"Get the Best."

"Get the best and never keep a poor cow the second year. No man can afford to keep a cow that will not make from 200 220 pounds of butter or its equivalent in cheese every year. Lastly, make the very best article and get the top of the market. This is dairy economy according to my experience.

The above paragraph furnishes a good text for some timely hints and suggestions "Get the best" is not only applicable to cows, but to other domestic animals and various things appertaining to the farm, including seeds, plants, shrubs, fruit trees, tools, implements, fences, buildings, &c. The farmer should always aim to procure and produce the best of everything in his line. He should "breed from the best" in all cases, whether cattle, horses, sheep swine or poultry; for though the expense of the service of a superior sire may be a trifle more than that of a common one, the resultant profit will be far greater. It costs little, if any, more to raise a blooded or improved colt or calf to a given age than it does to rear an ordinary one, whereas the former will usually sell for bring. And why more farmers do not realize this fact is past my comprehension. Whatever the cause of this neglect of an important branch of farm production and profit, we trust every reader of the Observ er interested will examine into the matter, ing from the best, and be governed accordingly during the ensuing season.

should also be regarded in selecting seeds | our sorrow, because we spiritually under proportion of cultivators neglect a matter so essential, upon proper attention to which the quality, quantity, and consequent profit of a crop, frequently depend. A change of seed, and especially when a superior variety can be so easily obtained is often of great benefit not only in increasing the yield, but producing a far more marketable article. In the selection of plants, shrubs and fruit and ornamental trees, the aim should likewise be to pro quality-the best for either market or home consumption.

As a rule, it is good economy and evidence of wisdom to secure the most apand other appurtenances .- N. Y. Observer.

Smoking in a Barn.

"No Smoking" should be posted in every barn. There is not much difference in having a horse thief around a stable and a man cleaning off horses with a ripe or cigar in his mouth; and there is no to God by Jesus, you must keep with God hired man much meaner than the one in Jesus. You must 'follow peace and who, when his employer comes around, holiness without which no man shall see slips his pipe into his pocket or puts his the Lord."-Rev J. E. Sampson. hand over it. All such fellows should be paid off and started off. As for the proprietor himself going into his barn with his pipe in his mouth, no complaint can be made; nobody should cry unless it be his wife or children. Lightning, incen diaries, and spontaneous combustion com bined, do not cause as many barns to be burned as the pipe, and generally at least one horse goes too.

Will They Have Room for Me?

Is there room among the angels Is there room among the angels
For the spirit of your child?
Will they take your little Mary?
In their loving atm- so mild?
Will they ever love me fondly,
As my story books have said?
Will they find a home for Mary—
Mary numbered with the dead?

Tall me truly, darling mother, Is there room for such as me? Will I gain the home of spirits, And the shining Angels see?

I have sorely tried you, mother-Been to you a constant care, And you will not miss me, mother, When I dwell among the fair? For you have no room for Mary—

She was ever in your way;
And she fears the good will shun her!
Will they, darling mother, say?
Tell me—tell me truly—mother,
Ere life's closing hour doth come,
Do you think that they will keep me
In the shining angel's home?

I was not so wayward, mother, Not, so very, very bad,
But that tender love would nourish
And make Mary's heart go glad.
Oh! I yearned for pure affection
In this world of bitter woe;

And I long for bliss immortal In the land where I must go! Tell me once again, dear mother. Ere you take the parting kiss,

Will the angels bid me welcome To that land of perfect bliss? Earnest Questions.

Did Christ suffer for us? What think you? To say No, shuts us out forever from hope and life, for there is no other twice or thrice the amount the latter will hope, no other life, but through the death upon the cross. To say Yes, involves the inquiry, to what extent we permit it to whose guilt He bore, or in gratitude to Him who consented to bear it. What is this cross to us will one day look on cipher out the difference in favor of breed Him whom we have pierced? Have we taken our sins to it, and left them there? Have we sought peace under its shadow. And the same axiom, "Get the best," and got it and kept it? Is that sorrow plants and trees for the farm, garden and stand it, and personally assent to it, suforchard. It is astonishing how great a fering it to purge our conscience and transform our life? In a word, have we accepted from Him His sorrow, and given Him in exchange our hearts? For in a most real sense, though in glory. He suffers still through the wounds where with sinners wound Him. Every sin has with sinners wound Him. Every sin has a tendency to send Him to a second cross; and to neglect or despise His salvation is to repeat the shout of the multitude: "Not this man but Barabbus." And for those who stand by His cross and see Him cure the best obtainable from trustworthy die, and confess that He died for them, sources. The extra cost will be more than and do not care for it-shall I tell you the repaid not only in dollars and cents, but sentence that will wring in their hearts in the enhanced pleasure and satisfaction | through the coming time? "Suffered first derived from producing what is of superior | under Pontius Pilate, crucified again by me."-Good Words.

