To subscribers for 1879, the publishers still present the six numbers of 1878, containing the first parts of MacDonald's "Sir Gibbie." For fifty-two sach numbers of sixty four large pages each (or more than 3,000 pages a year), the subscription price ($8) is low; while for $10.50 the publishers offer to send any one of the American $4 monthlies or weeklies with The Living Age for a year, both postpaid. Little & Gay, Boston, publishers. The Familiar Science and Fanciers' Journal, for March, contains much valuable matter for both the Naturalist and the Fancier. Dr. Wood gives a paper upon the Red shouldered Hawk; Prof. Horsford concludes his theory of naming the Wood Thrushes by their song naming the Wood Invisions by their song-giving their notes; V. M. Firor tells us How to Study Ornithology; and J. M. W. gives many valuable hints upon Oologg. The Poultry fancier has a volume of information in Sea-sonable Hints and the papers upon poultry matters. A series of articles upon Pigeons is opened by J. C. Lyell, the veteran English Toy fancier. The interest in the Homing fancy begins to awaken. Preliminaries are broached for the 500 miles race, and J. Van Opstal challenges Philadelphia to 100 miles flight. Some space is given to Rabbits and Canaries The illustrations are The Old and New Style sale at the Journal News Depot.
