

Brief Mention—Home-made and Stolen.

Call in the straw hats. Railroad travel is brisk.

Republicans, pay your taxes. Pull down your fall overcoat.

Shrewd business men advertise. "Girls" is on hand again this week.

Friedley's new building was erected with a rush.

"Sweet scotch" is the latest name for whisky.

The equinox will come booming along one of these days.

Warm stores are a necessity to comfort these mornings and evenings.

Seven lady composers represented the craft at the Cresson picnic.

The prettiest girl in Huntington will visit the State fair before its close.

Some of Lewistown's young colored men have organized a brass band.

The greivian head is said to be coming into vogue again among fashionable females.

The cheapest and best Blank Books in the country are to be had at the JOURNAL STORE.

Our down town contemporary, the Monitor, entered upon its seventeenth volume last week.

The East Pennsylvania Synod of the Lutheran church met in Harrisburg on the 17th inst.

The bad boy now shines the green tomatto at the unsuspecting pedestrians. Naughtily boys.

Allen continues to shove Democrats at the old price since the California and Maine elections.

For the past ten days the bricklayers have been at work on ex-sheriff Henderson's new mill.

Some of the juveniles are trying to turn an honest penny by offering horse chestnuts for sale.

A Cambria county horse is to trot against time, on the Altoona course, this (Thursday) afternoon.

Blair county Odd Fellows picknicked at Roaring Springs, on Saturday, and had an enjoyable time.

About the usual number of Saturday night drunks were to be seen staggering through our streets.

The veteran soldiers of Juniata county will hold a reunion at Milltown on Thursday of next week.

During a day's fishing last week, our townsman, S. G. Wittaker, esq., took twenty good sized bass.

Councillor McMarrie carries one of "John's comforters," of mammoth dimensions, under his right eye.

The farmers' delight—The Oliver Chilled Plows. To be had at the mammoth establishment of Henry & Co.

Acting upon our suggestion the proprietor of the bus makes an occasional trip to the penitentiary grounds.

One day last week Maj. Nightingale caught a pair of bass which weighed in the neighborhood of seven pounds.

If you want to feel well and lively, use Dr. Bull's Balm. It is all druggists keep.

Some "poetic" strings out half a column of rhyme, in last week's Philadelphia Journal, on the late printers' picnic.

Travel, both east and west, on the Central Road is increasing. The cheap excursion to the West is what is doing it.

David B. Zeigler, esq., of York, Pa., is visible upon our streets. There is an attraction in our town for our young friend.

Writing letters, while suffering from a forty-hour neuralgic pain above the eyes, is not the pleasantest occupation in the world.

M. F. Postelwitz, of Mercer county, Ill., is visiting his friends in this town, in a vicinity, after an absence of thirty six years.

Light frosts were visible in this neighborhood a couple of mornings last week, but we hear of no damage having been done.

Capt. Bogardus will be present at the Cumberland county agricultural fair, and give exhibitions of his own raising of turkeys.

The penitentiary grounds and reservoir visited by numerous persons on Sunday. Better the day, better the deed, you know.

The water in the Juniata is very low again, remarkably so for this season of the year. In some places you can cross the stream dry.

Advice of an old nurse.—The baby would be always bright and cheerful from occasional doses of Dr. Bull's Baby Syrup were administered.

We didn't see the handsome editor at the picnic, on Saturday.—Besides, of course you had to pay for a press of business prevented our going.

Street Commissioner Miller has been engaged for the past few days in removing the loose stone and rubbish from off the public squares in this city.

The boys are hungry and will bite at anything from a grasshopper to a red worm; in some instances almost leaving the water after the bait.

A Blair county farmer, named Jacob Z. Smith, was instantly killed, on Saturday last, by being thrown from his wagon and breaking his neck.

Our former friend, Philip Schneider, who went into the hotel business, in Altoona, a few months ago, has already withdrawn from it.

If you want to vote at the coming election you must pay your taxes on or before the 4th day of October. Don't fail to attend to this important matter.

Quite a number of our people drove to the Allegheny camp ground on Sunday.

Demerol, opium and carriages was greater than the supply.

