

Circulation LARGER than any other Paper in the Juniata Valley.

We are indebted to Auditor General Wm. P. Schell for a copy of his Report for the fiscal year ending November 30, 1878.

The remains of Bayard Taylor will be brought to this country and interred at Longwood, Chester county, where his first wife is buried.

A FIRE at Emulston, Pa., a few mornings since, destroyed the post office and several other buildings entailing an estimated loss of $10,000.

The Pennsylvania Editorial Association will meet at Harrisburg on Wednesday of next week, the day following the inauguration of Governor Hoyt.

"Old Sit," S. M. Smalls, esq., of the Atlanta Constitution, was brutally beaten by a band of ruffians, on Christmas day, for something he had written about them.

The Kingston Freeman says that there is one thing to be said for the Southern Democrat—he is not color blind. He knows a "nigger" every time he sees one.

In Democratic Congressmen keep on dying at the rate they have been doing for a month or two past, the party will be in the minority at the opening of the next session of that body.

When the "great journalist," of the Philadelphia Times undertook to ride rough-shod over Col. Ed. McPherson, of the Press, he mistook his man, as is evidenced by the able manner in which the Press parries the thrusts of the Times.

During Gov. Hartranft's occupancy of the gubernatorial chair he has signed more death-warrants than any other of his predecessors. He has had the unpleasant duty of affixing his signature to thirty-five warrants for the execution of criminals.

We are in receipt of the Times Almanac for 1879, which is presented to every subscriber of that wide awake journal. The book is handsomely printed, and contains much valuable information for all classes. As a hand-book it has no superior.

The Fulton Democrat is seized at the prospect of Gen. Grant being the Republican candidate for President in 1880, and in looking over the field for a competitor it thinks that Gen. Hancock is the man to lead the Democracy out of the political wilderness. Hancock would not afford common amusement for the Republicans in the coming Presidential contest.

Eight columns of the inside pages of last week's Bellefonte Republican is taken up with Hon. Seth Y. Yocum's answer to the "War Governor's" allegations made in his contest for Mr. Yocum's seat in the next Congress. There will be some rich developments in the course of this contest, and some of them it is said will be very damaging to Curtin and his supporters. We will wait and see.

AND now Peter Herdie, of Williamsport, turns up among the missing, and his whereabouts is a mystery. One theory is that in disguise he boarded a midnight train for Philadelphia, and from there took passage in the steamer Illinois for Liverpool. His family insists that he has gone to Florida for the benefit of his impaired health. Another rumor has it that on account of his financial troubles he has become insane and is now an inmate of an asylum.

PROF. FROBISHER, who claims to have had twenty years experience in teaching, has established a college in the city of New York in which elocution, vocal culture and dramatic art are taught in connection with other branches of learning. Clergymen, lawyers, teachers and artists for the stage can fit themselves in this institution for either of these callings. Any information desired will be furnished by addressing J. E. Frobisher, New York City.

The late labor riots in this State cost the people of Pennsylvania one million of dollars, and yet we have men who set themselves up as educators of the people, who wink at such lawlessness and write columns of stuff laudatory of the ruffians and outlaws who murdered, robbed and burned during that reign of terror. The man who sanctions such lawlessness is no better than the black-hearted fiend who cuts the throat of his fellow or applies the torch to his neighbor's property.

DO YOU WANT TO GO BACK?—Now, then, gentlemen of the Greenback persuasion, greenbacks are up to gold. Do you want to reduce their value? They are receivable for customs duties. Do you wish to degrade them so that they shall not be so receivable? They will pay the matured coupons on the bonds of the United States. Do you wish to re-establish one money for the bondholder and another and inferior money for the people at large? Now is your time to disband your ridiculous Greenback party and join the nation in its march on the old specie basis to renewed and solid prosperity.—Cincinnati Commercial.

The Greenbackers at Harrisburg have nominated that superannuated political fossil, ex-Judge Daniel Agnew for United States Senator. They have addressed him a letter, notifying him of his nomination and propounding a series of questions, which he is expected to answer satisfactorily to both the Greenbackers and Democrats, in which case he will very probably be the candidate of both parties; but unless there are fourteen Benedict Arnolds in the Republican delegation in the Legislature, his nomination will prove an empty honor. There is no Republican who can afford to cast his vote for Agnew instead of Mr. Cameron, the cautious nominee of the party. While Agnew has turned traitor to the party that has kept him in office nearly all his life, Mr. Cameron has stood by Republican principles and continues to battle for the success of the party—that carries the flag and keeps step to the music of the Union.

