

W. L. FOULK, Agent of the Pennsylvania, Ohio and West Virginia Press Association.

Is the only person in Pittsburgh authorized to receive advertisements for the JOURNAL. He has our best rates.

WOOD WANTED.—A load or two of good wood will be taken on subscription, if delivered at once. The wood must be dry yellow pine, no other kind will be received.

LOCAL AND PERSONAL.

Brief Mention—Home-made and Stolen.

Cherries in market. The hay season approaches. The festival mania is booming.

Persistent advertising will pay. Press pads at the JOURNAL Store.

Crescent springs open this week. Bird courses every morning; free to early risers.

Company D will be inspected on Saturday next at 8 P. M.

Good Paper only 10 cents a box at the JOURNAL Store.

The Millers' State Association will meet in Altoona next month.

Frog hunters are numerous, but as a general thing the catch is small.

They are about to bore for oil in Jackson township, Cambria county.

First-class infant paper only ten cents a box at the JOURNAL Store.

The Tyrone Herald has just entered upon its thirteenth volume. Success.

A colored camp meeting opens to-day, near Bellefonte, to continue ten days.

A nice assortment of Dominoes, all prices, just received at the JOURNAL Store.

John B. Morgan has been appointed postmaster at Shade Valley, this county.

The bootings of the Patterson Owl are heard in this neck 'woods once a month.

We make a specialty of good cigars at the JOURNAL Store. Made specially for our trade.

Mrs. Col. Morris has the handsomest flower bed that has come under our observation.

The prettiest girl in Huntingdon buys her foot gear at the Boston Boot and Shoe Store.

It requires as much time and patience to procure bass-bait as it does to catch the fish.

In the Harrisburg markets four large boxes of plump, juicy strawberries are sold for a quarter.

The Union temperance meeting will be held in the Brethren's chapel this (Thursday) evening.

Dr. A. R. McCarthy, of Mt. Union, is going into tobacco raising quite extensively this season.

The best five-cent cigar in the county at the JOURNAL Store. Made specially for our trade.

Law. Port has added a bob-tail horse to his livery stock.

Our friends are brushing up their "fixes" for their trip to Harrisburg on the approaching 4th of July.

Altoona wants a new postoffice, and Gen. Coffroth has introduced a bill in Congress looking to its erection.

A heavy shower, accompanied by considerable wind, visited this place on Sunday evening. No damage.

An exchange says that banged hair has gone out of fashion, and is now only worn by girls with warts on their forehead.

Superintendent Gage has disposed of his span of carriage horses to a Philadelphia gentleman for the sum of $425.

The streams in Mifflin and Juniata counties are being stocked with young trout from the State hatching house at Marietta.

The official duties of J. Simpson Africa, esq., being no longer needed at Harrisburg, he has returned to his home in this place.

Will Gray, who had been on a five weeks' tour to the State Fair, returned home on Saturday last, highly delighted with his trip.

A sneaking, dirty-looking gray cat pounced upon and killed a little sparrow near in front of the JOURNAL building on Sunday morning.

A. S. Grow, esq., who, for the past year, has been local editor of the Bellefonte Republican, severed his connection with that paper last week.

The Democratic politicians were very busy at their committee meetings on Wednesday, "setting it up" in favor of their choice for delegates.

"Facts are stubborn things," and so are coughs and colds, but the latter will invariably yield to Dr. Bull's Cough Syrup, which costs but 25 cents.

Two artesian wells are about being put down in Altoona for the purpose of increasing the water supply for the use of the P. R. R. shops in that city.

The Globe this week enters upon its 30th volume, and we trust that brother Thyrus may live to publish it until thirty-six more years are added to its age.

Reuben Smith, one of our most respected colored citizens, died at his residence, in this place, on Saturday morning last, of consumption, after a protracted illness.

Bedford county's grand jury, we understand, presented as a nuisance every day in the streets courting through that county which obstructed the passage of fish.

