A plan we adopted some time ago, of passing a Mite Box, for incidental expenses, was allowed to fall into disuse, but this year we have revived it, as we find such a sum a necessity, the annual col-lection not being sufficient for society expenses. Another late change is to make our year close with December, in order that accounts may be closed with Presbyterial Treasurer before the Pres-byterial annual meeting, and for this reason, in our view, think it would be well if all the Auxiliaries compass them, till they with exultant joy exof our Presbytery would do the same. We have a few faithful members among our young ladies, but regret to say the majority of our young people do not exhibit much interest in Mis-sions, for it is to them we must look to fill up the broken ranks, as those now in the front are laid And now, dear sisters, we bid you welcome to our altar of prayer, where our united voices may go up as incense, with earnest pleadings

In closing, we must bear our tribute to our Pas-In closing, we must bear our tribute to our Pas-tor's faithtuiness and help in our work, for by con-stant appeals from the pulpit, missionary sermons and encouraging words in season and out, he has shown himself always ready to "help those women which labor with him in the gospel." May our names be counted worthy to be written with "other fellow-laborers in the Book of Life," and this year to us and all engaged in this work, be indeed one of the "right hand of the Most Hich."
