> That "business boom" we have heard so much about has not yet reached Huntingdon, and we don't expect it will come soon, unless some of our monied men give the "boom" a push this way, by erecting manufacturing es tablishments of some kind in our midst. We have natural resources for almost any kind of works.

We are in receipt of quite a lengthy article Our farmers are busily engaged hauling corn, apples, potatoes, &c., &c., to market, the two former articles commanding 40 cents and the issue of the JOURAL on the 20th of August last, which, owing to the crowded con-dition of our columns, we are unable to publish this week, but will do so in our next

On Saturday the cigar makers and printers played their second game of base ball, in which the printers were worsted by a score of 47 to 32. And now the laugh is on the other side of the house, and they enjoy it hugely. But still they had to call in a few outsiders, not cigar makers, to help scoop in the "prints. The season is closed for 1879.