We have just opened the largest, handsomest, cheapest and best assortment of paper ever brought to Huntingdon. Call and see the pretty things we have in this line.

We understand that our Catholic friends propose to hold a picnic on the 4th of July, and with this end in view have set to work to perfect arrangements to make it a success.

John McCoy shot and killed a full-grown owl on Saturday morning last, from off its perch on the comb of a barn in the town of Church. The bird measured four feet from tip to tip.

The iridescent prairie, a late invention, is the latest novelty at the JOURNAL Store. For marking clothing and for use by the ladies, it is the most beautiful ink in the market. Come and see it.

Mad dogs have made their appearance in the eastern part of the State. Every dog caught upon the public streets without a muzzle should be killed. Muzzle the dogs by all means.

A cool wave struck this place on Monday morning, and up to Wednesday water stores were necessary to comfort. Everybody was expecting frost, but we do not think that any fell in this locality.

Wm. Bauch, a former resident of Tyrone, employed as a brakeman on the Pan Handle railroad, fell from a pile on Monday morning a week ago, and sustained injuries from which he died the same night.

Get your letter heads, noteheads, bill heads, cards, envelopes, etc., printed at the JOURNAL Job Rooms. The largest and most complete in the county. Send along your orders.

If you want to get the word of your money by your seats at the JOURNAL Store, where none but the best in the market are kept for sale. The two-for-one sold here are equal to half the five-cent seats in the market.

An old man named Jesse Stem, employed to water and feed cattle on the stock farm of Mr. James Brown, about half a mile from Somerset, was struck by a lightning bolt on Thursday evening of last week.

Mrs. George F. McClellan died at the residence of his mother, in this place, on Friday morning, after a long and painful illness, aged about 46 years. He leaves a wife and a large circle of friends to mourn his death.

Our across-the-street grocer friend, York, troubles a baby carriage with such grace and ease as if he were an old stage at the business. It is a proof of his skill as a boy in his first pair of red-topped boots.

A was remarked, the other day, that Uncle Sam's revenue officers in this place, are so attentive to business, and guard the interests of the Government so closely, that they will arrest a man if they see him carrying a cigar of tobacco of his own raising.

We are pleased to learn that our old friend, and former fellow-citizen, A. B. Zeigler, is meeting with success in the hotel business in Altoona, which he has just purchased. His house is crowded all the time, which goes to prove that he "knows how to keep hotel."

The Council should pass an ordinance against corner loafing, or at once make provisions for more loafing room, as it is not only impossible to remove some of the street corners without running against some of the statutory on exhibition there every evening.

Optimism the most dangerous drug, especially when given to children, is the shape of a soothing remedy. Dr. Bull's Baby Syrup is warranted not to contain opium in any form and is the most innocent and efficacious remedy for children's teething. Price only 25 cents a bottle.

Four half-grown boys were arrested and imprisoned on Monday afternoon for stealing a ride on the cars of the P. R. R. The only reason will be that they will have to pay several dollar costs. We think it would pay the county to build a prison for the use of the company.

We would be pleased to hear from our friends in the land of the Green Mountains, who have waxed and waned since we had that pleasure. Don't let your zeal in assisting to get up a regular spread eagle Fourth of July celebration in your town make you forget your friends in the east.

Two church festivals in the fall will be in place during four days of last week, the Lutherans in the Castilian Garden, and the members and friends of the Stone Creek Sabbath school in their chapel in the eastern section of the town. Both did well, considering the arduous of festivals we are having just now.

Prof. A. L. Guss, is writing a history of Juniata county, which cannot fail to be correct and interesting, as no man in the State is better versed in the traditions of that region, and none more competent to weave them into either a novel or a history. He is now in the hands of the descendants of the pioneers of that county.

York, the grocer, has purchased a mammoth rooster, and now roasts all the coffee sold in this county. He is so particular in doing this he can give his customers a better grade of coffee, for less money, than by buying the roasted coffee. He handed us a paper, the contents of which we have no hesitancy in pronouncing it a good article.

