

The bill appropriating $200,000 for the Middle Penitentiary came up in the House, on Tuesday afternoon, and was lost by a vote of 61 yeas to 89 nays. We are without the yeas and nays on the question, and consequently cannot give the vote this week, but propose to do so as soon as we can, when we may have something to say of the causes which brought about this result.

On Wednesday, Mr. Hahn, of Philadelphia, moved a reconsideration of the vote by which the bill was lost. Messrs. Doyle, Davis, of Philadelphia, and Hewitt, of Blair, supported the motion. It was opposed by Fenlon, Sherwood, and Hill, and the question to reconsider was lost by a vote of 77 yeas and 96 nays. The "dog-in-the-manger" members have carried their point for the time being.

Hon. ASA PACKER, the millionaire, died at his residence, in Philadelphia, on Saturday night, aged 74 years. The United States Treasury will pay out, on the first day of July next, $60,000,000 in gold for called bonds.

We are indebted to Hon. M. P. Doyle for a large number of public documents, some of them containing matters of interest.

The Congressional majority would like to back out, but the truth is, it burned all its bridges, and must be able to rig up a balloon.—Buffalo Express.

The Yankees forced us back into the Union, and we propose to give them enough of that Union before the curtain rolls down. We have got 'em just where we want them.—Okolona States.

Both branches of the Legislature, by resolution, have agreed to adjourn on the 6th day of June. It would have been more to their credit, and a saving to the tax-payers, if they had adjourned sine die immediately after the organization on the first day of the session.

We don't know who is conducting the Blair County Radical in the absence of brother King, but he proves that he is a judge of good things by the wholesale appropriation of about half a column of editorial squibs, without credit, from the columns of the JOURNAL.

BILL SCHELL is welcome to all the popularity he has made by his bitter opposition to the Middle Penitentiary measure. If ever William appears before the people for their suffrages he will find that Huntingdon county will not forget the dirty part he has played in this matter.

Ten thousand pages of manuscript have been taken in the Curtin-Yocum contest. This will be printed, and the people will have to pay the bill. "Our Andy," the shoddy contractor, will get a seat in Congress to which he was never elected. The Democrats want him and that is enough.

The Blair County Republicans will hold their primary elections on Saturday afternoon. There is a spirited rivalry going on in that county for the office of Sheriff, there being no less than fifteen candidates in the field. If we had the naming of the candidate, we would name our old friend Over, who has given the best years of his life to the Republican party. We hope he may win.

AMONG the candidates for State Treasurer the name of Hon. B. L. Hewitt, of Blair county, is favorably mentioned. Mr. Hewitt is an able lawyer, and besides taking an active part in State politics he has always labored in advancing internal improvement. His advocacy of the appropriation bill for the Middle Penitentiary will insure him more than a party vote in our county. He was a gallant soldier in the late war, and will make a strong candidate.

THE Democrats have caught a Tartar in the person of Keran, the editor of the Okolona States, a "red hot" Democratic paper published in Mississippi. He publishes to the world the opinions which Southerners entertain of the North, and they are so vindictive and wicked that even the dough-face Democracy of the North are frightened at the injury they see will result to their party by the publication of such treason. They now assert that Keran is not a Democrat, and that he is publishing the States according to contract with Northern Republicans. But this assertion is not true; he is a Simon-pure Democrat, and means exactly what he says when he publishes his damnable treason to the country, and the North will hold that party responsible for the utterances of one of its leading organs. They want to choke Keran into silence, but he continues to "talk out in meatin'."

HONORABLE MENTION.—The Harrisburg Patriot of Wednesday morning has this to say of one of our fellow citizens: Gen. John Williamson, of Huntingdon county, is on a visit to the State capital. Gen. Williamson is one of the landmarks of the past. He is now in the eighty third year of his age, and he still retains with much physical vigor all the mental sprightliness and humor which delighted a former generation. Fifty years ago he was a representative in the house from Huntingdon county, and took a prominent part in its deliberations. In 1845 he was appointed recorder of the land office by President Tyler and held that position until the close of Tyler's term. He was on terms of personal intimacy with some of the most distinguished men of the past generation. His memory is a great store-house of knowledge concerning the history of the events of the long period in which he has been actor and observer, and his fund of anecdotal anecdotes is full of interest. Gen. Williamson visited the capital yesterday and was the object of much friendly attention on the part of the members of the senate and house.

Our Washington Letter.

WASHINGTON, D. C., May 17, 1879. Senator Windom has taken up the cudgels, dropped by Conkling, Blaine, Edwards and others last week, and is vigorously laying them on the smarting backs of the rebels this week. His speech on Monday was a scathing review of their disloyal designs, and an exposure of their sham evasions. He showed by indisputable evidence that the North and the Republican party had done all they could to avert the war, even offering to protect the "rights" of slavery in the name of peace. But it was all in vain, as the men whom the Confederate Senators call "Union secessionists" were determined to go out of the Union or rule it. He ridiculed the idea of a true union among men who still hold that they did right in going with their States instead of with the Union, and clearly demonstrated that the political legislation the Democrats are attempting in appropriation bills is but another name for State rights rebellion. It was a device to accomplish what war had failed to give the enemies of the nation. Senator Windom's speech in its announced as one of the best yet delivered in the Senate, and that is saying a good deal, for never was debate carried on so ably as this has been by the many eminent Republican Senators.

Yesterday Washington attempted to deny and explain away assertions of Senator Windom that he (Hampson) had held declared that the mission of the Democratic party was to nullify the constitutional amendments made necessary by the war. Senator Windom caught him securely. He read from a printed speech of Hampton these words: "That was my plank in the platform. I wanted nothing else, for when the great Democratic party had pledged themselves to the amendments, they had declared that these acts (the amendments) were unconstitutional, and (void), I was willing to wait in patience until that party would be triumphant and apply the remedy in their own time." This was a very plain endorsement of a certain revolutionary democratic platform, and all Hampton could say was that he "could not recollect," but he might have endorsed that language without going to the extent they seemed to imply. This was so humiliating a position for the hero of fraud and violence that his Democratic friends got very nervous and he got very red in the face under their frowns. Mr. Windom said triumphantly "this is all I want," and took his seat amid the smiles and plaudits of the man who had just discomfited his Confederate antagonist.

WOMEN NEVER THINK.—If the centred old bachelor who uttered this sentiment could but witness the intense thought, deep study and thorough investigation of women in determining the best medicines to keep their families well, and would note their sagacity in selecting Hop Bitters as the best and demonstrating it by keeping their families in perpetual health, at a nominal expense, he would be forced to acknowledge that such sentiments are baseless and false. [May 16-21.]

A Dangerous Torpor. Torpor or inactivity of the kidneys is a very dangerous disease, since it is the precursor of diseases which destroy their substance and endanger life. This sluggishness may be overcome by stimulating them, not by cathartics, but by a medicine, an effect produced by Hostetter's Stomach Bitters, a general invigorant and alterative, possessing diuretic properties of no common order. The impetus which this admirable medicine gives to their evacuating function counteracts any tendency to congestion which may exist in the kidneys. Both they and their associated organs, the bladder, are invigorated as well as gently stimulated by the Bitters, which exerts a kindred influence upon the stomach, liver and lungs, and by stimulating the system enables it to withstand malarial epidemics, to which when exposed it might otherwise succumb. [May 2-1m.]

FAREWELL SICKNESS.—With a package of Kidney-Wort, the victim of kidney or liver disease, may exclaim: Farewell sickness! It cures obstinate cases by completely purging the blood of irritating noxious elements in bad cases of piles the cure is speedy.