Our brother quill of the Osceola Herald don't speak in flattering terms of the management of the late picnic and the hotel accommodations at Cresson.

The many friends of Rev. M. K. Foster in this place will be sorry to learn that that gentleman is seriously ill with malarial fever at his home in Altoona.

The Pacific Express act, on Saturday, did not arrive at this place until one o'clock, P. M., nearly six hours behind time. It is not clear the cause of the delay.

We want two or three loads of good kindling wood at this office, on sight. Now is the time for those persons who seemed so anxious to pay for their papers in this way.

C. W. Early, esq., local editor of the Johnston Review, proposes visiting a brother residing in Alabama with a view to the improvement of his shattered health.

The services at the Methodist church, Sunday morning and evening, were ably and interestingly aided, we suppose, to the Moorehead camp meeting which was in progress.

A good many of our denizens having taken advantage of the low excursion rates ($1.25) to Philadelphia, offered by the P. R. R., ride themselves to that city on Tuesday last.

David Stutzman, of Miller township, who had been bitten by a copperhead, in two days drank a gallon of whisky to counteract the poison. Of the two poisons whisky won.

Five prisoners made an unsuccessful attempt to escape from the Cambria county jail last week. Their plan was discovered in time to frustrate their successfully carrying it out.

Sneak thieves are abundant. Invest your surplus cash in slot guns or cross bill dogs. Indeed we do not think it would be considered prudent to set spring traps for the "night operators."

The Second International Conference of the Railroad Young Men's Christian Associations of the United States and British Provinces is in session at Altoona, this week. R. McWhorter, of our town, is the reporter for the occasion.

A reunion of Old Fellows, of several counties, on Monday, at Cresson, on Monday, at which there were over three hundred men present, who indulged in a picnic and parade.

The justices throughout the county are busy just now sending notices to delinquents to pay taxes. Thanks for this purpose are to be had at the JOURNAL STORE at forty cents per hundred.

A carload of boots and shoes just received and opening at the Boston Boot and Shoe Store, opposite the Journal office. As you don't forget it, there is the place for bargains.

Lieut. Samuel W. Miller, eldest son of mine host of the Miller Hotel, left on Monday evening for his post duty on the frontier. He will be stationed at Fort Keogh, in Montana Territory.

Our old friend, R. Biglum, esq., of Shirley township, dropped in to see us on Saturday last, and received his subscription to "the handsome and best paper in the county."

Biglum has been a subscriber to the JOURNAL since its first issue, and during all these long years has never failed for a whole year's subscription. With every other subscriber of the paper comes a complimentary copy of the paper.

We have often heard persons say that if an officer were to call upon them to assist him in making an arrest they would refuse to do so. By so doing they might get themselves into a predicament of some kind.

One of our friends, R. Biglum, esq., of Shirley township, dropped in to see us on Saturday last, and received his subscription to "the handsome and best paper in the county."

Biglum has been a subscriber to the JOURNAL since its first issue, and during all these long years has never failed for a whole year's subscription. With every other subscriber of the paper comes a complimentary copy of the paper.

We have often heard persons say that if an officer were to call upon them to assist him in making an arrest they would refuse to do so. By so doing they might get themselves into a predicament of some kind.

One of our friends, R. Biglum, esq., of Shirley township, dropped in to see us on Saturday last, and received his subscription to "the handsome and best paper in the county."

Biglum has been a subscriber to the JOURNAL since its first issue, and during all these long years has never failed for a whole year's subscription. With every other subscriber of the paper comes a complimentary copy of the paper.

We have often heard persons say that if an officer were to call upon them to assist him in making an arrest they would refuse to do so. By so doing they might get themselves into a predicament of some kind.

One of our friends, R. Biglum, esq., of Shirley township, dropped in to see us on Saturday last, and received his subscription to "the handsome and best paper in the county."

Biglum has been a subscriber to the JOURNAL since its first issue, and during all these long years has never failed for a whole year's subscription. With every other subscriber of the paper comes a complimentary copy of the paper.