We learn that a swindler has been traveling through portions of Cambria county negotiating with farmers for the purchase of their land. He cannot fail to be correct in borrowing small sums of money. We have no doubt but what he is the same fellow who visited Philip Schuster, a gold watch maker, and before leaving stole a gold watch and chain.

On Wednesday last, a little son of Henry Soles was thrown from Jerry Carl's wagon into the race, below Fishers mill, injuring him in the head. The accident was caused by the fact that the wagon was not properly secured to such an extent that amputation was found necessary. The accident was occasioned by the horse starting high, and the young man's water barrels were distributed promiscuously.

Ed. Williams (colored) and Mike McGuire, indulged in a knock down last Tuesday afternoon, in which Ed. came out second best, but his opponent was not so lucky. McGuire was a grand ringer for the late John Cleaver. The colored gentleman referred to in the above item is known in this locality as "Ed. Williams," and is a well known and a grand ringer for the late John Cleaver.

Benjamin Goodman, who forged several of our business men, in April last, and who was arrested by the police, and committed to the jail, was released on Saturday last, and is now at large. He is a well known and a grand ringer for the late John Cleaver.

The dwelling house of Mr. Samuel Parsons, situate in Shade Valley, this county, was totally destroyed by fire about a week or ten days ago. The fire was caused by a defective flue. Although the house was an unreasonable one, Mr. Parsons succeeded in getting out of the fire a considerable amount of goods. We understand his loss is fully covered by insurance. Mr. Parsons seems to be unfortunate, as about two years ago his barn was destroyed by fire, and in this instance, he had it fully insured.

We are informed that the meeting of the State Game Association, held in this place on Tuesday last, was very simply attended, there being only a few delegates from the various towns. Our sportsmen were expecting quite a large attendance, and had made arrangements for a big shoot and a good time generally. The meeting was held in the evening, and was a success.

Father Frysinger, editor of that first-class local paper, the Lewistown Gazette, publishes a quartette of local items in the columns of a couple weeks ago, giving the names of the misdoings of some of Huntingdon's gamins, and wants to know whether they are all owing to the gates of the nation. He is a well known and a grand ringer for the late John Cleaver.

The committee on the installation of Rev. Mr. Owens as pastor of the Stone Creek Church, are holding a meeting in this place on Saturday next, for the purpose of installing him. The committee are composed of Messrs. J. M. Zuck, J. M. Zuck, J. M. Zuck, and J. M. Zuck. The meeting will be held in the evening, and will be a success.

The minutes were read and approved and at 9 o'clock the Presbytery adjourned to meet on Tuesday evening of next week, for the purpose of installing him. The committee are composed of Messrs. J. M. Zuck, J. M. Zuck, J. M. Zuck, and J. M. Zuck. The meeting will be held in the evening, and will be a success.

Organization of the Gary Magneto Electric Machine Company. The board of directors of the Gary Magneto Electric Machine Company, organized on Tuesday evening of last week, for the purpose of effecting a permanent organization. The board of directors are composed of Messrs. J. M. Zuck, J. M. Zuck, J. M. Zuck, and J. M. Zuck. The meeting will be held in the evening, and will be a success.

Arrest.—Last Saturday an old man named George Stull (who many years ago resided in this neighborhood) was arrested near Marietta, and taken to Huntingdon jail. He had been indicted some time ago in Huntingdon county for concealing stolen goods. He is a well known and a grand ringer for the late John Cleaver.

