Republican State Convention.

The Republicans of Pennsylvania, and all others in favor of an Honest Currency and the faithful discharge of National Obligations, and opposed to Communism and the Restoration to Power in the National Government of the influences which procured the rebellion of 1861, are requested to send delegates, apportioned accordingly to their representation in the Legislature, to a Convention to meet at Harrisburg, at 12 A. M., on the 23d day of July next, to nominate a candidate for State Treasurer, and transact such other business as may be brought before them.

THE testimony in the Spofford Kellogg Senatorial contest is all in, and is of such a nature that the Democrats themselves are ashamed of it. The perjurers brought before the committee to bolster up the case of Spofford, told such unblushing lies that even the friends of that gentleman are timorous about acting, and it may be possible that their "set up" job may fail to the army in keeping peace at the polls, of consummation, and that Senator Kellogg or for election supervisors and marshals. of consummation, and that Senator Kellogg will be permitted to retain the seat he is justly entitled to.

PROCTOR KNOTT, who has been selected as fugleman by the rebel brigadiers in Congress, has rehashed all of the Democratic speeches delivered in that body during the present session, and cooked them up in the shape of an address to the country as a reply to the veto messages of President Hayes, but, in the language of vere as the Senate's refusal to consider the Harrisburg Telegraph, it will fall stillborn on the country. It will not satisfy the people of the South, because it is too specious in its reasoning, while it will only elicit contempt in the North, East and West by its balderdash. The veto messages to which it professes to be a reply are actually untouched by it. Abounding in false positions, it naturally lacks the argument to sustain itself. It is a demand without a reason, like all the attempts of the Democratic party for the past twenty years, and as a legal paper, which it purperts to be, is only a rehash of the twaddle in which Stephens and Hill, of Georgia, have been indulging ever since they were suffered to return to Congress-an echo from the grave of the Confederacy, a voice from the dead past of American slavery!

STATE TREASURER.

The members of the Republican Executive Committee of Montgomery county were called together on the 10th inst., for the purpose of transacting business pertaining to the interests of the party, and before adjournment the following resolutions were unanimously adopted:

Whereas, The name of Capt. WILLIAM B. HART, a former resident of Montgomery county, now a citizen of Harrisburg, has been announced in various localities of the State, as a candidate again for State Treasurer, there Resolved, That we will use all honorable

Hill had denied that he voted for the original secession ordinance of Georgia, and as serted that what he did vote for was a plan to postpone action on that instrument. sulted in an easy victory for the first Senator Blaine showed by the rebel records what the plan for postponement was. It con tained several sections, every one of which was a humiliating condition to be imposed presented by the Sultan of Turkey to Gen. on the North as a condition of Georgia's remaining in the Union. Several of these conditions, which were offered as amendments to the Federal Constitution, were that slave holders should have the right to carry slaves wherever they chose, and the Northern States should be forced to protect slave property when thus transferred; that no restriction should be placed Rapid City, Dakota Territory, says that upon the spread of slavery; that the slave code of the Southern States should be a part of the criminal code of all the States that northern men should be responsible for the enforcement of the fugitive slave · mated that the Territory's population is law; that the United States Government now increasing at the rate of over 5,000 a should never attempt to coerce a seceding State (with independent Republics of South Carolina, etc., as Ben Hill called them) and that in short the Northern people should consent to establish the Confederacy over the Federal Government. Senator Blaine well said that if Hill called are two toney gentlemen who sport canes this standing by the Union, he preferred hind such miserable and insulting devices as this. Another point was made upon Ben Hill's denial that he had introduced a resolution in the Confederate Congress to treat as criminals and execute Federal soldiers on Southern soil after a date fixed. Senator Blaine said the denial was correct nated Samuel Fowles for Sheriff; James so far as a resolution was concerned, for it McDonald for Register and Recorder, and was a bill instead. The denial was there John Malon for Jury Commissioner. fore a miserable quibble. The bill was an infamous proposition to hoist the black candidate for sheriff but was unable to flag, so infamous that Hill could get no candidate for sheriff but was unable to support for it, and it was finally withdrawn "make the riffle." The party will not obiect to his fighting its battles and doing pointed, and simply showed that he had not misrepresented the record of the rebels, and that he had not told the worst of it. Hill made a sorry figure in reply, whining about these personal assaults, and even his own friends were chagrined at his attitude. Next week will finish the business of this session, say the knowing ones. But the President may take a notion to veto another bill. He will have to consider whether it is expedient as well as right to approve the bills now in Congress, and obably to pass, prohibiting appropriations The general appropriation bill will be approved, because to save their own salaries the rebel Brigadiers took from that and embodied in a supplemental bill enough matter to cover the political legislation. ## The National Complaint.

Dyspepsia is the national complaint. Almos every other man or woman you meet has it and the result is that the number of pseudoremedies for it is as numerous as Pharaoh's host. They are for the most part worthless There is, however, a searching eradicant e this distressing and obdurate malady, one whose genuine merits long since raised it to a foremost place among the staple medicines of America. Hostetter's Stomach Bitters extirpates dyspepsia with greater certainty and promptitude than any known remedy, and is a most genial invigorant, appetizer and aid to secretion. These are not empty assertions, as thousands of our country men and women who have experienced its effects are aware, but are backed up by irrefragable proofs repeatedly laid before the public. The Bitters also pro-mote a regular habit of body and give a healthful stimulus to the urinary organs.
