

The Huntingdon Journal.

FRIDAY, - - SEPTEMBER 5, 1879.

READING MATTER ON EVERY PAGE.

W. L. FOULK,
Agent of the Pennsylvania, Ohio and West
Virginia Press Association,

Is the only person in Pittsburgh authorized to receive advertisements for the JOURNAL. He has our best rates.

LOCAL AND PERSONAL.

Brief Mention—Home-made and Stolen.

Autumn tints.
Oysters are ripe.

Advertise your wares.
The leaves are coloring.

Squirrels are reported scarce.

Summer is on the home-stretch.

Huntingdon is putting on city airs.

Subscribe and pay for the JOURNAL.

See the advertisement of Wm. Reed.

The wild grape crop will be immense.

Hay fever patients are growing numerous.

Gov. Hoyt will talk agriculture at the State fair.

Bang away at the squirrels—if you can find them.

The Altoona public schools opened on Monday last.

Altoona has an independent military company.

Would it pay to run a bus to the reservoir once a day?

We haven't yet seen one of the double-barred post cards.

The Knights of Pythias in this State now number over 28,000.

The prettiest girl in Huntingdon don't indulge in slang phrases.

The Hebrews of Altoona are about to organize a synagogue in that city.

Bodkin wants to know where the liquor comes from for the Sunday drunks.

It is said that every township and borough in Blair county can boast a brass band.

The Blair County Radical has put on part of a new suit, which adds very much to its good looks.

Smoke the "Electric," manufactured expressly for the JOURNAL Store, where it can only be had.

A fatal case of yellow fever is reported at Cherry Tree, Indiana County. The victim was a Mrs. Duncan.

The policeman named Bigler, in Clearfield county, is said to be erecting the largest tanzney in the State.

R. Bryan, esq., who has been spending several weeks at Atlantic City, returned home on Monday evening.

U. B. Lewis, of our town, has been down to Shirley this week, running the water-pipes through the alms house.

Our young friend, W. T. Bair, of the late Union Times, has gone to Phillipsburg to get type on the Journal.

Fifty-one thousand dollars were paid out by the Cambria Iron Company, at Johnstown, on Friday last. Lucky Johnstown.

P. Suloff, formerly of Millstatt, who had a "flyer" here at one of our county fairs, died at Philadelphia on Saturday last.

The local of the Millstatt Register is also a judge of good things—vide his appropriation of our local on the death of Christ Spayd.

The vacancy in the Penitentiary Commission, occasioned by the death of George I. Young, will not be filled for several weeks.

Five cutlery has just been added to the varied assortment of articles to be found at the JOURNAL Store. Ladies' knives a specialty.

Young man, your girl may have a very pretty foot, but remember that it can't make half as deep an impression on you as the old man's.

Huntingdon is noted for her rough country roads, while by a little labor, at the right time, they could be made smooth and good.

The best assortment of Blank Books ever brought to Huntingdon has just been received at the JOURNAL Store. Good goods at low prices.

Mrs. Stephens has opened a pay school in the Academy building, which will continue until within two weeks of the opening of the public schools.

It sounds noisy to hear of an old lady kissing her little cow, but there are lots of girls who are dizzy enough to let a calf kiss them—Ez.

There has been a change in the time of the departure of the mail train on the H. & B. T. R.R. It now leaves at 6:40 p.m., instead of 7:40 as heretofore.

By advertisement H. H. Herr, gives notice that he has purchased the presses, types and fixtures of the Altoona Democratic Call, and that they belong to him.

Geo. W. Friedley informs us that about the first of October he will open a meat market immediately below the post office, in a room to be built for that purpose.

A couple of chivalrous fellows, with an orange waistcoat, promenaded our streets on Monday, and as they should be, rode in a gaudy quantity of the root of all evil.

A new favorite of the La Tigre Segas just received at JOURNAL Store. This is the best cigar in Huntingdon county, or in the State. And don't you forget it.

Altona's tonsorial artists indulged in a picnic on Thursday afternoon of last week, and a social hop in the evening. A few colored girls from our town were present.

The moon was full on Sunday evening, but fair Luna behaved herself more becomingly than the young girls who got full the last night of the Newton camp meeting.

Copying pencils is a late novelty just added to the large stock of useful and ornamental articles to be found at the JOURNAL STORE; they are "as handy as a nail."

According to the news, Sunday ended on Sunday last, but judging from the sweltering heat since the clerk of the weather cannot certainly be cognizant of the fact.

"The Electric" a new cigar manufactured expressly for the JOURNAL trade, is the most popular in the market, and covers of the week are laud in its praise. Everybody smokes it, and they laud it.

The farmers of Walker township should call upon Jack McCahan and purchase the right to use the patent post-and-rail fence, which can be put up without a mortised post or the driving of a nail.