The Wiles of Satan.

Much of the difficulty experienced by proved and improved tools, implements the awakened soul is the direct result of and machines for use in the various opera | the baneful influence of the father of lies, tions of cultivating, seeding, harvesting, exerted with special force at this particu-&c. Poor tools make slovenly workmen | lar period in human experience. It would and bad work, and often cause delays and seem, indeed, that in the very nature of damage,-in this way "costing more than the case there are the strongest grounds of they come to," or than the expense of first- probability to warrant us in believing that class articles. No farmer can afford to this conclusion corresponds with fact. It lose time amid the busy work of spring or is only to be expected that he will employ summer by the giving out or breaking of to the uttermost all the malevolent ingen important implements and machines; hence uity that he may be possessed of, in order he should guard against such contingen to keep back the soul from the acceptance cies by procuring the most serviceable of salvation on God's own terms. He articles and keeping them in good order, must be aware that his tyrant power over ready for use whenever wanted. The the human heart ends the moment the fences, gates, sheds, and other farm soul approaches the cross; and hence, to structures, ought always to be good, if not prevent this, his most sedulous efforts will the best, and built with a view to durabil. be directed. The task of keeping an ity and permanence. In brief, and finally, awakened soul away from Christ would it is always the safest, and generally true seem to be a task most thoroughly con economy, for the farmer to have the best genial to his malignant character. It is a of everything; to breed from the best work in which all these qualities which stock, grow the best crops from the purest we have learned from Scripture to at seed of the best varieties, procure the best tribute to Satan are eminently called into implements, and provide the best fences play. The ruthless cruelty of the roaring lion, the subtlety of the old serpent, and above all, the blasphemous libels against the character of God, in which the father of lies delights; all these, and many similar attributes of the great foe of God and man are amply illustrated in his dealings with the human heart at such a time. - Clergyman' Magazines.

Happiness.

There are two things necessary to make true and lasting happiness. First, there must be Peace, peace with God. Nothing on earth can give you this. You have sinned against God, and you cannot be at peace with him, until you know that you have his forgiveness. Sin upon the con science before God banishes peace from the heart. It completely robs us of real, lasting happiness. But there is a fountain open for sin and for uncleanness. It is the blood of Christ All who trust in it are cleansed from all their sins. God in H:s Word points you to Christ crucified for sinners, and he tells you that all who be lieve in him shall have forgiveness. Be lieve in him, sinner, as the one Sacrifice by which sin is put away from God's sight, trust in him as the one Priest who appears not against us, but for us, before God Then you have peace. But another thing is necessary to maintain the brightness, to keep the fulness, to enjoy the calumess, of that Peace. It is Holiness The smallest sin allowed in your life is an 'earthborn cloud' which will hide the smile of God from you. You are bought with a won drous price, you are not your own, there fore live only to him whose you are. If you would be truly happy, you must come

The Only Way. The only way to cure catarrh is by the use of a cleansing and healing lotion, applied to the inflamed and diseased membrane. Snuffs and fumigators, while affording temporary relief, irritate the affected parts and excite a more extended inflammation. Besides, no outward applications alone can cure catarrh. The disease originates in a vitiated state of the blood, and a thorough alterative course of treatment is necessary to remove it from the system. Dr. Sage's Catarrh Remedy has long been known as an efficient standis the fruitful nest wherein are hatched and remedy for this disease, but, to insure a radical and permanent cure, it should be used in conjunction with Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery, the best vegetable alterative vet discovered. The Dis covery cleanses the vitiated blood, while tion and heals the diseased tissues.
