His many friends will be sorry to hear of closely: his death. He was aged about 60 years.

THE latest news concerning the fate of Prof. John Wise and his companion, is a dispatch from St. Louis, to the Pittsburgh in the woods, near the shore of Lake Michigan, and not far away from the spot where lives either on the lake or in the woods, and that the balloon drifted into the woods where the fragments were found.

On Friday last, at Sunbury, in the jail yard of the Northumberland county prison, Peter McManus was hanged for the murder of a man named Hesser. He makes only one of this murderous gang remain-O'Neil, for the same murder for which McManus suffered death, and who was to have been hanged at the same time and place. The day previous to his execution Gov. Hoyt issued a reprieve for one month, and unless the Board of Pardons take action in his case before that time he will pay the penalty of his crime by death.

THE Grant "boom" has reached Chicago, and the citizens of that city are making extensive preparations for his reception. The Palmer House will be his headquarters while there, and the Exposition Building has been secured from November 5th to the 10th inclusive, for holding a military reception and ball. It is intended to have the military spectacle the grandest witnessed since the war. The people of Galena, the home of the General. are wild with excitement at the near approach of the coming of their distinguished fellow townsman, and they propose to give him a welcome such as no man ever before received in this country. Several counties in Illinois, Iowa, and Missouri have determined to participate and the entire population, irrespective of party,

GEN. MERRITT, with his command, has reached the White River Agency, and upon his arrival a scene of desolation presented itself. Every building was in ashes, and the dead bodies of Agent Meeker and his assistants were found lying in different places, stripped of their clothing and stave driven into his mouth. The women and children were missing and nothing whatever found to indicate what disposi-tion had been made of them. If prisoners a fate worse than death will be theirs. It is the intention of the Indian Department Meeker and his assistants.

FIFTY people were killed on the Miof last week, by the carelessness of an employe running an engine on the main track on the supposition that the Lightning Express was forty minutes late. That employe should be sent to the penitentiary and the corporation made to pay damages for the loss of life and injury to the passengers.