THE INAUGURATION—Programme of the Inaugural Ceremonies at Harrisburg, January 21.—The indications are that the inauguration of Gen. Hoyt, which will take place on the 21st of this month at Harrisburg, will exceed any similar event in the point of brilliancy and the numbers in attendance.

The programme for the inaugural ceremonies has been announced as follows: On Monday night, January 20, a full dress reception and hop, tendered by Gen. Hoyt by the Young Men's Republican Club of Harrisburg, will take place in the Opera House. Gov. Hartranft and staff will be present with Governor-elect Hoyt.

On Tuesday morning at nine o'clock the military and civic organization will form on Market street ready for parade, under direction of the Chief Marshal, whose headquarters will be at the Lochiel Hotel. At ten o'clock precisely the parade will move, passing over a short route to West State street, where the line will be reviewed by the outgoing and incoming Governors on their way to the grand stand at the main entrance to the Capitol building. Here the inaugural services will be concluded with the inaugural address and the administration of the oath of office to the Governor-elect by the Chief Justice of the Supreme Court.

At three o'clock in the afternoon the Senate and House of Representatives will vote for United States Senator in their respective halls.

In the evening a grand display of fireworks will take place in the Capitol park, after which Gov. Hoyt will hold a public reception at the Executive Mansion.

"WAITING FOR THE VERDICT."—The only case tried this week, in which there was much interest manifested, was the one brought by Hon. R. M. Spear against Al. Tyhurst, esq., editor of the Globe, for libel. In the heat of the last campaign Mr. Tyhurst published an article, under the caption of "Who Robbed Jimmy Walls?" in which he made some grave charges against Mr. Spear. An action for libel was brought, and the case was tried on Monday and Tuesday of this week. Messrs. Spear and Bailey representing the prosecution and W. H. Woods, esq., and Gen. Beaver, of Centre county, defending Mr. Tyhurst. A number of witnesses were examined on both sides. The case was given to the jury on Tuesday night, and after a brief deliberation a verdict was agreed upon which, under instructions of the Court, was sealed and brought into Court at 9 o'clock on Wednesday morning. The finding of the jury was that the defendant was not guilty and that the costs be paid jointly by the prosecutor and the defendant.

THE January No. of The Pennsylvania School Journal is received. The leading article upon "Stars and Star Groups of Our Winter Heavens," embracing some ten or twelve pages, is very suggestive and satisfactory. With the aid of the numbered Star List, the diagrams, and the lines of direction and distance which it contains, any person of average ability will learn all the leading stars and constellations now above the horizon. To many persons this article alone will be worth much more than a year's subscription. It is a matter of surprise that people, of ordinary intelligence, should live all their lives "under the stars," and be content to know nothing about them. The practical report of the State Superintendent of Public Instruction is also found in this number. The subscription price of The Journal is $1.00 per year, postage prepaid. Address the publishers, J. P. Wickersham & Co., Lancaster, Pa.

THE National Monitor is the name of the paper presided over by our old friend B. F. Fries, esq., formerly of the Nationalist. It is published at Reading, and is after the style of the paper he started here, half of it printed on the "patent outside" plan, and part of it in Reading. We hope our old friend may prosper financially. He received scurvy treatment while in this town simply because he would not consent to play clown in the Democratic side-show, but friend Fries was a Greenbacker from principle, and no amount of promised Democratic "assistance" could induce him to betray his party into the support of the Democracy. The new paper is quite readable, and a liberal amount of advertising patronage seems to be extended to it.

The publisher of that embodiment of nastiness and filth, known throughout the county as the Nationalist, and used as a tail to the Democratic kite, would like to place us among the same species of animals to which he belongs, and therefore he calls us a "monkey." There's richness for you. Had he glanced in his mirror he would have called us a baboon. When you see this fellow scan his countenance closely, and if you don't see more ape than human in it you will agree that we are not much of a physiognomist. To be "branded as a liar" by such a creature amounts to nothing. If forced to do so we can "give the circumstances, the price and details," and in addition, the place, the date, etc., for not doing certain things.

To the exclusion of our usual large and varied assortment of miscellaneous reading matter, we this week give up the outside pages of the JOURNAL to the last annual message of Governor Hartranft, a careful reading of which will amply repay any one.

It is a document which every citizen can read with profit, and we hope every reader of the JOURNAL will not fail to peruse carefully the utterances of a man who understands thoroughly the questions treated.

