Thanksgiving Proclamation.

A PROCLAMATION.—In devont recognition of the God of States who has ordered peace, health and abundant prosperity to the people, I. Henry M. Hoyt, Governor of Pennsylvania, do appoint Thursday, the 27th day of November next, in pursuance of the recommendation of the President of the United States, as a day upon which the good people of this common wealth, laying aside all secular occupations, may meet together in reverent thanksgiving for mercies received and prayer for a continuance of divine favor.

One of the parish sent one morn—
A farmer kind and able—
A nice fat turkey, raised on corn,
To grace the pastor's table.
The farmer's lad went with the fowl,

"Biame me it I ain't tired! Here's
A gobbler from my master!"
The pa tor said: "Thou should'st not thus
Present the fowl to me;
Come! take my chair, and for me ae',
And I will act for thee."
The preacher's chair received the boy,
The fowl the preacher took—
Went out with it, and then came in,
With pleasant will eand look:

With pleasant smile and look; And to his young pro tem, he said: "Dear Sir, my honored master Presents this turkey, and his best

Respects to you his pastor."

"Good!" said the boy; "your master is
A gentleman and scholar;
My thanks to him, and, for yourself
Here is a half a dollar!"

The pastor felt around his mouth

A most peculiar twitching,
And, to the sobbler holding fast,
He "bolted" for the kitchen.
He gave the turkey to the cook,
And came back in a minute,
Then took the youngster's hand and left
A half a dollar in it

A half a dollar in it.
The boy's good sense, the fifty cents,
And preacher's sense of duty
Made the affair quite sensible,
And rife with moral beauty.
The lad into his money box,
The fifty cents let fall, The lifty cents let fall,
He saved enough, and bought a suit
At the famous TOWER HALL.
The pastor saw him in his clothes,
So neatly, finely dressed,
And hurried off to TOWER HALL
His reason to income.

His money to invest.

Then all the parish followed suit,
And every man was suited!

How much that gobbler THE TOWER helped
Can never be computed.
