BECOND WEEK, 3D MONDAY 17TH DAY OF NOVEMBER

The Bunker Hill Yankee's Letter.

Gentlemen of the Tower Hall,

And there I saw it all in print,

And there I saw it all in print,
That I once made a call
And got a brand-new suit of clothes
At famous Tower Hall.
Your enstomers may laugh, perhaps,
(Without a doubt they will,)
That I mistook the Tower Hall,

And thought 'twas Bunker Hill.

But then, you know, the saying is That "those who win may laugh;' And in the trumps, I think, I hold The better hand by half.

Before I went to Tower Hall,
They called me "Ragged Mose;"
My hat, and boots, and prospects were
As ragged as my clothes.

But now, along the Konnebec,
You'll find, if you inquire.
That he who once was "Ragged Mose,"
Is Moses Jones, Esquire.
I'll tell you how it came about—
The luck that did befall—

The captain's daughter came on board,

And stood upon the deek.

Her eyes were like the stars of night,
Her cheeks the rosy morn;
She was a buxom Yankee girl,
That had been fed on corn.
To Captain Pinkham first she spoke,

Sweet as the jewsharp's tones,
And then her dark bewitching eyes
Were fixed on Moses Jones.
She cried, "Oh, father, can it be
That this is 'Ragged Mose?'

Why, he is for a suitor fit,

In such a suit of clothes.'

The long and short of it is this: I made of her my bride; I have a "Sally Ann" on shore,

And one upon the tide.

I also have my children's clothes-

And now, along the Kennebec, 'Tis known by one and all, That 'Squire Jones owes all his luck To Fanous Tower Hall.