The fall campaign will be rather flat this year. The only State officer we will have to elect will be a Treasurer. But wait until 1880, and then there will be "music in the air."

The Fulton Republican has the bulls-eye on that styles advertising agents, "Sharks." As a general thing they are "dead beats," who live off country publishers.

It is expected that five thousand troops will be in line on the occasion of the inauguration of Gov. Hoyt, on Tuesday next.

A SPECIAL DISPATCH to the Harrisburg Telegraph from Washington says that a letter has been received by a gentleman in that city who was intimately associated with General Grant when President, that the accounts from Springfield of the movement to make Grant a United States Senator from Illinois, has more in it than some people are willing to admit, and in the event of the friends of Logan, Ogelsby and Garfield failing to succeed after a fair test of strength, that they will write on Grant and elect him, which they claim can be done, as the Republicans in the Legislature are not hostile to the least man of the friends of the contest.

The New York Tribune calls attention to the fact that in the first number of John W. Forney's Progress a biography of Louis A. Godey appeared and soon after Mr. Godey died; in the second or third number a biographical sketch of the Hon. Caleb Cushing was given and now he is dead. Last week a sketch of Morton McMichael appeared in the Progress, and now that gentleman is dead. These coincidences, will make men, and especially old ones, fight shy of biographical notices in Progress.

VICK'S FLORAL GUIDE.—This work is before us, and those who send five cents to James Vick, Rochester, N. Y., for it will be disappointed. Instead of getting a cheap thing, as the price would seem to indicate, they will receive a very handsome work of 100 pages, and perhaps 500 illustrations, not cheap, but elegant illustrations, on the very best of calendered paper, and as a set-off to the whole, an elegant Colored Plate, that we would judge cost twice the price of the book.

STRANGLER TO DEATH. Hung With a Reprieve at the Prison Doors.

HUNTER, SHARPE, McDONNELL AND DOWD PAY THE PENALTY OF THEIR CRIMES.

The execution of Benjamin Hunter for the murder of John M. Armstrong took place at the county prison at Harrisburg, on Friday last. His was a shameful and cruel death, owing to a blunder by some one who had arranged the rope. On Sunday night, the condemned seeing no earthly chance to escape the ignominious end in store for him attempted to commit suicide by cutting the veins in his ankles with a piece of tin. From the wounds thus inflicted he lost about two pints of blood, and from the loss of which he became so weak, that by some it was believed the gallows would be cheated of its victim. The finding of the jury was that the defendant was not guilty and that the costs be paid jointly by the prosecutor and the defendant.

THE January No. of The Pennsylvania School Journal is received. The leading article upon "Stars and Star Groups of Our Winter Heavens," embracing some ten or twelve pages, is very suggestive and satisfactory. With the aid of the numbered Star List, the diagrams, and the lines of direction and distance which it contains, any person of average ability will learn all the leading stars and constellations now above the horizon. To many persons this article alone will be worth much more than a year's subscription. It is a matter of surprise that people, of ordinary intelligence, should live all their lives "under the stars," and be content to know nothing about them. The practical report of the State Superintendent of Public Instruction is also found in this number. The subscription price of The Journal is $1.00 per year, postage prepaid. Address the publishers, J. P. Wickersham & Co., Lancaster, Pa.

THE National Monitor is the name of the paper presided over by our old friend B. F. Fries, esq., formerly of the Nationalist. It is published at Reading, and is after the style of the paper he started here, half of it printed on the "patent outside" plan, and part of it in Reading. We hope our old friend may prosper financially. He received scurvy treatment while in this town simply because he would not consent to play clown in the Democratic side-show, but friend Fries was a Greenbacker from principle, and no amount of promised Democratic "assistance" could induce him to betray his party into the support of the Democracy. The new paper is quite readable, and a liberal amount of advertising patronage seems to be extended to it.

The publisher of that embodiment of nastiness and filth, known throughout the county as the Nationalist, and used as a tail to the Democratic kite, would like to place us among the same species of animals to which he belongs, and therefore he calls us a "monkey." There's richness for you. Had he glanced in his mirror he would have called us a baboon. When you see this fellow scan his countenance closely, and if you don't see more ape than human in it you will agree that we are not much of a physiognomist. To be "branded as a liar" by such a creature amounts to nothing. If forced to do so we can "give the circumstances, the price and details," and in addition, the place, the date, etc., for not doing certain things.

