Republican State Ticket.

FOR STATE TREASURER:

Hon. SAMUEL BUTLER,

OF CHESTER.

Republican County Ticket.

DIRECTOR OF THE POOR:

JACOB HAFFLY, of Penn township.

JURY COMMISSIONER:

RICHARD WILLS, of Warriorsmark.

REMEMBER, the election is on Tuesday next.

DON'T fail to give Richard Wills a boost for Jury Commissioner.

VOTE for Jacob Haffly and a judicious management of Alms House affairs.

GET out the vote. Don't let a Republican stay away from the polls on Tuesday next.

RAIN or shine go to the polls on Tuesday, and take your Republican neighbor with you.

THE funeral dirge of the Greenbackers is now being sung by their leaders. And it is very weak.

REPUBLICAN coons are already rattling their chains, as if they want out to feast on Democratic "chicks."

LET there be no uncertain sound from the Republicans of Huntingdon county on Tuesday next. Don't scratch.

CLEAR the way for 1880, and get out a good Republican vote on Tuesday next. Vote for Butler, Haffly and Wills.

MARK the prediction—the Republican journals of this State will be illustrated with coons, 'chucks," and cannons next week.

THE Greenbackers are already scattering. We say let them scatter now, for after Tuesday next there won't be many of them to scatter.

LET every Republican in the county vote for Butler, Haffly and Wills. Their election will be of advantage to the taxpayers of the State and county.

THE Board of Pardons have recommended a commutation of the death sentence in the case of John O'Neill, the Mollie Maguire who was to have been hanged on the 6th of November.

THE Rag Baby was printed in green ink up to the time of the Ohio and Iowa elections, since then, however, it has appeared in black, mourning for the death of its party in those States.

RAIN or shine, go to the polls on Tuesday and vote a solid Republican ticket. Our candidates are all good men and true, and should receive the support of every Republican in the county.

JACOB HAFFLY, our nominee for Director of the Poor, is as honest as the sun. His neighbors place thousands of dollars in his hands for collection without asking him one penny's worth of security. Vote for honest Jacob Haffly.

OUR old friend, Jacob Haffly, esq., of Marklesburg was in town one day last week, looking after voters enough to elect him Director of the Poor. The 'Squire is a good citizen and, we have no doubt, will make a good officer if elected.—Mt. Union Times.

THE people of Ashland, Schuylkill county, are highly elated over the fact that their town has been selected as the site for the building of the Miners' Hospital, a State institution. Our friend, Hon. J. Irvin Steel, of the Advocate, announces their good fortune in a two-column displayed article.

THE body of Geo. Burr, who accompanied Prof. Wise in his fatal ascension from St. Louis, on the last Sunday in September, has been found in the lake, near Miller's station, Iowa. The features were beyond recognition, but the monogram G. B. on the collar button, and the initial B. on the clothing lead to the identification of the deceased. Prof. Wise and the balloon are still missing.

THE Harrisburg Telegraph says Barr will poll at least a third behind the Democratic vote in Centre and Clearfield counties, and no sincere effort that the Democracy can now make to save him will aid his prospects. The reason for this is Barr's bad name—the general unfavorable character which the Barr family has in Clearfield county especially, where Senator Wallace and his friends for years defamed the Pittsburgh clique, which always opposed him. These curses, like young chickens, have now come home to roost.

HERE is a specimen of Zach Chandler's political oratory: "Take the largest ship that floats our waters, put on her mast heads the flags of every Southern State that rebelled, and over all surmount the stars and bars, and she may sail around the world and she will not get the salute of even a pop-gun. Take the smallest ship that floats upon our waters, put on her stern the words "United States Cutter," and there is not a man-of-war nor a fort of any nation on God's footstool which will not give her a national salute."

OUR neighbor of the Monitor is unfair when he charges that the Riot Claims bill of last winter was a Republican measure, simply because W. H. Kemble, a prominent Republican, labored for its passage. Because Daniel O. Barr, the Democratic candidate for State Treasurer, was alike prominent in trying to secure the passage of the bill we might say that it was a Democratic measure, but we would be uttering an untruth. Republicans and Democrats alike worked for the bill, and in no sense was it a political measure. Had it been a Republican measure, as charged by the Monitor, certainly the "cat would not have been let out of the meal tub" by such a prominent Republican as Charles S. Wolfe, of Union county, at whose instance the investigation was brought about.

EVERY Republican voter in the county should determine to cast his vote on Tuesday next. Because the candidates are few, and the offices to be filled unimportant, should not keep a single Republican from the polls. It is conceded that our candidate for State Treasurer will be elected, yet every vote added to his majority will be a rebuke to the party which has proven itself an enemy to the country. Our local candidates are men of strict integrity, and well qualified for the positions for which they have been named, and it is the duty of every Republican in the county to go to the polls on Tuesday next and cast a solid ballot for Butler, Haffly and Wills. Come, friends, roll up an old-fashioned majority for the whole ticket.

SOUND THE TOCSIN.

Republicans of Huntingdon county, we are on the eve of another political contest Before another issue of the JOURNAL reaches you, you will be called upon to discharge at the polls the duty which you owe to yourselves, to your party and to your country, to decide upon the merits of the opposing candidates for the offices at your disposal, and in view of the great and important issues involved in the battle of Tuesday next we feel that we would be remiss in our duty if we failed to urge upon every man the importance of being at his post. It will not do to say that the contest is an unimportant one, that there are but few county officers to elect, or that it is merely a question of men rather than of principle. We have two county offices to fill, second to none other in point of importance. The proper management of the affairs of our county Alms House is a subject which is of vital interest to every tax-payer in the county, while the judicious selection of jurors is one which largely effects the administration of justice and the preservation of the rights of every citizen, and the candidates presented for these positions on the Republican ticket are amply qualified for the positions and in every respect unexceptionable men, well worthy of your influence and support.

