

LOCAL AND PERSONAL.

Brief Mention—Home-made and Stolen.

February 20. New moon again. More ice is wanted. Stick to your flannels. A large vote was polled.

Did they've got you up? Visit the schools more and then. Court adjourned on Wednesday. Valentines were tramped last week. Maple sugar bollings have begun. The usual ducks Saturday night. The election was largely attended. Men should practice what they preach. Nine more days and February will end. Jacob's auction sales were well attended. Several real spring days since our last issue. Valentines are still going through the mails. The Parnell meeting at Altoona was a tame affair.

"That the door" has been a sad law this week. Next Monday will be observed as a legal holiday. Wild ducks are scarce; so says some of our sportsmen. The country roads are nearly buried deep with mud again. Republicans should feel ashamed of Tuesday's work. Every candidate, Tuesday, had a pocket full of "stickers."

Belleville sports are shooting to-day for two prize guans. Beware of your sharp friend. Cut him down he cuts you. Look out for the fanatics to-morrow forenoon, (Saturday). Streams are high. The melting snow is what's the matter. Next Sunday will be Missionary Day at the M. E. Sunday School. A finer day than Tuesday, for an election, could not be asked for. Within the next few weeks a number of the rural schools will close. Pomologists say there is nothing wrong with the fruit trees as yet. We noticed several cases of spring fever Tuesday, and yet so early. Why can't a curb-stone market be had in Huntingdon in the Spring? For a change, we had quite a heavy shower of rain, Wednesday afternoon. The afternoon prayer-meetings at the Methodist church are well attended. The public schools of the county are said to be in a flourishing condition. Our people turn out en masse to hear the W. B. preaching on a Sunday night. A number of new buildings will go up in Altoona during the coming season. The female population of our town gave Madame Bent's troupe a wide berth. Tramps, hungry and destitute, are still on the wing, begging from door to door. Our exchanges report plenty of ice stored away for next summer's consumption. The Republicans of Altoona elected their Mayor and City Treasurer on Tuesday. Exquisite taste is displayed in window decorating by many of our town ladies. The Republicans are ready water on both shoulders will generally spill some. A good deal of "teating and slashing" was done by the independent voter, Tuesday. The Republicans can blame the defeat of their ticket in this borough on themselves. Rev. Wm. Priden's daughter Mattie is lying very ill at her home on Millin street. To make sure of the ice, Harrisburgers gathered in a part of the crop on a Sunday. Too many little boys on the streets at night. Congressmen are you meeting them for—seven? The Centennial Fair has given up its prospect of a visit to the Hill Springs for the year. The spring campaign was short, but what it lacked in length was made up by being red-hot. For the week ending February 14th, 7,153 tons of coal were shipped over the H. & E. T. R. R. Mr. S. S. Goodman, assistant dispatcher at this station, has taken up his residence in our town. A general strike among the miners in the Clearfield coal regions is anticipated, this week. Children with red flannel around their necks are quite common nowadays. Take care of the nurseries. The Centennial flag pole, after standing nearly four years at Orbiscola, was taken down the other day. D. W. Proctor intends removing to Pittsburg this Spring, and engaging in the sale of school books. Everything is neat and clean. Ditto, at the county jail. There are nearly eighty licensed drinking places in Harrisburg, two-thirds of which are mere grog shops. B. Bruce Pettken, esq., of this place, occupied a position on the platform at the Parnell meeting, Altoona. The vendue business will not pan out this Spring, as there are only a few families leaving our county. Mr. Abraham Carothers, an aged citizen of Orbiscola, died on Saturday evening a week ago, after a long illness. "Tis said that Ed Murphy, son of Francis Murphy, will study law in the office of W. L. Rose, esq., of Johnstown. Services will be held in the First M. E. church every evening this week, excepting Wednesday and Saturday. That was a lively meeting at the colored people's church Sunday night. The singing could be heard squares off. A committee of Altoona gentlemen are in Washington pushing the claims of that city for a new post office building. Our friend S. G. Whittaker, has sold his residence on Millin street, and will soon set sail for his new home in Kansas. Huntingdon county has nine ex-sheriffs living. They all reside in the county, except one, and his home is at Altoona. The paper mill "boom" at Altoona has gone where a great many other "booms" have gone—"where the woodbine twined." Thus far over fifty persons have attended the First M. E. church since the opening of the revival, and the end is not yet. They say that the Murphy meetings in Altoona last week, "were much like lively Methodist revival occasions." Just so!

It is reported that the Cambria Iron Company will start a new furnace, rolling mill and foundry at Frankstown, Blair county.

The report that a man named Jacob Good-year, of Harrisburg, was killed in the Altoona railroad yard on Saturday, is not true.

Two judges—Judge Junkin, of Perry county, and Judge Orvis, of Centre county, attended one of our churches through on Sunday last.

