GDON JOURNAL. MR. EDITOR :- Your issue of August 29th has a edly seen and heard in connection with the ofessedly seen and heard in connection with the a Juniata Valley Camp Meeting, on the grounds, don the return trains Sunday and Thursday enings of the meeting, that I wish to examine. As I was in charge of the religious services of a meeting, and incidentally of much pertaining its order, I at once determined, on sceing the indeed in question, to scrutinize so much of it as ates to the meeting and the grounds, for realist that need not now be given. This scrutiny is then deferred much longer than I at first indeed.

Surely the "public" cannot but be g'ad that there may be no room for a complaint of srepresenting Civis, I quote from him as follows: ricle in question, to scratinize so much as elates to the meeting and the grounds, for reasons that need not now be given. This scrutiny as been deferred much longer than I at first in-

Never, since, or even during the war, have I seen as noralized a crowd or as disgustingly shameful conduct on board the crowded return train on Sunday evening, fumes of robacco smoke and had whisky, the profuse h, the obscene jest and the vulgur song mingled in rid confusion till the scene was far more suggestive of idulight revel of fiends than of a crowd of intelligent moral citizens returning from a religious meeting, or was hooting and yelling, shouting and cursing, h language unfit for the ear of decency, till it seemed if the lower regions had for a time emptied its sarphus ulation to hold for the time being an infernal revel e upon earth.

I, disquisting and soul-sickening scenes were witness unkenness, lewdness, profanity, licentiousness meral rowdyism seemed to hold their mad revel, we ta hand to stay them, without distinction of addition, all on the same common drunken level, at far down beneath the level of the brute creation unken woman, under any circumstances, is a most liting and pitiable sight, and of all of Eve's frail dates is sregarded as the most sunken and debased, but she say it, here were young ladies, no, not young lad tyoung women, daughters of respectable citizen is town and elsewhere, whose names I am strom unted to, and may hereafter give, on the camp grounded to, and may hereafter give, on the camp gro

"One word more by way of comment. In conversation ith one of the ministers during the early stages of the ceeting, in reply to an inquiry as to how the meeting was rogressing, (spiritually of course), the answer was about tallows: Well now we are doing very well, we have ken in yesterday and to-day more money than on the presponding days last year, and by to-morrow I think e will do better still, so that upon the whole I think e emelting this year will be a decided success. The cimary object of the meeting, the preaching of the gospel ad the conversion of sinners was never once hinted at, and I could not help exclaiming, good heavens! has it must ot his! May not the answer to the inquiry be casurably formed in this, that the church in its anxiety meet the world half way has at last got down to its neasurally formed in this, that the church in its anxiety of meet the world half way has at last got down to it evel, that the overwhelming anxiety to make money has aken precedence of every other consideration to such a xtent that the primary object of the meetings has been ost sight of, and their influence for good has departed fao, would it not be well either to commence a radica hange in the manner of conducting these meetings of its peaker than the control of th Points," and the rapscity of "Wall Street?"

While your hand was in, might it not have been as well to have gone on a little farther, and to have related other astounding things as having taken place? Why did you not tell the "public" that on Sunday morning, while Dr. Hamlin was preaching, a riot eclipsing the New York riot of war-times took place just outside of the circle where Divine service was held, in which not less than 25,000 persons, men. women and children.

At 3 p. M. there was preaching in circles one, two and three by Messrs. Penepacker, Wilson and Guyer, and the attendance. I presume about 1,000 lett the grounds for home before evening service, and not many came by the train arriving at 7:20 p. M. Now if there were 3,000 at the "exercise," Sunday night there were 3,000 at the "exercise," Sunday night there were 3,000 at the "exercise," Sunday night there must have been, according to Civis , 30,000, who were not at them! A little fishy! O Civis! Civis! Now about "the overwhelming desire to make were not at them 1 A little fishy! O Civis! Civis! Now about "the overwhelming desire to make money." Can it be that I am so blind, that if such a desire exists, I have seen no indications of such a desire exists, I have seen no indications of it on the part of the campmeeting authorities during the three years I have been in charge of the meeting? Through the last two meetings, our people of Mt. Union have had charge of the restaurant and boarding house, &c., giving to the directors a moderate rent for them, that by giving their services free of charge, they might do something towards relieving their church building from an almost unmanageable debt. That noble people only have been financially interested in the receipts at the meeting, outside of the tentrents, very moderate, and a public co lection, also very moderate, to defray the traveling expenses, &c., of ministers who defray the traveling expenses, &c., of ministers who defray the traveling expenses, &c., of ministers who come from a distance to serve the cause. If money making was the object, would the regulation be made, and be so rigidly adhered to, by the directors, not to permit the sale of anything on the Sabbath, but what is absolutely necessary? Some years ago, the gentleman who had the boarding house and restaurant, had a quantity of watermelons on hand Saturday evening, of which he proposed to sell on Sunday as on other days. The directors finding that they had neglected to bind him not to do this, proposed to pay him for the

I make another proposition. If the authorities of the church, with which Civis has affinity, will put him on the witness stand, that I may cross-question him on his communication, I will give them $25 towards their church debt, and he can keep his visor down "the while."

Now I here say that with the exception of a little irregularity on the part of a few young men about eleven o'clock the last night of the meeting, I saw, or heard of nothing on the ground

Civis to blow the alarm trumpet; and the "parents and guardians of those girls," for whose welfare he fairly sacrifices himself, should take him to their homes and hearts.

Whether he will succeed in causing a "radical change in the manner of conducting these meetings," or cause those who have them in charge to "dispense with them entirely," remains to be seen.

Do we claim to offer advantages to buyers, as our arrangements for their production are well nigh perfect. The price in Black Cashmeres, begin at 40 cents and run upwards in 40 Qualities, to $2.00 per yard; and in French Black Merinoes (double twilled), with Lupin's Goods, at 45 cts., and run upwards to $2.00 per yard.

Besides the above, we have 29 Departments in Dry Goods alone, and goods strictly appertaining thereto, including all that can be needed for personal attire or household needs.

The six floors of our large building have been insufficient to contain our immense stock this season, and we have been forced to secure large additional storage room.

No such stock of Dry Goods can be found elsewhere, and every buyer within reach of Philadelphia should not fail to avail of the advantages we offer.
