Perhaps it is not harsh to say that levi- ty, indifference, drifting disregard for the most important things, be they religious, moral, political or social, characterizes the majority of men. Here is a man "who takes no interest in politics." Others "see nothing" in the great moral questions of the day. What countless thousands repeat creeds and sustain churches with never an inquiry into the truth or fallacy of the doctrines they hear and practically uphold! There is much of the way-spirit in us—a listless, dazy sentiment such as the summer morning and the sleeping country bring over you as you stroll along and find it impossible to think. Wisdom uttereth her voice in the streets, but we are all passers by. We neglect a thous- and thoughts where we take in one for culture and the harvest. How many, as	and get the latest styles.