Knobs of men could be seen on the street corners, Wednesday morning, giving their views of the political situation of the borough.

You can save your eggs—On an average you will find about four rotten ones in every dozen.

Mr. Michael Chang, a former resident of this place, died at Altoona, on Friday evening last, aged 72 years, 9 months and 10 days.

John Doster, with his Humpty Dumpty train, is swinging about this latitude again. He is to be seen in the hills of Huntingdon with his train.

The State Temperance Union, in their proposed new prohibitory law, contemplate an amendment to the Constitution authorizing women to vote.

An inch of snow Sunday morning, but it subsided in the night, and the general rays of the sun. It snowed in a full sort of a way during the whole day.

As Murphy thinks his services are needed in the city of Johnstown, and as he will locate permanently there, it is more than likely he will locate permanently there.

Repair the dilapidated sidewalks. As a matter of duty, we must occasionally remind persons of their wretched condition. We again say, repair the sidewalks.

That Green-Lemon will be ripe by the time the first of November comes around, and at the same time the Presidential apple will drop in the Republican basket.

The time for the meeting of the Central Pennsylvania Association, which will be held in Altoona in five days, let us make every square with the preacher.

Judge White, of Allegheny county, is presiding over the Bedford County Court this week. Judge Hall being absent in the South for the benefit of his health.

It was amusing to see the person who received a red letter Saturday, holding it up before his eyes to see what it contained, before tearing open the envelope.

And now the Pennsylvania railroad has inaugurated a new feature by having the daily morning report telegraphed to the principal stations, "early in the morning."

The revival at the West Huntingdon Chapel is still in successful operation, there being quite a number of converts, and a few seeking Christ during the past few nights.

The pulpit of the Altoona First M. E. Church, (Dr. Hamlin's), was occupied Sunday morning, by our townsman Dr. Stockton, who, they say, preached a good sermon.

Any person having a note in bank coming due on Monday next, had better attend to it on Saturday, for that day will be observed by banks as a legal holiday.

Some of our young ladies were quite desultory in looking the drop letters they got, before leaving for school, and one of our young ladies is her mother. Fact!

A lot of wood—200 cords we believe—will be chopped on Warren's Ridge this Spring.—This will give some of our wood choppers a chance to earn their bread and butter.

The 23d inst. is Washington's Birthday; consequently the day will be observed during the entire day, and religious services held morning and evening in all the churches.

Rev. P. S. Pirawski, formerly of the Saxton circuit of the M. E. Church, but now of the First M. E. Church, of this place, is to be married to Miss Bass, of York, on the 27th of January.

Our friend, Rev. M. K. Foster, is holding a revival of religion at his church, (Second Methodist) in Altoona, and during the past week a large number of conversions were made.

Major Jesse Wingate, of Hollidaysburg, has a veritable letter written by Robert Morris, the great financier during the Revolutionary War, to John Nicholson, under date of Jan. 4, 1783.

The loose brick in the pavement now annoys our town chaps when they step upon it by spurring mud on his shining blackened boots and stylish pantaloons. Naughty brick! how can you be in a flourishing condition.

Oh, how the "interfered" candidate loved the colored man and brother, Tuesday; especially about the time he was showing on his "sicker" but. The e. m. didn't "tally" with it.

The lecture room of the new Baptist church will not be dedicated next Sunday as per announcement of last Sunday, for the reason that the gentleman engaged for the occasion could not come.

An exchange says if your local paper happens to tread on your toes a little in performing its mission, don't get your back up and breathe, and think for a season, and see if you can't remember some of the favors and kindnesses shown you in this paper. You're right that it may not be long before you may want some favors again.

The Parnell meeting in Altoona, on Thursday night last week, for which preparation had been made for weeks, was a complete failure, in fact it may be dubbed a complete failure, as only about four hundred persons were present during the delivery of the address by the author General W. B. Parnell, by subscription. "Old Grog Huntingdon" could have done better than that.

On Friday evening last the School Directors of this borough elected Miss Sadie McCoy, of the town of Altoona, as the principal of the school to be held in the building which has been removed to school No. 7, a position made vacant a short time ago, by the resignation of Miss Belle Kelley. As there were no other candidates, the directors held three sessions before determining on a choice.

The Altoona Tribune's Hollidaysburg correspondent says of Senator Lemo, the Republican candidate for Auditor General, that he is a man who will carry Little Blair by a solid vote. At his home, people who see him every day will say his politics aside and will vote for him, and will vote for him not because he is a politician, but because he is John Lemo. And all this is from the pen of a rank Democrat.