Charley Lamp, a child of about six years of age, was drowned in Crooked Creek, near the town of Altoona, on Saturday afternoon of last week. He was in company with two other children, Brown and Lamberson, of about the same age, when they reached the stream. Lamberson remained upon the bank, while the other two boys went into the water. In the vicinity of the bridge there is a hole of considerable depth, and into this the children waded, when they commenced sinking to the bottom. Mr. McCahan's horse, who was upon the bank with Lamberson, gave the alarm, which brought Mrs. Outhwaite, who resides near by, to the shore, and that lady seeing a child in the water, she immediately jumped into the water and rescued young Brown. Lamp sank to the bottom and was taken up by Mr. McCahan, who was attracted to the scene by the cries of the children. He was immediately taken to the hospital, but he died on Saturday afternoon of last week.

Jug Breaking.—There will be a meeting of the Sunday School Scholars in the Lutheran church on Saturday evening next, at 7 o'clock, for the purpose of breaking the jug. The jug is a well known and a grand ringer for the late John Cleaver.

Arrest.—Last Saturday an old man named George Stull (who many years ago resided in this neighborhood) was arrested near Marietta, and taken to Huntingdon jail. He had been indicted some time ago in Huntingdon county for concealing stolen goods. He is a well known and a grand ringer for the late John Cleaver.

Charley Lamp, a child of about six years of age, was drowned in Crooked Creek, near the town of Altoona, on Saturday afternoon of last week. He was in company with two other children, Brown and Lamberson, of about the same age, when they reached the stream. Lamberson remained upon the bank, while the other two boys went into the water. In the vicinity of the bridge there is a hole of considerable depth, and into this the children waded, when they commenced sinking to the bottom. Mr. McCahan's horse, who was upon the bank with Lamberson, gave the alarm, which brought Mrs. Outhwaite, who resides near by, to the shore, and that lady seeing a child in the water, she immediately jumped into the water and rescued young Brown. Lamp sank to the bottom and was taken up by Mr. McCahan, who was attracted to the scene by the cries of the children. He was immediately taken to the hospital, but he died on Saturday afternoon of last week.

Jug Breaking.—There will be a meeting of the Sunday School Scholars in the Lutheran church on Saturday evening next, at 7 o'clock, for the purpose of breaking the jug. The jug is a well known and a grand ringer for the late John Cleaver.

Arrest.—Last Saturday an old man named George Stull (who many years ago resided in this neighborhood) was arrested near Marietta, and taken to Huntingdon jail. He had been indicted some time ago in Huntingdon county for concealing stolen goods. He is a well known and a grand ringer for the late John Cleaver.

Charley Lamp, a child of about six years of age, was drowned in Crooked Creek, near the town of Altoona, on Saturday afternoon of last week. He was in company with two other children, Brown and Lamberson, of about the same age, when they reached the stream. Lamberson remained upon the bank, while the other two boys went into the water. In the vicinity of the bridge there is a hole of considerable depth, and into this the children waded, when they commenced sinking to the bottom. Mr. McCahan's horse, who was upon the bank with Lamberson, gave the alarm, which brought Mrs. Outhwaite, who resides near by, to the shore, and that lady seeing a child in the water, she immediately jumped into the water and rescued young Brown. Lamp sank to the bottom and was taken up by Mr. McCahan, who was attracted to the scene by the cries of the children. He was immediately taken to the hospital, but he died on Saturday afternoon of last week.

Jug Breaking.—There will be a meeting of the Sunday School Scholars in the Lutheran church on Saturday evening next, at 7 o'clock, for the purpose of breaking the jug. The jug is a well known and a grand ringer for the late John Cleaver.

Arrest.—Last Saturday an old man named George Stull (who many years ago resided in this neighborhood) was arrested near Marietta, and taken to Huntingdon jail. He had been indicted some time ago in Huntingdon county for concealing stolen goods. He is a well known and a grand ringer for the late John Cleaver.