To the exclusion of our usual large and varied assortment of miscellaneous reading matter, we this week give up the outside pages of the JOURNAL to the last annual message of Governor Hartranft, a careful reading of which will amply repay any one.

It is a document which every citizen can read with profit, and we hope every reader of the JOURNAL will not fail to peruse carefully the utterances of a man who understands thoroughly the questions treated.

The fall campaign will be rather flat this year. The only State officer we will have to elect will be a Treasurer. But wait until 1880, and then there will be "music in the air."

The Fulton Republican has the bulls-eye on that styles advertising agents, "Sharks." As a general thing they are "dead beats," who live off country publishers.

It is expected that five thousand troops will be in line on the occasion of the inauguration of Gov. Hoyt, on Tuesday next.

At that hour Sharpe was fast asleep. Neither ate nor breakfast this morning. The priests, Fathers Bance and Heiner, arrived at 7, and mass was said in McDonnell's cell in the presence of a number of relatives. At 9:30 the doors of the prison were opened to those having passes, and the corridors were soon filled with a crowd who examined the ropes and ladders as they were fixed to the scaffold. Some on at their being fixed to the scaffold ladders and other preparations. The Sheriff had given strict orders to his assistants to do no loquacity. At 10:25 o'clock the Sheriff knocked at the doors of the cells, as the signal that he was ready. The condemned men did not appear for some time, but when they came forth did not show the least sign of fear. Sharpe and McDonnell, priests, policemen and the Sheriff, at once went upon the scaffold. After a short service the Sheriff said: "James McDonnell," have you anything to say before I proceed further?" McDonnell replied in a firm voice: "I am as innocent of the murder of John M. Armstrong as you are of the murder of George A. Slocum. I was engaged in the crime in referring to the Buns murder. I am sorry I ever alienated myself from the holy Catholic Church. I forgive every body." In reply to the Sheriff's question, Sharpe said he was innocent of the murder of the Sheriff called for him. He had no statement to make for himself, but he would not, and asked that gentlemen to be sure to publish it. The men were then shackled and the priests kissed them goodbye. The Sheriff was about to put on the white caps, when Sharpe said he wished to leave his thanks with the Sheriff and officers of the prison. McDonnell said the same. The men then kissed their crucifixes, and the priests whispered in their ears. As the white caps were drawn over their heads every one but the victims left the scaffold. The Sheriff took hold of a rope attached to the spring and awaited the signal from Father Bance. In a moment a white handkerchief fell from the latter's hand and the Sheriff called out "Drop." The fall was over three feet and the men came down heavily. McDonnell seemed to die instantly, but Sharpe struggled violently. A reprieve was received in March Chunk by telegraph at 10:37, and the manager of the office rushed to the jail with it. He rang the bell violently about half a minute, but the door was closed and the children were gone. Mr. McDonnell and the doorkeeper did not seem to understand that the despatch was a reprieve. It was from Governor Hartranft and granted a reprieve until Monday. There was great excitement in the town when the news of the reprieve was made known, and a crowd gathered to witness the carriage of the bodies, which were put into coffins in the jail. The Sheriff said he had no idea a reprieve would be granted by the Governor, nor did any of the authorities anticipate such a contingency.

THE execution of Benjamin Hunter for the murder of John M. Armstrong took place at the county prison at Harrisburg, on Friday last. His was a shameful and cruel death, owing to a blunder by some one who had arranged the rope. On Sunday night, the condemned seeing no earthly chance to escape the ignominious end in store for him attempted to commit suicide by cutting the veins in his ankles with a piece of tin. From the wounds thus inflicted he lost about two pints of blood, and from the loss of which he became so weak, that by some it was believed the gallows would be cheated of its victim. The finding of the jury was that the defendant was not guilty and that the costs be paid jointly by the prosecutor and the defendant.

THE January No. of The Pennsylvania School Journal is received. The leading article upon "Stars and Star Groups of Our Winter Heavens," embracing some ten or twelve pages, is very suggestive and satisfactory. With the aid of the numbered Star List, the diagrams, and the lines of direction and distance which it contains, any person of average ability will learn all the leading stars and constellations now above the horizon. To many persons this article alone will be worth much more than a year's subscription. It is a matter of surprise that people, of ordinary intelligence, should live all their lives "under the stars," and be content to know nothing about them. The practical report of the State Superintendent of Public Instruction is also found in this number. The subscription price of The Journal is $1.00 per year, postage prepaid. Address the publishers, J. P. Wickersham & Co., Lancaster, Pa.

