

SETH YOCUM, whose seat "our Ad" is after, votes with the Democrats. "Sop" is after, votes with the Democrats.

Mrs. OLIVER, through her counsel, made application for a new trial, but the Judge promptly dismissed the case.

The election in Rhode Island and Wisconsin, on Tuesday last week, resulted in favor of the Republicans by largely increased majorities.

THOUSANDS of colored men are leaving the States of Louisiana, Mississippi and Arkansas to escape persecution and death at the hands of the whites of these States.

SENATOR WALLACE knows more about coffee-pots and colored naturalization papers than he does about defeating his enemies for office or securing them for his friends. Vide Randall and Stenger.

WHISKEY will have to be reduced to five cents a glass to make the reception to Grant a success.—Democratic Call.

As no Democrats will participate in the reception ceremonies we can't see the necessity of cheap whiskey.

We see it stated that brother King, of the Blair County Radical, has been appointed to a clerkship in the office of the Secretary of the Commonwealth, at Harrisburg. He is a sound Republican, and this mark of recognition is due him.

COL. D. B. WILLIAMS, who was well known to the newspaper fraternity in the Juniata Valley, died at his residence, in Harrisburg, on Sunday afternoon. His last connection with the press was as editor of the Juniata Tribune when owned by Col. M'Crum. He was a gentleman of talent and culture.

THE Board of Pardons has commuted the death sentence of Alexander B. Sayres, the Philadelphia wife murderer, to imprisonment for life. They refused to interfere in the case of Hezekiah Shaffer, the Franklin county wife murderer, and he will pay the penalty of his crime, in the near future, by hanging.

A FIRE broke out at the corner of Crown and Race streets, in Philadelphia, about one o'clock on Monday morning, and before it could be got under control twenty nine buildings were destroyed, entailing a loss of about $750,000. One man was killed, and two fatally injured by falling walls.

ONE DAY when Mrs. Oliver called to see Gen. Cameron she was so importunate that Mr. Barr, the private Secretary of the General, concluded to deliver her message. He did so, when the General sent back permission to her to "go to the devil." She said she "would consult a lawyer," which is somewhat of a reflection upon the profession.

GEN. GARFIELD is now drawing the fire and abuse of nearly every Democratic paper in the country. The sin of his fencing in his bold and manly expose of the revolutionary schemes of the rebel brigadiers in Congress. The speech of Gen. Garfield will be found on the first page of to-day's JOURNAL, and we invite for it a careful reading.

For the information of all the world, "and the rest of mankind," and for private reasons of our own, we find it necessary for us to say that we have no assistant in conducting the JOURNAL, and any person representing himself as being editorially connected with us is an impostor. We hope we will not have occasion to refer to this matter again.

A GENTLEMAN of this town, who was born in the "sunny South," and who has several thousand dollars' worth of Confederate bonds, told us, a few days ago, that if the Democrats are successful in 1880 he expects to receive full value for them. He knows the Southern feeling, and is confident that the rebel war claims will be paid by the U. S. Government just as soon as the Democratic party succeeds to power.

OUR old friend, B. F. Fries, esq., who started the Greenback Nationalist in this place, but who is now publishing the National Monitor, at Reading, complains of insufficient support from the friends of the cause in his new field of labor, and intimates very strongly that unless there is an improvement in that direction he will be forced to discontinue the publication of the paper. Our old friend deserves better treatment at the hands of the party he so faithfully serves.

THE name of the Semi-Weekly Press, published at Greencastle, Pa., has been changed to that of the Greencastle Press. The paper has been considerably enlarged, and from a semi-weekly has been changed to a weekly. This is the paper started by our friend, George Wilson, of Alexandria, but who was compelled to relinquish its publication on account of failing health. The paper is now under the editorial management of B. F. Winger, esq., who seems eminently fitted for the position, judging from the interesting and readable matter contained in the number before us. We wish him success.

OUR neighbor of the Monitor favors the "starving out" plan adopted by the rebel brigadiers in Congress, who refused to pass the necessary appropriation bills unless they are allowed to repeal all laws having for their object free and honest elections. Repeat these laws, and there is no Republican in the South, black or white, who will be permitted to exercise the rights of a freeman at the polls. The "shot-gun policy" will then have full sway, and Democratic majorities can be manufactured without any trouble. The rebels in Congress say, give us free license to commit fraud at the polls or we will "starve the Government to death" by refusing to appropriate money to keep it going; and the Monitor endorses this revolutionary scheme.