Charley Lamp, a child of about six years of age, was drowned in Crooked Creek, near the town of Altoona, on Saturday afternoon of last week. He was in company with two other children, Brown and Lamberson, of about the same age, when they reached the stream. Lamberson remained upon the bank, while the other two boys went into the water. In the vicinity of the bridge there is a hole of considerable depth, and into this the children waded, when they commenced sinking to the bottom. Mr. McCahan's horse, who was upon the bank with Lamberson, gave the alarm, which brought Mrs. Outhwaite, who resides near by, to the shore, and that lady seeing a child in the water, she immediately jumped into the water and rescued young Brown. Lamp sank to the bottom and was taken up by Mr. McCahan, who was attracted to the scene by the cries of the children. He was immediately taken to the hospital, but he died on Saturday afternoon of last week.

Jug Breaking.—There will be a meeting of the Sunday School Scholars in the Lutheran church on Saturday evening next, at 7 o'clock, for the purpose of breaking the jug. The jug is a well known and a grand ringer for the late John Cleaver.

Arrest.—Last Saturday an old man named George Stull (who many years ago resided in this neighborhood) was arrested near Marietta, and taken to Huntingdon jail. He had been indicted some time ago in Huntingdon county for concealing stolen goods. He is a well known and a grand ringer for the late John Cleaver.

HUNTINGDON PRESBYTERY.—The Adjunct Meeting at Orbisosa, Pa., on Tuesday—Interesting Proceedings.—The Presbytery of Huntingdon met according to adjournment at the Presbyterian Church at Orbisosa, Huntingdon county, at 2 o'clock on Tuesday afternoon of last week, and was constituted with the following members: Rev. T. F. Sherrard, of Mifflin, and Rev. A. Nelson Hollifield, of Huntingdon, were elected moderators. Recording Clerk and Reading Clerk pro tem.

Rev. John G. A. Fallerton presented a letter of dismissal from the Presbytery of Westminster, and after the usual examination he was enrolled as a member of this Presbytery.

A call from the Curwensville Church for the services of Rev. Mr. Fallerton, promising him $1,000 per annum, together with the use of the parsonage, was read, found in order, and being placed in his hands was accepted by him, and June 18 was appointed as the date of his installation; Rev. H. S. Butler to preach and read the sermon, and Rev. W. H. Gemmill to charge the people, and Rev. D. H. Campbell to read the prayer.

Rev. J. M. Shick, of the Reformed Church, being present was introduced and invited to sit as a corresponding member. The minutes of the meeting of the Presbytery of last week were read, and found in order. The minutes of the meeting of the Presbytery of last week were read, and found in order.

On motion Presbytery proceeded to the examination of Mr. J. D. Owens with a view to his ordination to the Gospel ministry. He was examined by the Presbytery, and found to be a well qualified man, and was ordained to the Gospel ministry on Tuesday afternoon of last week.

On motion the following committee was appointed to visit the Bradford Church and endeavor to get existing difficulties settled. Rev. H. S. Butler, William Gemmill and Elder George McCauley.

The charge of Schellburg, Main's Choice and St. Clairsville, was recommended to the Synod, and the Synod recommended that the pastor's salary $300, which will require an appropriation of $300.

Mr. J. D. Owens preached his trial sermon, taking for his text Matthew 11, 28, after which the roll was called and his examination as a candidate for the Gospel ministry was completed. He was ordained to the Gospel ministry on Tuesday afternoon of last week.

After a sermon by Rev. A. Nelson Hollifield from Revelations 13, Rev. Mr. Hollifield, in the name of the Synod, presented a petition from the hands of the Presbytery, praying for the removal of Rev. Mr. Hollifield from the pastoral charge of the church at Altoona.