THE National Monitor is the name of the paper presided over by our old friend B. F. Fries, esq., formerly of the Nationalist. It is published at Reading, and is after the style of the paper he started here, half of it printed on the "patent outside" plan, and part of it in Reading. We hope our old friend may prosper financially. He received scurvy treatment while in this town simply because he would not consent to play clown in the Democratic side-show, but friend Fries was a Greenbacker from principle, and no amount of promised Democratic "assistance" could induce him to betray his party into the support of the Democracy. The new paper is quite readable, and a liberal amount of advertising patronage seems to be extended to it.

The publisher of that embodiment of nastiness and filth, known throughout the county as the Nationalist, and used as a tail to the Democratic kite, would like to place us among the same species of animals to which he belongs, and therefore he calls us a "monkey." There's richness for you. Had he glanced in his mirror he would have called us a baboon. When you see this fellow scan his countenance closely, and if you don't see more ape than human in it you will agree that we are not much of a physiognomist. To be "branded as a liar" by such a creature amounts to nothing. If forced to do so we can "give the circumstances, the price and details," and in addition, the place, the date, etc., for not doing certain things.

To the exclusion of our usual large and varied assortment of miscellaneous reading matter, we this week give up the outside pages of the JOURNAL to the last annual message of Governor Hartranft, a careful reading of which will amply repay any one.

It is a document which every citizen can read with profit, and we hope every reader of the JOURNAL will not fail to peruse carefully the utterances of a man who understands thoroughly the questions treated.

The fall campaign will be rather flat this year. The only State officer we will have to elect will be a Treasurer. But wait until 1880, and then there will be "music in the air."

The Fulton Republican has the bulls-eye on that styles advertising agents, "Sharks." As a general thing they are "dead beats," who live off country publishers.

It is expected that five thousand troops will be in line on the occasion of the inauguration of Gov. Hoyt, on Tuesday next.

interest, since the travails would be much less severe should the disease remain.

The Annual Meeting of the Stockholders of the Harrisburg and Eastern Pennsylvania Railroad and Coal Company, will be held at the office of the Company, on Tuesday, February 4th, 1879, at 12 o'clock, noon, when an election will be held for President and Directors for the ensuing year. J. P. DONALDSON, Secretary.

I hereby give notice that William F. Platt, a boy of 14, had bound me by the Directors of this county, did on the morning of the 6th inst. run away without any just provocation, and he has not returned, and I will hold them accountable for damages. Ad. Furthermore I will pay the debts of the county. SAMUEL F. ENBERG, Shirleyburg, Jan. 17, 1879.

Notice is hereby given that application for the probate of the will of the late John D. ... of Pennsylvania, by the Board of School Directors of Brady township, Huntingdon county, Pennsylvania, in the probate of an act, authorizing said Board of School Directors to levy and collect a tax sufficient to pay off and discharge a balance and unpaid for mortgage ... on the property of Thomas Montague, County of Huntingdon, State of Pennsylvania, is hereby given. JAMES VICK, Rochester, N. Y., Jan. 17, 1879.

Notice is hereby given that application for the probate of the will of the late John D. ... of Pennsylvania, by the Board of School Directors of Brady township, Huntingdon county, Pennsylvania, in the probate of an act, authorizing said Board of School Directors to levy and collect a tax sufficient to pay off and discharge a balance and unpaid for mortgage ... on the property of Thomas Montague, County of Huntingdon, State of Pennsylvania, is hereby given. JAMES VICK, Rochester, N. Y., Jan. 17, 1879.

Notice is hereby given that application for the probate of the will of the late John D. ... of Pennsylvania, by the Board of School Directors of Brady township, Huntingdon county, Pennsylvania, in the probate of an act, authorizing said Board of School Directors to levy and collect a tax sufficient to pay off and discharge a balance and unpaid for mortgage ... on the property of Thomas Montague, County of Huntingdon, State of Pennsylvania, is hereby given. JAMES VICK, Rochester, N. Y., Jan. 17, 1879.

Notice is hereby given that application for the probate of the will of the late John D. ... of Pennsylvania, by the Board of School Directors of Brady township, Huntingdon county, Pennsylvania, in the probate of an act, authorizing said Board of School Directors to levy and collect a tax sufficient to pay off and discharge a balance and unpaid for mortgage ... on the property of Thomas Montague, County of Huntingdon, State of Pennsylvania, is hereby given. JAMES VICK, Rochester, N. Y., Jan. 17, 1879.