We have often heard persons say that if an officer were to call upon them to assist him in making an arrest they would refuse to do so. By so doing they might get themselves into a predicament of some kind.

One of our friends, R. Biglum, esq., of Shirley township, dropped in to see us on Saturday last, and received his subscription to "the handsome and best paper in the county."

Biglum has been a subscriber to the JOURNAL since its first issue, and during all these long years has never failed for a whole year's subscription. With every other subscriber of the paper comes a complimentary copy of the paper.

We have often heard persons say that if an officer were to call upon them to assist him in making an arrest they would refuse to do so. By so doing they might get themselves into a predicament of some kind.

One of our friends, R. Biglum, esq., of Shirley township, dropped in to see us on Saturday last, and received his subscription to "the handsome and best paper in the county."

Biglum has been a subscriber to the JOURNAL since its first issue, and during all these long years has never failed for a whole year's subscription. With every other subscriber of the paper comes a complimentary copy of the paper.

We have often heard persons say that if an officer were to call upon them to assist him in making an arrest they would refuse to do so. By so doing they might get themselves into a predicament of some kind.

One of our friends, R. Biglum, esq., of Shirley township, dropped in to see us on Saturday last, and received his subscription to "the handsome and best paper in the county."

Biglum has been a subscriber to the JOURNAL since its first issue, and during all these long years has never failed for a whole year's subscription. With every other subscriber of the paper comes a complimentary copy of the paper.

We have often heard persons say that if an officer were to call upon them to assist him in making an arrest they would refuse to do so. By so doing they might get themselves into a predicament of some kind.

One of our friends, R. Biglum, esq., of Shirley township, dropped in to see us on Saturday last, and received his subscription to "the handsome and best paper in the county."

Biglum has been a subscriber to the JOURNAL since its first issue, and during all these long years has never failed for a whole year's subscription. With every other subscriber of the paper comes a complimentary copy of the paper.

We have often heard persons say that if an officer were to call upon them to assist him in making an arrest they would refuse to do so. By so doing they might get themselves into a predicament of some kind.

One of our friends, R. Biglum, esq., of Shirley township, dropped in to see us on Saturday last, and received his subscription to "the handsome and best paper in the county."

Biglum has been a subscriber to the JOURNAL since its first issue, and during all these long years has never failed for a whole year's subscription. With every other subscriber of the paper comes a complimentary copy of the paper.

We have often heard persons say that if an officer were to call upon them to assist him in making an arrest they would refuse to do so. By so doing they might get themselves into a predicament of some kind.

One of our friends, R. Biglum, esq., of Shirley township, dropped in to see us on Saturday last, and received his subscription to "the handsome and best paper in the county."

Biglum has been a subscriber to the JOURNAL since its first issue, and during all these long years has never failed for a whole year's subscription. With every other subscriber of the paper comes a complimentary copy of the paper.

We have often heard persons say that if an officer were to call upon them to assist him in making an arrest they would refuse to do so. By so doing they might get themselves into a predicament of some kind.

One of our friends, R. Biglum, esq., of Shirley township, dropped in to see us on Saturday last, and received his subscription to "the handsome and best paper in the county."

Biglum has been a subscriber to the JOURNAL since its first issue, and during all these long years has never failed for a whole year's subscription. With every other subscriber of the paper comes a complimentary copy of the paper.

We have often heard persons say that if an officer were to call upon them to assist him in making an arrest they would refuse to do so. By so doing they might get themselves into a predicament of some kind.

One of our friends, R. Biglum, esq., of Shirley township, dropped in to see us on Saturday last, and received his subscription to "the handsome and best paper in the county."

Biglum has been a subscriber to the JOURNAL since its first issue, and during all these long years has never failed for a whole year's subscription. With every other subscriber of the paper comes a complimentary copy of the paper.

We have often heard persons say that if an officer were to call upon them to assist him in making an arrest they would refuse to do so. By so doing they might get themselves into a predicament of some kind.

One of our friends, R. Biglum, esq., of Shirley township, dropped in to see us on Saturday last, and received his subscription to "the handsome and best paper in the county."