Rev. J. J. Coal delivered the charge to the people, and following is a sketch of this able charge: (1) Preach the Word only; (2) Preach the Word in its purity; (3) Preach the Word in its power; (4) Preach the Word in its truth; (5) Preach the Word in its love; (6) Preach the Word in its grace; (7) Preach the Word in its mercy; (8) Preach the Word in its kindness; (9) Preach the Word in its gentleness; (10) Preach the Word in its meekness; (11) Preach the Word in its patience; (12) Preach the Word in its long suffering; (13) Preach the Word in its goodness; (14) Preach the Word in its benignity; (15) Preach the Word in its mildness; (16) Preach the Word in its sweetness; (17) Preach the Word in its peace; (18) Preach the Word in its meekness; (19) Preach the Word in its gentleness; (20) Preach the Word in its kindness; (21) Preach the Word in its love; (22) Preach the Word in its grace; (23) Preach the Word in its mercy; (24) Preach the Word in its kindness; (25) Preach the Word in its gentleness; (26) Preach the Word in its kindness; (27) Preach the Word in its gentleness; (28) Preach the Word in its kindness; (29) Preach the Word in its gentleness; (30) Preach the Word in its kindness.

The minutes were read and approved and at 9 o'clock the Presbytery adjourned to meet on Tuesday evening of next week, for the purpose of installing him. The committee are composed of Messrs. J. M. Zuck, J. M. Zuck, J. M. Zuck, and J. M. Zuck. The meeting will be held in the evening, and will be a success.

Organization of the Gary Magneto Electric Machine Company. The board of directors of the Gary Magneto Electric Machine Company, organized on Tuesday evening of last week, for the purpose of effecting a permanent organization. The board of directors are composed of Messrs. J. M. Zuck, J. M. Zuck, J. M. Zuck, and J. M. Zuck. The meeting will be held in the evening, and will be a success.

Arrest.—Last Saturday an old man named George Stull (who many years ago resided in this neighborhood) was arrested near Marietta, and taken to Huntingdon jail. He had been indicted some time ago in Huntingdon county for concealing stolen goods. He is a well known and a grand ringer for the late John Cleaver.

Charley Lamp, a child of about six years of age, was drowned in Crooked Creek, near the town of Altoona, on Saturday afternoon of last week. He was in company with two other children, Brown and Lamberson, of about the same age, when they reached the stream. Lamberson remained upon the bank, while the other two boys went into the water. In the vicinity of the bridge there is a hole of considerable depth, and into this the children waded, when they commenced sinking to the bottom. Mr. McCahan's horse, who was upon the bank with Lamberson, gave the alarm, which brought Mrs. Outhwaite, who resides near by, to the shore, and that lady seeing a child in the water, she immediately jumped into the water and rescued young Brown. Lamp sank to the bottom and was taken up by Mr. McCahan, who was attracted to the scene by the cries of the children. He was immediately taken to the hospital, but he died on Saturday afternoon of last week.

Jug Breaking.—There will be a meeting of the Sunday School Scholars in the Lutheran church on Saturday evening next, at 7 o'clock, for the purpose of breaking the jug. The jug is a well known and a grand ringer for the late John Cleaver.

Arrest.—Last Saturday an old man named George Stull (who many years ago resided in this neighborhood) was arrested near Marietta, and taken to Huntingdon jail. He had been indicted some time ago in Huntingdon county for concealing stolen goods. He is a well known and a grand ringer for the late John Cleaver.

Charley Lamp, a child of about six years of age, was drowned in Crooked Creek, near the town of Altoona, on Saturday afternoon of last week. He was in company with two other children, Brown and Lamberson, of about the same age, when they reached the stream. Lamberson remained upon the bank, while the other two boys went into the water. In the vicinity of the bridge there is a hole of considerable depth, and into this the children waded, when they commenced sinking to the bottom. Mr. McCahan's horse, who was upon the bank with Lamberson, gave the alarm, which brought Mrs. Outhwaite, who resides near by, to the shore, and that lady seeing a child in the water, she immediately jumped into the water and rescued young Brown. Lamp sank to the bottom and was taken up by Mr. McCahan, who was attracted to the scene by the cries of the children. He was immediately taken to the hospital, but he died on Saturday afternoon of last week.

Jug Breaking.—There will be a meeting of the Sunday School Scholars in the Lutheran church on Saturday evening next, at 7 o'clock, for the purpose of breaking the jug. The jug is a well known and a grand ringer for the late John Cleaver.