Notice is hereby given that application for the probate of the will of the late John D. ... of Pennsylvania, by the Board of School Directors of Brady township, Huntingdon county, Pennsylvania, in the probate of an act, authorizing said Board of School Directors to levy and collect a tax sufficient to pay off and discharge a balance and unpaid for mortgage ... on the property of Thomas Montague, County of Huntingdon, State of Pennsylvania, is hereby given. JAMES VICK, Rochester, N. Y., Jan. 17, 1879.

Notice is hereby given that application for the probate of the will of the late John D. ... of Pennsylvania, by the Board of School Directors of Brady township, Huntingdon county, Pennsylvania, in the probate of an act, authorizing said Board of School Directors to levy and collect a tax sufficient to pay off and discharge a balance and unpaid for mortgage ... on the property of Thomas Montague, County of Huntingdon, State of Pennsylvania, is hereby given. JAMES VICK, Rochester, N. Y., Jan. 17, 1879.

Notice is hereby given that application for the probate of the will of the late John D. ... of Pennsylvania, by the Board of School Directors of Brady township, Huntingdon county, Pennsylvania, in the probate of an act, authorizing said Board of School Directors to levy and collect a tax sufficient to pay off and discharge a balance and unpaid for mortgage ... on the property of Thomas Montague, County of Huntingdon, State of Pennsylvania, is hereby given. JAMES VICK, Rochester, N. Y., Jan. 17, 1879.

Notice is hereby given that application for the probate of the will of the late John D. ... of Pennsylvania, by the Board of School Directors of Brady township, Huntingdon county, Pennsylvania, in the probate of an act, authorizing said Board of School Directors to levy and collect a tax sufficient to pay off and discharge a balance and unpaid for mortgage ... on the property of Thomas Montague, County of Huntingdon, State of Pennsylvania, is hereby given. JAMES VICK, Rochester, N. Y., Jan. 17, 1879.

Notice is hereby given that application for the probate of the will of the late John D. ... of Pennsylvania, by the Board of School Directors of Brady township, Huntingdon county, Pennsylvania, in the probate of an act, authorizing said Board of School Directors to levy and collect a tax sufficient to pay off and discharge a balance and unpaid for mortgage ... on the property of Thomas Montague, County of Huntingdon, State of Pennsylvania, is hereby given. JAMES VICK, Rochester, N. Y., Jan. 17, 1879.

Notice is hereby given that application for the probate of the will of the late John D. ... of Pennsylvania, by the Board of School Directors of Brady township, Huntingdon county, Pennsylvania, in the probate of an act, authorizing said Board of School Directors to levy and collect a tax sufficient to pay off and discharge a balance and unpaid for mortgage ... on the property of Thomas Montague, County of Huntingdon, State of Pennsylvania, is hereby given. JAMES VICK, Rochester, N. Y., Jan. 17, 1879.

Notice is hereby given that application for the probate of the will of the late John D. ... of Pennsylvania, by the Board of School Directors of Brady township, Huntingdon county, Pennsylvania, in the probate of an act, authorizing said Board of School Directors to levy and collect a tax sufficient to pay off and discharge a balance and unpaid for mortgage ... on the property of Thomas Montague, County of Huntingdon, State of Pennsylvania, is hereby given. JAMES VICK, Rochester, N. Y., Jan. 17, 1879.

Notice is hereby given that application for the probate of the will of the late John D. ... of Pennsylvania, by the Board of School Directors of Brady township, Huntingdon county, Pennsylvania, in the probate of an act, authorizing said Board of School Directors to levy and collect a tax sufficient to pay off and discharge a balance and unpaid for mortgage ... on the property of Thomas Montague, County of Huntingdon, State of Pennsylvania, is hereby given. JAMES VICK, Rochester, N. Y., Jan. 17, 1879.

Notice is hereby given that application for the probate of the will of the late John D. ... of Pennsylvania, by the Board of School Directors of Brady township, Huntingdon county, Pennsylvania, in the probate of an act, authorizing said Board of School Directors to levy and collect a tax sufficient to pay off and discharge a balance and unpaid for mortgage ... on the property of Thomas Montague, County of Huntingdon, State of Pennsylvania, is hereby given. JAMES VICK, Rochester, N. Y., Jan. 17, 1879.