Biglum has been a subscriber to the JOURNAL since its first issue, and during all these long years has never failed for a whole year's subscription. With every other subscriber of the paper comes a complimentary copy of the paper.

We have often heard persons say that if an officer were to call upon them to assist him in making an arrest they would refuse to do so. By so doing they might get themselves into a predicament of some kind.

One of our friends, R. Biglum, esq., of Shirley township, dropped in to see us on Saturday last, and received his subscription to "the handsome and best paper in the county."

Biglum has been a subscriber to the JOURNAL since its first issue, and during all these long years has never failed for a whole year's subscription. With every other subscriber of the paper comes a complimentary copy of the paper.

We have often heard persons say that if an officer were to call upon them to assist him in making an arrest they would refuse to do so. By so doing they might get themselves into a predicament of some kind.

One of our friends, R. Biglum, esq., of Shirley township, dropped in to see us on Saturday last, and received his subscription to "the handsome and best paper in the county."

Biglum has been a subscriber to the JOURNAL since its first issue, and during all these long years has never failed for a whole year's subscription. With every other subscriber of the paper comes a complimentary copy of the paper.

We have often heard persons say that if an officer were to call upon them to assist him in making an arrest they would refuse to do so. By so doing they might get themselves into a predicament of some kind.

One of our friends, R. Biglum, esq., of Shirley township, dropped in to see us on Saturday last, and received his subscription to "the handsome and best paper in the county."

Biglum has been a subscriber to the JOURNAL since its first issue, and during all these long years has never failed for a whole year's subscription. With every other subscriber of the paper comes a complimentary copy of the paper.

We have often heard persons say that if an officer were to call upon them to assist him in making an arrest they would refuse to do so. By so doing they might get themselves into a predicament of some kind.

One of our friends, R. Biglum, esq., of Shirley township, dropped in to see us on Saturday last, and received his subscription to "the handsome and best paper in the county."

Biglum has been a subscriber to the JOURNAL since its first issue, and during all these long years has never failed for a whole year's subscription. With every other subscriber of the paper comes a complimentary copy of the paper.

We have often heard persons say that if an officer were to call upon them to assist him in making an arrest they would refuse to do so. By so doing they might get themselves into a predicament of some kind.

One of our friends, R. Biglum, esq., of Shirley township, dropped in to see us on Saturday last, and received his subscription to "the handsome and best paper in the county."

Biglum has been a subscriber to the JOURNAL since its first issue, and during all these long years has never failed for a whole year's subscription. With every other subscriber of the paper comes a complimentary copy of the paper.

We have often heard persons say that if an officer were to call upon them to assist him in making an arrest they would refuse to do so. By so doing they might get themselves into a predicament of some kind.

One of our friends, R. Biglum, esq., of Shirley township, dropped in to see us on Saturday last, and received his subscription to "the handsome and best paper in the county."

Biglum has been a subscriber to the JOURNAL since its first issue, and during all these long years has never failed for a whole year's subscription. With every other subscriber of the paper comes a complimentary copy of the paper.

We have often heard persons say that if an officer were to call upon them to assist him in making an arrest they would refuse to do so. By so doing they might get themselves into a predicament of some kind.

One of our friends, R. Biglum, esq., of Shirley township, dropped in to see us on Saturday last, and received his subscription to "the handsome and best paper in the county."

Biglum has been a subscriber to the JOURNAL since its first issue, and during all these long years has never failed for a whole year's subscription. With every other subscriber of the paper comes a complimentary copy of the paper.

We have often heard persons say that if an officer were to call upon them to assist him in making an arrest they would refuse to do so. By so doing they might get themselves into a predicament of some kind.

One of our friends, R. Biglum, esq., of Shirley township, dropped in to see us on Saturday last, and received his subscription to "the handsome and best paper in the county."

Biglum has been a subscriber to the JOURNAL since its first issue, and during all these long years has never failed for a whole year's subscription. With every other subscriber of the paper comes a complimentary copy of the paper.

We have often heard persons say that if an officer were to call upon them to assist him in making an arrest they would refuse to do so. By so doing they might get themselves into a predicament of some kind.