MADAME BONAPARTE died at her residence, in Baltimore, on Friday afternoon, aged 94 years. Madame Bonaparte, then Miss Elizabeth Patterson, the belle of Baltimore, married about the year 1803, when eighteen years of age, Jerome Bonaparte, youngest brother of Napoleon Bonaparte, then First Consul of France. For about a year and a half the pair were very happy, but Napoleon, with the selfishness that characterized him, claimed for himself greater prospects for Jerome, and refused to recognize the marriage. Jerome Bonaparte pleaded with his iron-hearted brother, but to no purpose, and finally, like a poltroon, deserted his wife, who was then in England, not being permitted to set foot on French soil, with a babe born soon after she landed. Jerome Bonaparte was made King of Westphalia, and was married to a German Princess that his brother's waning power might be strengthened. The abandoned wife returned to Baltimore, frequently visiting Europe, however, with her son, it being the aim of her life to have the boy legitimately recognized by the French Empire, and she finally succeeded.

The rebel brigadiers, on Saturday last, succeeded in passing the army appropriation bill with their pet amendments tacked to it, which says that hereafter there shall be no fair elections; the White Leaguers, backed by the shot-gun policy, will keep every colored Republican away from the polls, and everything will be lovely for large Democratic gains and sweeping Democratic victories. The bill now goes to the Senate, but as that branch of the government is under the control of the "boys in grey" there is no relief to be expected from that quarter. The President should veto the bill without hesitancy, and we believe he will.

"The ten-dollar boys" don't vote much for a reduction of their pay per diem; they don't belong to that breed of cats.

GRATEFUL WOMEN.—None receive so much benefit, and none are so profoundly grateful and shed such an interest in recommending Hop Bitters as women. It is the only remedy peculiarly adapted to the many ills the sex is almost universally subject to. It cures indigestion or deranged liver, constant or periodical sick headaches, weakness in the back or kidneys, pain in the shoulders and different parts of the body, a feeling of lassitude and despondency, and all readily removed by these Bitters. [Apr. 4-21.]

A Disease that Wrecks the System. Every function is deranged, every nerve unstrung, every muscle and fiber weakened by its action. It is, in fact, a disease which if unchecked, eventually wrecks the system. In all its types, in every phase, it is dangerous, destructive. Stupor, delirium, convulsions, and even death, are its frequent attendants. But when combated with Hostetter's Stomach Bitters its foothold in the system is dislodged and every vestige of it eradicated. That benign and fertile specific and preventive of the dreaded scourge is recognized not only within our own boundaries, but in tropic lands far beyond them, where intermittents and malarial fevers are so prevalent, to be a sure antidote to the malarial poison and a reliable means of overcoming disorders of the stomach, liver and bowels, of which a violent cholera and cholera morbus, and other ailments, are extremely prevalent. All emigrants and travelers should be supplied with it. [Apr. 4-1m.]

KINDRED EVILS.—It is well known that a relationship exist, between piles, constipation, kidney disease and liver troubles. In kidney-worm, we have a remedy that acts on the general system and restores health by gently aiding nature's internal processes. Druggists keep it.

The Great Discovery! E. F. Kunkel's Bitter Wine of Iron. For the cure of weak stomach, general debility, loss of appetite, nervous prostration, constipation, acidity of the stomach, and all cases requiring a tonic. The wine includes the most agreeable and efficient Salt of Iron we possess. Citrate of Magnesia Oxide, combined with the most energetic vegetable tonic—Yellow Peruvian Bark.

The effect in many cases of debility, loss of appetite, and general prostration, of an efficient Salt of Iron combined with valuable Nerone tonic is most happy. It augments the appetite, raises the pulse, takes of muscular flabbiness, removes the palor of debility, and gives a vigor to the countenance. Do you want something to strengthen you? Do you want a tonic? Do you want to build up your constitution? Do you want to feel well? Do you want to get rid of nervousness? Do you want energy? Do you want to sleep well? Do you want to be vigorous and full of life? Do you want to feel well? Do you want to get rid of nervousness? Do you want energy? Do you want to sleep well? Do you want to be vigorous and full of life? Do you want to feel well? Do you want to get rid of nervousness? Do you want energy? Do you want to sleep well? Do you want to be vigorous and full of life?