Notice is hereby given that application for the probate of the will of the late John D. ... of Pennsylvania, by the Board of School Directors of Brady township, Huntingdon county, Pennsylvania, in the probate of an act, authorizing said Board of School Directors to levy and collect a tax sufficient to pay off and discharge a balance and unpaid for mortgage ... on the property of Thomas Montague, County of Huntingdon, State of Pennsylvania, is hereby given. JAMES VICK, Rochester, N. Y., Jan. 17, 1879.

Notice is hereby given that application for the probate of the will of the late John D. ... of Pennsylvania, by the Board of School Directors of Brady township, Huntingdon county, Pennsylvania, in the probate of an act, authorizing said Board of School Directors to levy and collect a tax sufficient to pay off and discharge a balance and unpaid for mortgage ... on the property of Thomas Montague, County of Huntingdon, State of Pennsylvania, is hereby given. JAMES VICK, Rochester, N. Y., Jan. 17, 1879.

Notice is hereby given that application for the probate of the will of the late John D. ... of Pennsylvania, by the Board of School Directors of Brady township, Huntingdon county, Pennsylvania, in the probate of an act, authorizing said Board of School Directors to levy and collect a tax sufficient to pay off and discharge a balance and unpaid for mortgage ... on the property of Thomas Montague, County of Huntingdon, State of Pennsylvania, is hereby given. JAMES VICK, Rochester, N. Y., Jan. 17, 1879.

Notice is hereby given that application for the probate of the will of the late John D. ... of Pennsylvania, by the Board of School Directors of Brady township, Huntingdon county, Pennsylvania, in the probate of an act, authorizing said Board of School Directors to levy and collect a tax sufficient to pay off and discharge a balance and unpaid for mortgage ... on the property of Thomas Montague, County of Huntingdon, State of Pennsylvania, is hereby given. JAMES VICK, Rochester, N. Y., Jan. 17, 1879.

Notice is hereby given that application for the probate of the will of the late John D. ... of Pennsylvania, by the Board of School Directors of Brady township, Huntingdon county, Pennsylvania, in the probate of an act, authorizing said Board of School Directors to levy and collect a tax sufficient to pay off and discharge a balance and unpaid for mortgage ... on the property of Thomas Montague, County of Huntingdon, State of Pennsylvania, is hereby given. JAMES VICK, Rochester, N. Y., Jan. 17, 1879.

Notice is hereby given that application for the probate of the will of the late John D. ... of Pennsylvania, by the Board of School Directors of Brady township, Huntingdon county, Pennsylvania, in the probate of an act, authorizing said Board of School Directors to levy and collect a tax sufficient to pay off and discharge a balance and unpaid for mortgage ... on the property of Thomas Montague, County of Huntingdon, State of Pennsylvania, is hereby given. JAMES VICK, Rochester, N. Y., Jan. 17, 1879.

Notice is hereby given that application for the probate of the will of the late John D. ... of Pennsylvania, by the Board of School Directors of Brady township, Huntingdon county, Pennsylvania, in the probate of an act, authorizing said Board of School Directors to levy and collect a tax sufficient to pay off and discharge a balance and unpaid for mortgage ... on the property of Thomas Montague, County of Huntingdon, State of Pennsylvania, is hereby given. JAMES VICK, Rochester, N. Y., Jan. 17, 1879.

Notice is hereby given that application for the probate of the will of the late John D. ... of Pennsylvania, by the Board of School Directors of Brady township, Huntingdon county, Pennsylvania, in the probate of an act, authorizing said Board of School Directors to levy and collect a tax sufficient to pay off and discharge a balance and unpaid for mortgage ... on the property of Thomas Montague, County of Huntingdon, State of Pennsylvania, is hereby given. JAMES VICK, Rochester, N. Y., Jan. 17, 1879.

Notice is hereby given that application for the probate of the will of the late John D. ... of Pennsylvania, by the Board of School Directors of Brady township, Huntingdon county, Pennsylvania, in the probate of an act, authorizing said Board of School Directors to levy and collect a tax sufficient to pay off and discharge a balance and unpaid for mortgage ... on the property of Thomas Montague, County of Huntingdon, State of Pennsylvania, is hereby given. JAMES VICK, Rochester, N. Y., Jan. 17, 1879.

Notice is hereby given that application for the probate of the will of the late John D. ... of Pennsylvania, by the Board of School Directors of Brady township, Huntingdon county, Pennsylvania, in the probate of an act, authorizing said Board of School Directors to levy and collect a tax sufficient to pay off and discharge a balance and unpaid for mortgage ... on the property of Thomas Montague, County of Huntingdon, State of Pennsylvania, is hereby given. JAMES VICK, Rochester, N. Y., Jan. 17, 1879.