One of our friends, R. Biglum, esq., of Shirley township, dropped in to see us on Saturday last, and received his subscription to "the handsome and best paper in the county."

Biglum has been a subscriber to the JOURNAL since its first issue, and during all these long years has never failed for a whole year's subscription. With every other subscriber of the paper comes a complimentary copy of the paper.

We have often heard persons say that if an officer were to call upon them to assist him in making an arrest they would refuse to do so. By so doing they might get themselves into a predicament of some kind.

One of our friends, R. Biglum, esq., of Shirley township, dropped in to see us on Saturday last, and received his subscription to "the handsome and best paper in the county."

Biglum has been a subscriber to the JOURNAL since its first issue, and during all these long years has never failed for a whole year's subscription. With every other subscriber of the paper comes a complimentary copy of the paper.

We have often heard persons say that if an officer were to call upon them to assist him in making an arrest they would refuse to do so. By so doing they might get themselves into a predicament of some kind.

One of our friends, R. Biglum, esq., of Shirley township, dropped in to see us on Saturday last, and received his subscription to "the handsome and best paper in the county."

Biglum has been a subscriber to the JOURNAL since its first issue, and during all these long years has never failed for a whole year's subscription. With every other subscriber of the paper comes a complimentary copy of the paper.

We have often heard persons say that if an officer were to call upon them to assist him in making an arrest they would refuse to do so. By so doing they might get themselves into a predicament of some kind.

One of our friends, R. Biglum, esq., of Shirley township, dropped in to see us on Saturday last, and received his subscription to "the handsome and best paper in the county."

Biglum has been a subscriber to the JOURNAL since its first issue, and during all these long years has never failed for a whole year's subscription. With every other subscriber of the paper comes a complimentary copy of the paper.

We have often heard persons say that if an officer were to call upon them to assist him in making an arrest they would refuse to do so. By so doing they might get themselves into a predicament of some kind.

One of our friends, R. Biglum, esq., of Shirley township, dropped in to see us on Saturday last, and received his subscription to "the handsome and best paper in the county."

Biglum has been a subscriber to the JOURNAL since its first issue, and during all these long years has never failed for a whole year's subscription. With every other subscriber of the paper comes a complimentary copy of the paper.

We have often heard persons say that if an officer were to call upon them to assist him in making an arrest they would refuse to do so. By so doing they might get themselves into a predicament of some kind.

One of our friends, R. Biglum, esq., of Shirley township, dropped in to see us on Saturday last, and received his subscription to "the handsome and best paper in the county."

Biglum has been a subscriber to the JOURNAL since its first issue, and during all these long years has never failed for a whole year's subscription. With every other subscriber of the paper comes a complimentary copy of the paper.

We have often heard persons say that if an officer were to call upon them to assist him in making an arrest they would refuse to do so. By so doing they might get themselves into a predicament of some kind.

One of our friends, R. Biglum, esq., of Shirley township, dropped in to see us on Saturday last, and received his subscription to "the handsome and best paper in the county."

Biglum has been a subscriber to the JOURNAL since its first issue, and during all these long years has never failed for a whole year's subscription. With every other subscriber of the paper comes a complimentary copy of the paper.

We have often heard persons say that if an officer were to call upon them to assist him in making an arrest they would refuse to do so. By so doing they might get themselves into a predicament of some kind.

One of our friends, R. Biglum, esq., of Shirley township, dropped in to see us on Saturday last, and received his subscription to "the handsome and best paper in the county."

Biglum has been a subscriber to the JOURNAL since its first issue, and during all these long years has never failed for a whole year's subscription. With every other subscriber of the paper comes a complimentary copy of the paper.

We have often heard persons say that if an officer were to call upon them to assist him in making an arrest they would refuse to do so. By so doing they might get themselves into a predicament of some kind.

One of our friends, R. Biglum, esq., of Shirley township, dropped in to see us on Saturday last, and received his subscription to "the handsome and best paper in the county."

Biglum has been a subscriber to the JOURNAL since its first issue, and during all these long years has never failed for a whole year's subscription. With every other subscriber of the paper comes a complimentary copy of the paper.