But the contest is not one of a partisan character only, no mere scramble for the spoils of office; it is fraught with issues of vital interest to the entire country. It is the great battle between right and wrong. The party which saved the country in the day of trial is arrayed against the party that sought to destroy it. The question now agitating the country on one hand is which shall have control of the destinies of the nation, the men whose loyalty, patriotism and valor saved the government, or those who fought for four years to destroy it; whether the party of law and order, of justice, humanity, and equal rights shall administer the affairs of the government, or whether it shall be remanded into the hands of the party of violence, intimidation and murder, which first sought to destroy the government, and now seeks to maintain its authority by the shot gun policy, and the inauguration of a reign of terror. Again, it is a contest of principle, of honesty against dishonesty. The men who are in favor of making good the pledges of the nation are arrayed against the repudiators; the advocates of honest money are arrayed against the friends of inflation as a financial policy. These are some of the issues which are to be met and decided on Tuesday next, and every vote cast against our State and county ticket is an endorsement of one or the other, or both of those parties. A full Republican vote in the county will insure the election of our ticket by a respectable majority, and restore our county to its old status in the party, while the difference of a few in each district may be the means of defeat. Our enemies, ever on the alert, are relying upon the indifference or supineness of the Republicans, and expect by this means to steal a march on us. Let us disappoint them. Let every man do his duty, by going to the polls and casting his vote for Butler, Haffly and Wills, and thus sealing his devotion to the true, honored principles of the Republican party, which is the natural friend of the workingman, the advocate of honest money, the payment of the national debt, and of free speech, free labor, and a free ballot. Do not fail to be at the polls, and see that your Republican neighbor is there also. Close up the lines, push on the column, and march forward to the music of the Union, and we will have glorious news for you next week.

HAS IT COME TO THIS?

A reporter of the Pittsburgh Leader has been interviewing Daniel O. Barr, the Democratic candidate for State Treasurer, and in its issue of October 13th the Leader publishes the following letter which Mr. Barr admitted he had sent to the Catholic clergy throughout the Commonwealth:

"DEMOCRATIC STATE COMMITTEE,
Cor. Fifth Avenue and Wood Street.
PITTSBURGH, Sept. 2, 1879.

Reverend and Dear Sir:

I desire a list of pew holders and adult male attendants of the congregation under your charge, with their Postoffice address. If you could have them copied and returned to me in the endorsed envelope, I would esteem it a very great favor. Very truly, your obedient servant.

DANIEL O'CONNELL BARR."

This is, says the West Chester Republican, the first known instance in the history of Pennsylvania politics where any candidate for public favor has directly appealed for his election to a particular church. It should, and we have no doubt will, meet with the condemnation of the people.

This proves beyond a doubt the allegation made against Barr, that his nomination had been secured through sectarian influence, and worse than that, if it were possible to be worse, he is now engaged in the disreputable business of seeking to gain his election in the same manner. When American politics have become so demoralized and the aim of free government subverted, so that unscrupulous men, ambitious to attain place and power, resort to the despicable means of appealing to such an influence to advance their ends, there is just cause for alarm. Mr. Barr will not profit by this cunningly devised plan, it will react upon its perpetrator with a storm of indignation such as he little dreams of. There are members of his party who will spurn such a piece of desperate business, and refuse to lend their support to any man who would stoop so low as to engage in a scheme contrary to the spirit and teachings of an untrammeled, uninfluenced, free, popular government of the people. Let politics have its own legitimate sphere, and he who would try the dangerous experiment of diverting it from its lawful channel, stamps him unworthy the trust of the people. The people will pass judgment upon this most pernicious departure from the old standard and only rightful method, and Daniel O'Connell Barr will be taught in thunder tones of reproof what a free and independent people think of his attempt to dishonor the political code and true aim of a Republican form of government.

HONEST AND TRUSTWORTHY.

A large number of persons, farmers and others, in the neighborhood of Marklesburg and Penn township, recently sold their property and removed to the West, and it is a fact worthy of note that they have left their notes and accounts, to the amount of thousand of dollars, for collection with Jacob Haffly, esq., our candidate for Poor Director, without any security further than his own word of honor and their own personal knowledge of the man as to honesty, integrity and business qualifications. We simply mention this in order that the public may be advised of the estimation in which our candidate is held by his neighbors and those who know him, as perhaps the best recommendation for honesty and capability is the testimony of those who are intimately acquainted with him. The man in whom his neighbors have such implicit reliance can safely be trusted with the financial interests of the county, and we are much mistaken if the people do not say so on Tuesday next.

A BENGAL tigress that escaped from a P. R. R. car while in transit to Philadelphia, was shot and killed at Torresdale, near Philadelphia, on Friday last. The animal was the property of Mr. Forepaugh and weighed 205 pounds.

THE libel suits pending in the Lancaster county Courts against the editor and the proprietor of the New Era, of Lancaster, brought by Messrs. Brown and Esbelmen, the first of which was on trial, were brought to an abrupt close, on Friday, by the defendants agreeing to make a full retraction of the charges brought against these gentlemen.

Go to the polls early, stay all day, and see that every Republican vote is deposited

FARMER BUTLER will be our next State Treasurer if Republicans but do their duty

VOTE the Republican ticket.