Notice is hereby given that application for the probate of the will of the late John D. ... of Pennsylvania, by the Board of School Directors of Brady township, Huntingdon county, Pennsylvania, in the probate of an act, authorizing said Board of School Directors to levy and collect a tax sufficient to pay off and discharge a balance and unpaid for mortgage ... on the property of Thomas Montague, County of Huntingdon, State of Pennsylvania, is hereby given. JAMES VICK, Rochester, N. Y., Jan. 17, 1879.

Notice is hereby given that application for the probate of the will of the late John D. ... of Pennsylvania, by the Board of School Directors of Brady township, Huntingdon county, Pennsylvania, in the probate of an act, authorizing said Board of School Directors to levy and collect a tax sufficient to pay off and discharge a balance and unpaid for mortgage ... on the property of Thomas Montague, County of Huntingdon, State of Pennsylvania, is hereby given. JAMES VICK, Rochester, N. Y., Jan. 17, 1879.

Notice is hereby given that application for the probate of the will of the late John D. ... of Pennsylvania, by the Board of School Directors of Brady township, Huntingdon county, Pennsylvania, in the probate of an act, authorizing said Board of School Directors to levy and collect a tax sufficient to pay off and discharge a balance and unpaid for mortgage ... on the property of Thomas Montague, County of Huntingdon, State of Pennsylvania, is hereby given. JAMES VICK, Rochester, N. Y., Jan. 17, 1879.

Notice is hereby given that application for the probate of the will of the late John D. ... of Pennsylvania, by the Board of School Directors of Brady township, Huntingdon county, Pennsylvania, in the probate of an act, authorizing said Board of School Directors to levy and collect a tax sufficient to pay off and discharge a balance and unpaid for mortgage ... on the property of Thomas Montague, County of Huntingdon, State of Pennsylvania, is hereby given. JAMES VICK, Rochester, N. Y., Jan. 17, 1879.

Notice is hereby given that application for the probate of the will of the late John D. ... of Pennsylvania, by the Board of School Directors of Brady township, Huntingdon county, Pennsylvania, in the probate of an act, authorizing said Board of School Directors to levy and collect a tax sufficient to pay off and discharge a balance and unpaid for mortgage ... on the property of Thomas Montague, County of Huntingdon, State of Pennsylvania, is hereby given. JAMES VICK, Rochester, N. Y., Jan. 17, 1879.

Notice is hereby given that application for the probate of the will of the late John D. ... of Pennsylvania, by the Board of School Directors of Brady township, Huntingdon county, Pennsylvania, in the probate of an act, authorizing said Board of School Directors to levy and collect a tax sufficient to pay off and discharge a balance and unpaid for mortgage ... on the property of Thomas Montague, County of Huntingdon, State of Pennsylvania, is hereby given. JAMES VICK, Rochester, N. Y., Jan. 17, 1879.

NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN

That application will be made for the present and future of the Legislature of Pennsylvania to reduce the compensation of the Treasurer of Huntingdon county from seven hundred dollars ($700) to five hundred dollars ($500) per annum, and to the rate on paying out and handling the funds at the rate of two per cent. per annum, and three per cent. as has been allowed heretofore to County Treasurers. ALEX. PORT, D. B. WEAVIN, Huntingdon, Pa., Jan. 8, 1879.

NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN That application will be made for the present and future of the Legislature of Pennsylvania to reduce the compensation of the Treasurer of Huntingdon county from seven hundred dollars ($700) to five hundred dollars ($500) per annum, and to the rate on paying out and handling the funds at the rate of two per cent. per annum, and three per cent. as has been allowed heretofore to County Treasurers. ALEX. PORT, D. B. WEAVIN, Huntingdon, Pa., Jan. 8, 1879.

NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN That application will be made for the present and future of the Legislature of Pennsylvania to reduce the compensation of the Treasurer of Huntingdon county from seven hundred dollars ($700) to five hundred dollars ($500) per annum, and to the rate on paying out and handling the funds at the rate of two per cent. per annum, and three per cent. as has been allowed heretofore to County Treasurers. ALEX. PORT, D. B. WEAVIN, Huntingdon, Pa., Jan. 8, 1879.

NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN That application will be made for the present and future of the Legislature of Pennsylvania to reduce the compensation of the Treasurer of Huntingdon county from seven hundred dollars ($700) to five hundred dollars ($500) per annum, and to the rate on