Practicing trial Lawyer Herde, in Beloit last week, Hon. Wm. M. Meek, of Philadelphia, one of his counsel, was carried into court room on pillows, being too feeble to walk in consequence of a sudden illness.

D. G. Owens, Druggist, Altoona, Pa., writes: "Dr. Bull's Honey Syrup has a wonderful reputation, the demand for it is really astonishing. Mothers will have no other. It is destined to supersede all other Soothing Syrups."

Tramps now evade the law by traveling as umbrella menders, and the more aristocratic of the peddle pins, shoe-strings, etc. Keep your eyes on these fellows should they present themselves to you in either of the above disguised.

The bicycle, as a means of travel, is becoming quite popular in the eastern part of the State. It is claimed for it that a rider can make one hundred miles a day without the least fatigue. As yet Huntingdon is without a bicycle.

Our young friends, Harry and Elmer Brown, sons of A. and T. B. Brown, esq., have come to wednesday morning for the Lafayette College, Easton, Pa., where the former will pursue a Scientific course and the latter that of Civil Engineering.

Nervousness and indigestion. These sad afflictions so destructive to business and pleasure, arise from a morbid condition of the body, which is relieved by occasional doses of Dr. Bull's Balsomine Pills. Try them, they will do you good.

This favor of our beloved friend, of Barr's Valley, is of such a nature that precludes its appearance in our columns. We would not be justified in publishing an article concerning such pointed charges as are made in the one referred to.

Our venerable friend, Elijah Gorsuch, of Oneida township, paid his annual visit to the JOURNAL Saturday on Tuesday morning, and received his subscription for about the twentieth time, to "the handsomest and best paper in the country."

The festival held in the Castilian Garden, four nights last week, under the auspices of the Good Templars, was well conducted, and in view of the fact that this town has had a surfeit of festivals this season, the financial success of the enterprise was satisfactory.

Jacob Hatley, esq., one of Huntingdon county's prospective Directors of the Poor, was in town on Friday, having been a clever gentleman who makes friends wherever he goes. Under his supervision the affairs of the Alms House will be carefully guarded.

Joseph R. Corman, esq., who spent several weeks on the frontier, arrived at home on Saturday evening, highly delighted with his trip. He has a slight attack of the "Western fever," but we are inclined to think that he will not give a bird in the hand for one in the bush.

The great event of the season will be the annual picnic at Cresson, on Saturday. Six hundred and seventy-two excursion tickets have been issued to the members of the craft for the use of themselves and their families. As a matter of course they will have a jolly good time.

A Harrisburg "moonshiner" named Kohler, who has been manufacturing whisky from "beer-beer stamps," was arrested on Friday and sent to answer the charge. He purchased the retail slops from the saloons in that city and distilled them into a prime article of whisky.

We are informed that the people of Shade Gap are at last awake to the necessity of doing something if they want a railroad, and that to end they have succeeded in raising over $800. We give this rumor as we heard it. Altoona Daily Record.

Mr. H. C. Hartman, of Huntingdon, made a long trip to Bismarck last Friday. He was looking up the history of the newspapers published in this country for his address, to be read at the printers' picnic at Cresson, on the 6th of September. It will be a very interesting history.—People's Advocate.

Pistol shots in the public streets, several bad-and-tumble fights, a scuffle or more between the miners and the miners on Saturday night. With a little improvement in that line Altoona will soon compare with Huntingdon Saturday nights' saturnalia of drunkenness and blackguardism.

The Hebrews of Altoona are about to organize a synagogue in that city.

Bodkin wants to know where the liquor comes from for the Sunday drunks.

It is said that every township and borough in Blair county can boast a brass band.

The Blair County Radical has put on part of a new suit, which adds very much to its good looks.

A fatal case of yellow fever is reported at Cherry Tree, Indiana County. The victim was a Mrs. Duncan.

The policeman named Bigler, in Clearfield county, is said to be erecting the largest tanzney in the State.

R. Bryan, esq., who has been spending several weeks at Atlantic City, returned home on Monday evening.

U. B. Lewis, of our town, has been down to Shirley this week, running the water-pipes through the alms house.

Our young friend, W. T. Bair, of the late Union Times, has gone to Phillipsburg to get type on the Journal.

Fifty-one thousand dollars were paid out by the Cambria Iron Company, at Johnstown, on Friday last. Lucky Johnstown.

P. Suloff, formerly of Millstatt, who had a "flyer" here at one of our county fairs, died at Philadelphia on Saturday last.

The local of the Millstatt Register is also a judge of good things—vide his appropriation of our local on the death of Christ Spayd.

The vacancy in the Penitentiary Commission, occasioned by the death of George I. Young, will not be filled for several weeks.

Five cutlery has just been added to the varied assortment of articles to be found at the JOURNAL Store. Ladies' knives a specialty.

Young man, your girl may have a very pretty foot, but remember that it can't make half as deep an impression on you as the old man's.

Huntingdon is noted for her rough country roads, while by a little labor, at the right time, they could be made smooth and good.