Arrest.—Last Saturday an old man named George Stull (who many years ago resided in this neighborhood) was arrested near Marietta, and taken to Huntingdon jail. He had been indicted some time ago in Huntingdon county for concealing stolen goods. He is a well known and a grand ringer for the late John Cleaver.

Charley Lamp, a child of about six years of age, was drowned in Crooked Creek, near the town of Altoona, on Saturday afternoon of last week. He was in company with two other children, Brown and Lamberson, of about the same age, when they reached the stream. Lamberson remained upon the bank, while the other two boys went into the water. In the vicinity of the bridge there is a hole of considerable depth, and into this the children waded, when they commenced sinking to the bottom. Mr. McCahan's horse, who was upon the bank with Lamberson, gave the alarm, which brought Mrs. Outhwaite, who resides near by, to the shore, and that lady seeing a child in the water, she immediately jumped into the water and rescued young Brown. Lamp sank to the bottom and was taken up by Mr. McCahan, who was attracted to the scene by the cries of the children. He was immediately taken to the hospital, but he died on Saturday afternoon of last week.

Jug Breaking.—There will be a meeting of the Sunday School Scholars in the Lutheran church on Saturday evening next, at 7 o'clock, for the purpose of breaking the jug. The jug is a well known and a grand ringer for the late John Cleaver.

Arrest.—Last Saturday an old man named George Stull (who many years ago resided in this neighborhood) was arrested near Marietta, and taken to Huntingdon jail. He had been indicted some time ago in Huntingdon county for concealing stolen goods. He is a well known and a grand ringer for the late John Cleaver.

Charley Lamp, a child of about six years of age, was drowned in Crooked Creek, near the town of Altoona, on Saturday afternoon of last week. He was in company with two other children, Brown and Lamberson, of about the same age, when they reached the stream. Lamberson remained upon the bank, while the other two boys went into the water. In the vicinity of the bridge there is a hole of considerable depth, and into this the children waded, when they commenced sinking to the bottom. Mr. McCahan's horse, who was upon the bank with Lamberson, gave the alarm, which brought Mrs. Outhwaite, who resides near by, to the shore, and that lady seeing a child in the water, she immediately jumped into the water and rescued young Brown. Lamp sank to the bottom and was taken up by Mr. McCahan, who was attracted to the scene by the cries of the children. He was immediately taken to the hospital, but he died on Saturday afternoon of last week.

Jug Breaking.—There will be a meeting of the Sunday School Scholars in the Lutheran church on Saturday evening next, at 7 o'clock, for the purpose of breaking the jug. The jug is a well known and a grand ringer for the late John Cleaver.

Arrest.—Last Saturday an old man named George Stull (who many years ago resided in this neighborhood) was arrested near Marietta, and taken to Huntingdon jail. He had been indicted some time ago in Huntingdon county for concealing stolen goods. He is a well known and a grand ringer for the late John Cleaver.

Charley Lamp, a child of about six years of age, was drowned in Crooked Creek, near the town of Altoona, on Saturday afternoon of last week. He was in company with two other children, Brown and Lamberson, of about the same age, when they reached the stream. Lamberson remained upon the bank, while the other two boys went into the water. In the vicinity of the bridge there is a hole of considerable depth, and into this the children waded, when they commenced sinking to the bottom. Mr. McCahan's horse, who was upon the bank with Lamberson, gave the alarm, which brought Mrs. Outhwaite, who resides near by, to the shore, and that lady seeing a child in the water, she immediately jumped into the water and rescued young Brown. Lamp sank to the bottom and was taken up by Mr. McCahan, who was attracted to the scene by the cries of the children. He was immediately taken to the hospital, but he died on Saturday afternoon of last week.

Jug Breaking.—There will be a meeting of the Sunday School Scholars in the Lutheran church on Saturday evening next, at 7 o'clock, for the purpose of breaking the jug. The jug is a well known and a grand ringer for the late John Cleaver.

