, Welsh, Shoenor and Morris voted for Mr. Hahn.

Messrs. Davis, Burgess and Early were appointed a committee of three to wait upon the Senate and inform them the House was ready to proceed to business.

Messrs. Walter, Pollock and Sherwood, of York, were appointed a committee to act with a similar committee on the part of Senate to wait upon the governor.

On motion of Mr. Hall last year's rules were adopted until further orders. After passing a resolution concerning the arrangements for the inauguration ceremony the house adjourned until Wednesday morning at eleven o'clock.

Our Washington Letter.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Jan. 8, 1879. The recent murder of witnesses in Louisiana on their way to testify before the United States court, has been the last feather to break the democratic camel's back. Many Democratic papers begin to see the truth which they have been denying and censuring for the last ten years, and some of them denounce the cry of the blood shirt as no longer potent to keep back the disagreeable exposure to follow the rebel methods in the South.

The Centra Democrat, the new paper just started at Bellefonte, is under the editorial management of Messrs. Shagart & Foster. It is an eight page paper, part of which is printed in New York and part in Bellefonte. The paper is started, we understand, with the intention of breaking down Meek's Watchman, because that gentleman refused to eat crow and support the "War Governor" for Congress at the late November election. It is said that the new concern has ample capital, - some of Curtin's profits in the mule and shoddy clothing contracts during the war we suppose - but with all its boasted wealth it will find that it has a big contract on hand when it undertakes to supplant the Watchman. The new paper is printed on the material used in the publication of the Herald, the greenback organ which has died with its party.

The Chicago post-office building, in which Gen. Sheridan has his headquarters and a number of prominent lawyers have offices, was destroyed by fire on the afternoon of the 4th inst., entailing a loss of about $100,000. The fire originated in the basement of the building, which was used as a carpenter shop by men employed in finishing the structure. For the present the postal business will be conducted in the large building of the Singer Sewing Machine Company.

THE LEGISLATURE ORGANIZED.

Both branches of the Legislature met and organized at noon on Tuesday. In the Senate, A. J. Herr, of Dauphin, was elected speaker pro tem, and the following officers chosen: Chief Clerk, Thomas B. Cochran; Journal Clerk, Lucius Rodgers; Reading Clerk, E. W. Smiley; Messager, W. A. Hinchman, Franklin; transferring clerks, F. A. Weaver, Indiana; Maurice B. Hamann, Delaware; sergeant-at-arms, Robert Graves, Philadelphia; first assistant, Frank Murray, Allegheny; second assistant, J. G. Berry, Schuylkill; doerkeeper, Samuel Baker, Chester; Ed. Cochran; Journal Clerk, Lucius Rodgers; second assistant, Albert Tresselt, Erie; messenger, A. C. Corbett; Philadelphia; assistant messenger, Samuel Hastings, Allegheny; post master, Charles Algeo, Philadelphia. Superintendent of folding room, J. K. Lutz, Washington. Pastors, schoolmen, and folders, C. P. Kench, Chester; Ed. Loush, Lackawanna; Henry I. Meily, Lehigh; Lyman Rhodes, Allegheny; Chas. Miller, Philadelphia. Firemen (cellar), Adam Myers, Perifer, A. Kennedy, Janitor wash room, H. Mueller, Dauphin. Janitor committee room, F. Manley, Bradford. Watchman, A. W. Bell, Armstrong.

The House was called to order by Chief Clerk Shurlock at 12 a. m. after which prayer was offered by Rev. James Neill, member elect from the Fifteenth district, Philadelphia.

Mr. Linn, secretary of the commonwealth, was then announced, and presented the returns of the several representative districts of this commonwealth, after the reading of which the roll was called - all the members answering to their names except Messrs. Lowing and Porter.

On motion of Mr. Neill, of Philadelphia, the members were then sworn in according to law, by Judge Pearson, of Dauphin county.

On motion of Mr. Neill, of Philadelphia, the speaker then went into an election for speaker.

Mr. Hewitt nominated Henry M. Long, of Allegheny. Mr. Francis nominated D. L. Sherwood, of Northumberland.

The ballot being then resulted as follows: Henry M. Long, 111; Daniel L. Sherwood, 76; M. P. Doyle, 11.

(Messrs. Thickstun, Seaton, Doyle, Foust, Reader, Shear, Conroy, Welsh, Morris, Curran and White, all nationally, voted for M. P. Doyle, of Huntingdon. Messrs. Gans, Hines, O'Leahon, Mooney and Shoenor, also nationally, voted for Henry M. Long.) Mr. Long was conducted to the speaker's chair by Messrs. Doyle and Sherwood and made the following remarks:

GENTLEMEN OF THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES. - I thank you for the honor you have conferred upon me by electing me to the office of speaker of the commonwealth. I am deeply indebted to you for the confidence you have placed in me, and I assure you that I will do my best to discharge the duties of the office with fidelity and to the satisfaction of all.

Mr. Long was conducted to the speaker's chair by Messrs. Doyle and Sherwood and made the following remarks:

GENTLEMEN OF THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES. - I thank you for the honor you have conferred upon me by electing me to the office of speaker of the commonwealth. I am deeply indebted to you for the confidence you have placed in me, and I assure you that I will do my best to discharge the duties of the office with fidelity and to the satisfaction of all.

Mr. Long was conducted to the speaker's chair by Messrs. Doyle and Sherwood and made the following remarks:

GENTLEMEN OF THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES. - I thank you for the honor you have conferred upon me by electing me to the office of speaker of the commonwealth. I am deeply indebted to you for the confidence you have placed in me, and I assure you that I will do my best to discharge the duties of the office with fidelity and to the satisfaction of all.

Hosts of People are Martyrs

To sick headache, that infatigable symptom of a disordered stomach, liver and bowels. Many suffer from it as many as three or four times a week. It is the result of indigestion, and is cured by the use of Dr. Kunkel's Bitter Wine of Iron. It is a powerful purgative, and restores the system to its normal condition. It is a powerful purgative, and restores the system to its normal condition. It is a powerful purgative, and restores the system to its normal condition.

Mr. Walker named W. C. Shurlock, of Beaver. A ballot was then taken with the following result: Mr. C. Shurlock, received 111 votes;