The best assortment of Blank Books ever brought to Huntingdon has just been received at the JOURNAL Store. Good goods at low prices.

Mrs. Stephens has opened a pay school in the Academy building, which will continue until within two weeks of the opening of the public schools.

It sounds noisy to hear of an old lady kissing her little cow, but there are lots of girls who are dizzy enough to let a calf kiss them—Ez.

There has been a change in the time of the departure of the mail train on the H. & B. T. R.R. It now leaves at 6:40 p.m., instead of 7:40 as heretofore.

By advertisement H. H. Herr, gives notice that he has purchased the presses, types and fixtures of the Altoona Democratic Call, and that they belong to him.

Geo. W. Friedley informs us that about the first of October he will open a meat market immediately below the post office, in a room to be built for that purpose.

A couple of chivalrous fellows, with an orange waistcoat, promenaded our streets on Monday, and as they should be, rode in a gaudy quantity of the root of all evil.

The farmers of Walker township should call upon Jack McCahan and purchase the right to use the patent post-and-rail fence, which can be put up without a mortised post or the driving of a nail.

Practicing trial Lawyer Herde, in Beloit last week, Hon. Wm. M. Meek, of Philadelphia, one of his counsel, was carried into court room on pillows, being too feeble to walk in consequence of a sudden illness.

D. G. Owens, Druggist, Altoona, Pa., writes: "Dr. Bull's Honey Syrup has a wonderful reputation, the demand for it is really astonishing. Mothers will have no other. It is destined to supersede all other Soothing Syrups."

Tramps now evade the law by traveling as umbrella menders, and the more aristocratic of the peddle pins, shoe-strings, etc. Keep your eyes on these fellows should they present themselves to you in either of the above disguised.

The bicycle, as a means of travel, is becoming quite popular in the eastern part of the State. It is claimed for it that a rider can make one hundred miles a day without the least fatigue. As yet Huntingdon is without a bicycle.

Our young friends, Harry and Elmer Brown, sons of A. and T. B. Brown, esq., have come to wednesday morning for the Lafayette College, Easton, Pa., where the former will pursue a Scientific course and the latter that of Civil Engineering.

Nervousness and indigestion. These sad afflictions so destructive to business and pleasure, arise from a morbid condition of the body, which is relieved by occasional doses of Dr. Bull's Balsomine Pills. Try them, they will do you good.

This favor of our beloved friend, of Barr's Valley, is of such a nature that precludes its appearance in our columns. We would not be justified in publishing an article concerning such pointed charges as are made in the one referred to.

A fellow down in Perry county, who lives out in the mountain districts, and who started the school was M. E. Church, in Clay twp., on Thursday, the first time the news of the killing of Miller by Albright. After hearing it he told about a strange man having visited his house on several occasions begging something to eat, and from the description given of Albright he concluded that his visitor was another.

The festival held in the Castilian Garden, four nights last week, under the auspices of the Good Templars, was well conducted, and in view of the fact that this town has had a surfeit of festivals this season, the financial success of the enterprise was satisfactory.

Jacob Hatley, esq., one of Huntingdon county's prospective Directors of the Poor, was in town on Friday, having been a clever gentleman who makes friends wherever he goes. Under his supervision the affairs of the Alms House will be carefully guarded.

Joseph R. Corman, esq., who spent several weeks on the frontier, arrived at home on Saturday evening, highly delighted with his trip. He has a slight attack of the "Western fever," but we are inclined to think that he will not give a bird in the hand for one in the bush.

The great event of the season will be the annual picnic at Cresson, on Saturday. Six hundred and seventy-two excursion tickets have been issued to the members of the craft for the use of themselves and their families. As a matter of course they will have a jolly good time.

A H. C. Hartman, of Huntingdon, made a long trip to Bismarck last Friday. He was looking up the history of the newspapers published in this country for his address, to be read at the printers' picnic at Cresson, on the 6th of September. It will be a very interesting history.—People's Advocate.

Pistol shots in the public streets, several bad-and-tumble fights, a scuffle or more between the miners and the miners on Saturday night. With a little improvement in that line Altoona will soon compare with Huntingdon Saturday nights' saturnalia of drunkenness and blackguardism.

The Hebrews of Altoona are about to organize a synagogue in that city.

Bodkin wants to know where the liquor comes from for the Sunday drunks.

It is said that every township and borough in Blair county can boast a brass band.

Would it pay to run a bus to the reservoir once a day?

We haven't yet seen one of the double-barred post cards.

The Knights of Pythias in this State now number over 28,000.

The prettiest girl in Huntingdon don't indulge in slang phrases.

The Hebrews of Altoona are about to organize a synagogue in that city.

Bodkin wants to know where the liquor comes from for the Sunday drunks.

It is said that every township and borough in Blair county can boast a brass band.

Would it pay to run a bus to the reservoir once a day?