

With this number we commence the forty-fourth volume of the JOURNAL, and the twenty first year of our connection with it.

On Christmas day quite an excitement was created in Bangor, Maine, by an attempt to remove the arms and ammunition from the State Arsenal for transportation to Augusta.

Boston is again fire-swept. On Sunday night, about 11 o'clock, a fire broke out in the large paper warehouse of Rice, Kendall & Co., on Federal street, and before the flames could be got under control over a million and a half of property was destroyed.

At a meeting of the Republican State Central Committee, held at the Continental Hotel, Philadelphia, on Tuesday of this week, it was decided to issue a call for the meeting of the State Convention at Harrisburg, on the 4th day of February.

The British troops in Afghanistan are still busy with the insurgents. The Boers persist in agitating for the independence of Transvaal.

There are now 10,000 miners on a strike in the Mons district of Belgium. The subject of Canadian annexation to the United States seems to have taken a fresh turn.

Terrible gales are reported in Great Britain and Ireland. London had a thunder storm on Monday.

A provisory commercial treaty between Germany and Austria has been concluded, to last for a period of six months. The Chilean Legation at Buenos Ayres reports that President Prado, of Peru, has gone to Europe, and that Senor Pizarro is dictator.

The present session of the Spanish Cortes will close when the bill for the abolition of slavery in Cuba is disposed of. The new session will begin in March.

The clergy of Maine are so strongly opposed to the Garcelon plot to steal the Legislature of that State that they preach against it from the pulpit; and in the prayer meeting it is discussed and prayed over.

THE GARCELON PLOT. A DISPATCH from Pittsburgh indicates that Allegheny county will be able to effect a very satisfactory compromise on the railroad riot losses.

Manufacturing Notes. Work was commenced last week at the Delaware Rolling Mill, in Easton.

The Philadelphia Bridge Works are running on full time, with orders enough ahead to keep 180 men fully employed until the 1st of April.

Williams, Long & McDowell, of the Keystone Rolling Mill, have started their new rotary shear, which is the largest now in use in this country.