Arrest.—Last Saturday an old man named George Stull (who many years ago resided in this neighborhood) was arrested near Marietta, and taken to Huntingdon jail. He had been indicted some time ago in Huntingdon county for concealing stolen goods. He is a well known and a grand ringer for the late John Cleaver.

Charley Lamp, a child of about six years of age, was drowned in Crooked Creek, near the town of Altoona, on Saturday afternoon of last week. He was in company with two other children, Brown and Lamberson, of about the same age, when they reached the stream. Lamberson remained upon the bank, while the other two boys went into the water. In the vicinity of the bridge there is a hole of considerable depth, and into this the children waded, when they commenced sinking to the bottom. Mr. McCahan's horse, who was upon the bank with Lamberson, gave the alarm, which brought Mrs. Outhwaite, who resides near by, to the shore, and that lady seeing a child in the water, she immediately jumped into the water and rescued young Brown. Lamp sank to the bottom and was taken up by Mr. McCahan, who was attracted to the scene by the cries of the children. He was immediately taken to the hospital, but he died on Saturday afternoon of last week.

Jug Breaking.—There will be a meeting of the Sunday School Scholars in the Lutheran church on Saturday evening next, at 7 o'clock, for the purpose of breaking the jug. The jug is a well known and a grand ringer for the late John Cleaver.

Arrest.—Last Saturday an old man named George Stull (who many years ago resided in this neighborhood) was arrested near Marietta, and taken to Huntingdon jail. He had been indicted some time ago in Huntingdon county for concealing stolen goods. He is a well known and a grand ringer for the late John Cleaver.

BIRMINGHAM MOUNTAIN SEMINARY.—The Annual Commencement Exercises on Wednesday.—The little village of Birmingham, Huntingdon county, was the scene of a grand and presented a holiday appearance on Wednesday last, and the grace and beauty of Huntingdon, Blair, Centre and Clearfield counties were well represented, along a brick and stone sprinkling of the sterner sex, to do honor to Professor Grier and the graduating class of the Mountain Seminary on the occasion of the annual commencement exercises. To describe the seminary buildings and their surroundings is a task not necessary to undertake, as they are well known to all who have been to the place. The buildings are modern, and are admirably adapted for school purposes. They are beautifully located in a plot of ground of about four or five acres, and are situated on the southern side of the river, which flows at the base of the hill, and the view from the buildings is a beautiful one. The grounds are well cultivated, and are well watered, and are admirably adapted for school purposes. They are beautifully located in a plot of ground of about four or five acres, and are situated on the southern side of the river, which flows at the base of the hill, and the view from the buildings is a beautiful one. The grounds are well cultivated, and are well watered, and are admirably adapted for school purposes.

The exercises were opened by singing and prayer. In a very short time the large grounds were gathered at each window and at the front doors to hear the address and the singing of the hymns. The exercises were very interesting, and were well attended. The exercises were very interesting, and were well attended. The exercises were very interesting, and were well attended.

The exercises were very interesting, and were well attended. The exercises were very interesting, and were well attended. The exercises were very interesting, and were well attended. The exercises were very interesting, and were well attended.

The exercises were very interesting, and were well attended. The exercises were very interesting, and were well attended. The exercises were very interesting, and were well attended. The exercises were very interesting, and were well attended.

The exercises were very interesting, and were well attended. The exercises were very interesting, and were well attended. The exercises were very interesting, and were well attended. The exercises were very interesting, and were well attended.

The exercises were very interesting, and were well attended. The exercises were very interesting, and were well attended. The exercises were very interesting, and were well attended. The exercises were very interesting, and were well attended.

The exercises were very interesting, and were well attended. The exercises were very interesting, and were well attended. The exercises were very interesting, and were well attended. The exercises were very interesting, and were well attended.

The exercises were very interesting, and were well attended. The exercises were very interesting, and were well attended. The exercises were very interesting