We have often heard persons say that if an officer were to call upon them to assist him in making an arrest they would refuse to do so. By so doing they might get themselves into a predicament of some kind.

One of our friends, R. Biglum, esq., of Shirley township, dropped in to see us on Saturday last, and received his subscription to "the handsome and best paper in the county."

A HEARTFUL APPEAL.—From a letter in last week's Bedford Register, written by a correspondent of that paper who was present at the Printer's Picnic, at Cresson, on the 10th inst., we have received the following interesting and touching appeal, and for a careful perusal by every reader of the JOURNAL, particularly those of them who are in the habit of attending to the notices of the fair.

My dear friends, I have the honor to acknowledge the receipt of your kind and generous contribution to the fund for the relief of the poor and destitute of this county. I am sure that your noble and patriotic spirit will be gratified to know that your contribution has been received and will be put to the most judicious use.

I have the honor to acknowledge the receipt of your kind and generous contribution to the fund for the relief of the poor and destitute of this county. I am sure that your noble and patriotic spirit will be gratified to know that your contribution has been received and will be put to the most judicious use.

I have the honor to acknowledge the receipt of your kind and generous contribution to the fund for the relief of the poor and destitute of this county. I am sure that your noble and patriotic spirit will be gratified to know that your contribution has been received and will be put to the most judicious use.

I have the honor to acknowledge the receipt of your kind and generous contribution to the fund for the relief of the poor and destitute of this county. I am sure that your noble and patriotic spirit will be gratified to know that your contribution has been received and will be put to the most judicious use.

I have the honor to acknowledge the receipt of your kind and generous contribution to the fund for the relief of the poor and destitute of this county. I am sure that your noble and patriotic spirit will be gratified to know that your contribution has been received and will be put to the most judicious use.

I have the honor to acknowledge the receipt of your kind and generous contribution to the fund for the relief of the poor and destitute of this county. I am sure that your noble and patriotic spirit will be gratified to know that your contribution has been received and will be put to the most judicious use.

I have the honor to acknowledge the receipt of your kind and generous contribution to the fund for the relief of the poor and destitute of this county. I am sure that your noble and patriotic spirit will be gratified to know that your contribution has been received and will be put to the most judicious use.

I have the honor to acknowledge the receipt of your kind and generous contribution to the fund for the relief of the poor and destitute of this county. I am sure that your noble and patriotic spirit will be gratified to know that your contribution has been received and will be put to the most judicious use.

I have the honor to acknowledge the receipt of your kind and generous contribution to the fund for the relief of the poor and destitute of this county. I am sure that your noble and patriotic spirit will be gratified to know that your contribution has been received and will be put to the most judicious use.

I have the honor to acknowledge the receipt of your kind and generous contribution to the fund for the relief of the poor and destitute of this county. I am sure that your noble and patriotic spirit will be gratified to know that your contribution has been received and will be put to the most judicious use.

I have the honor to acknowledge the receipt of your kind and generous contribution to the fund for the relief of the poor and destitute of this county. I am sure that your noble and patriotic spirit will be gratified to know that your contribution has been received and will be put to the most judicious use.

I have the honor to acknowledge the receipt of your kind and generous contribution to the fund for the relief of the poor and destitute of this county. I am sure that your noble and patriotic spirit will be gratified to know that your contribution has been received and will be put to the most judicious use.

I have the honor to acknowledge the receipt of your kind and generous contribution to the fund for the relief of the poor and destitute of this county. I am sure that your noble and patriotic spirit will be gratified to know that your contribution has been received and will be put to the most judicious use.

I have the honor to acknowledge the receipt of your kind and generous contribution to the fund for the relief of the poor and destitute of this county. I am sure that your noble and patriotic spirit will be gratified to know that your contribution has been received and will be put to the most judicious use.

I have the honor to acknowledge the receipt of your kind and generous contribution to the fund for the relief of the poor and destitute of this county. I am sure that your noble and patriotic spirit will be gratified to know that your contribution has been received and will be put to the most judicious use.

I have the honor to acknowledge the receipt of your kind and generous contribution to the fund for the relief of the poor and dest