Republican State Ticket.

FOR STATE TREASURER:

Hon. SAMUEL BUTLER,
OF CHESTER.

THE scalp of the Clearfield statesman dangles from the belt of one of his bitterest political foes, Daniel O. Barr.

SEVERAL articles in type, among them the proceedings of the Good Templars' Convention, the Democratic platform, etc., have to go over until next week for want of room.

RUMORS from Washington intimate that ex-Senator Alex. Ramsey, of Minnesota, has been tendered the portfolio of the War Department upon the retirement of Secretary M'Crary in September next.

THE negro, Chastine Cox, who murdered Mrs. Dr. Hull, in New York, has been convicted of murder in the first degree and received his death sentence, which he listented to with the most stoical indifference.

THE Republican State Convention met in Harrisburg, on Wednesday, and nominated the next Treasurer of Pennsylvania in the person of Hon. Samuel Butler, of Chester county. We will give full proceedings next week.

COLONEL ROBERT G. INGERSOLL, it is reported, will be the orator at the reunion of the soldiers of the North west at Aurora, Ill., August 20th. Over one hundred regiments will be represented, and Gen. Sheridan will command the troops in a sham battle.

GEN. PETER LYLE, a prominent Philadelphian, who commanded the Nineteenth and Ninetieth Regiments Pa. Vols. during the rebellion, and who had won considerable celebrity as a military officer, died at his home, in that city, on Thursday morning, aged about 58 years.

As the Clearfield statesman has no interest in the campaign this year, he will establish a labratory at his home, and by a thorough course of experiments find out the best chemical process of coloring naturalization papers, so that he can use them without fear of detection in the campaign of 1880.

AT a meeting of the Republican County Committee, on Thursday of last week, Harris Richardson, of Lincoln, and Daniel Kinch, of Warriorsmark, were elected delegates to the State Convention. Agreeably to a resolution adopted the County Convention will be held on the 19th of August.

THE ship Shasta, from Port-de Paix, arrived at quarantine, on the Delaware river, eleven miles below Philadelphia, on Thursday of last week, with seven yellow fever patients on board. They were at once removed to the hospital there, and according to latest reports are improving. The disease in Memphis seems to be on the increase, several deaths having occuired since our last issue.

A DISPATCH from Pittsburgh says that a large number of suits have been brought against Allegheny county, within a week past, for losses incurred by individuals during the July riots of 1877. These suits have been delayed until this time in order to allow the supreme court to pass upon the question of the liability of the state or the county. It having been settled by that tribunal that the county is liable, the lawyers have been rushing in suits by the hundreds, in order to be within the reach of the act of assembly, which says that suits must be brought within two years after the loss was incurred. The most prominent lawyers in that city say that this two year limitation is not constitutional. The amount of the suits brought thus far is about $250,000. The total loss for which the county is liable is now placed at $2,700,000, which will bankrupt the county or cripple it financially for years to come.

THE STATE BONDS OVER-ISSUE.

The Legislative committee, appointed at the last session, to investigate the supposed over-issue of State bonds, have been holding a session at Bedford Springs, and on Thursday of last week they seem to have unravelled the mystery. An associated press dispatch from that place says that "the supposed over-issue of State bonds is fully explained by the discovery by the Investigating Committee of the coupon book, kept in the State Treasury, but supposed heretofore not to have existed. By this book it appears that five million dollars of bonds were issued of date 1852, and five hundred thousand dollars of date 1853. These bonds were placed in the hands of the Girard Bank and five million four hundred thousand dollars returned as sold and a receipt given to J. Bailey, State Treasurer, for the remaining one hundred thousand dollars. This receipt remained in the Treasury until 1858 when Henry S. Magraw, then State Treasurer, demanded the return of the bonds. The bank, or its President, returned, instead of bonds of 1853, twenty-eight thousand dollars in money, fifty-one thousand dollars of bonds of 1853, and twenty-one thousand dollars of bonds of 1852, making a total of one hundred thousand dollars. The Auditor General's office at that time appears to have noted the fact that twenty-one thousand dollars of the bonds were dated 1852, but credited them to the loan of 1853, thus making the loan of 1852 five million dollars, and of 1853 four hundred and twenty-six thousand dollars, instead of 1852 four million one hundred and seventy-nine thousand, and 1853 four hundred and forty-nine thousand dollars. Thus the apparent overissue is simply more of the issue of 1853 and less of the issue of 1852, one amount balancing the other.

$20,000
WORTH OF BOOTS AND SHOES

TO BE SOLD AT THE

BOSTON BOOT AND SHOE STORE,

At Prices Lower than ever before offered the People of Huntingdon County.

The reason we make this assertion is this: J. H. M'CULLOUGH, Proprietor of the Boston Boot and Shoe Store, has just returned from the East, having attended a large

BANKRUPT SALE OF BOOTS AND SHOES,

And being a pushed sale, they were bought at nearly half their actual value. This benefit is to be given the people of Huntingdon county by selling them Boots and Shoes,

AT PRICES LOWER THAN ELSEWHERE IN THE STATE.