Albert Stortzmann, the Hollidaysburg detective, who was arrested Saturday night, and taken to jail, but as it was paying nothing to him, he bounced the first freight train that came along and hid himself somewhere.—Why not take a better route, and get to Hollidaysburg, and inquire if him where "Jim" lived, as he was bankrupt, and would like to see him. For the time being, he is out of jail, but he has no other residence.

The Huntingdon Journal, which which there is none better or more deserving of a widely extended circulation, recently began its 44th year. As a party organ the Republicans of this county have not had a better paper, and as a gatherer of the current news of the day and the local happenings thereabouts it has no superior. May it continue to have, as Brother Fox has said, the largest circulation of any paper in this county.

Rev. J. A. Peters, one of the ablest men in the German Reformed Church ministry, and pastor of the Lancaster church, was united in marriage to Miss M. H. Harsh, at the residence of the bride's mother, near Water Street, this county, on Thursday last, in the presence of a large number of the friends of both parties. The contracting parties, our friend Rev. M. H. Sangre, of Alexandria, performed the ceremony, and he did it to the satisfaction of all concerned.

Our friends, the Presbyterian friends of Altoona, are to cancel the debt, $12,000, on their church property, and in about half an hour after the sermon was delivered at the usual hour, the church was sold, and provided for $1,500 of this amount they expect to realize from the sale of the old church property (Penn Street Hall). The balance, $10,500, was subscribed to by persons who were not present at the Sunday meeting, and the whole matter closed up by the end of the week.

A young man named Barr, of our town, on Tuesday evening, while under the influence of liquor, made an attempt to board one of the local freight trains while in motion, a short distance below town, when he was arrested by the police, and taken to jail. He was removed to his home. We understand he has been in the habit of jumping on moving trains every chance he could get, and has been arrested on several occasions. This time, he may give them a wide berth in the future.

We are informed that on Saturday evening, 28th inst., the Warrickmark Literary Society will hold a Court and try a case of breach of promise, which promises to prove an interesting affair. This society has the reputation of getting up some of the best style, and is as good, if not better, than any other literary association in the county. The members take a very active part, and perform their respective duties with apparent pleasure. The public are cordially invited to be present on this occasion.

On Sunday a week, a photographer named Sears, who for some weeks past has been stopping at Carothers' hotel in Orbiscola, was disturbed that quiet community from centre to circumference by attempting to make his exit from the hotel, and in so doing, he was arrested by the police, and taken to jail. It is reported that he was suffering greatly from some cause, when a physician was called, and gave him some of the best remedies which relieved him of his sufferings. A letter notifying him of the death of a sister is said to have been sent to him, and he was so affected by it, that he is not likely Sears will put himself in such a Sours-dion predicament again.

Barrett, the Hollidaysburg man, failed to tell the Altoona Tribune, Tuesday morning, that he had signed the "Rice and Fall of the Monticello," which was a sad disappointment to the people of that town. He will, however, but in an appearance about the middle of the month.

At the Parnell meeting in Altoona, Tuesday night last, a number of persons were taken to the island relief home. Up to this time, with the above included, the collections may be estimated at $1,000. In that case, the island relief home is a very profitable one, and would think it a grand success.

A mid-east of immense proportions, having taken up its morning place over Blacklick town, Indiana county, the other night made two brave attempts to get to this section, but being repulsed, got up and got at a 2:30 rate, one of whom came home minus his coat-tail.

We have just received, at the Journal Store, a large and varied assortment of the latest styles of Paperies, ranging in price from ten cents upwards. If you want something pretty and good, as far figures, in this city, get the Journal Store, that's the place to drop at.

Last week we said of the fact, but overlooked it that Monday Mr. William Douglas, of Penn township, while being taken across the river by a bridge, was killed in a skiff, had died suddenly. He was in the 78th year of his age, and was much respected by all who knew him.

The male child found on an Altoona porch by the Rev. Mr. Douglas, on Sunday morning, has been identified as the son of Mr. Wm. William Talbot, that lady having signified her desire to take charge and care for the little waif. The Hopkins family were left with the little stranger.

Hollidaysburg Standard: We presume it is a settled fact that Capt. Ross Foster will leave Hollidaysburg for good in the Spring, and will be succeeded in the office of the town clerk by one of his sons, who will make a fortune speedily in his new home and come back here in his old age to spend it.

Three hundred and fourteen sets of first-class books have just been ordered by the borough authorities, which, added to those previously purchased, gives the firemen eight hundred feet of good leather hose. The last lot is the best made, and they are wanted for five years.

A number of wealthy Philadelphians passed west on Thursday evening, bound for a pleasure trip to the mountains. They were accompanied by a former used by the Grand Duke Alexis, which has all the comforts of a hotel on trucks, and they seemed to have a jolly time. The party will be absent about two months.

And now the glass has been put in the windows of the lecture room of the Baptist church. It is of the stained variety, and is embellished with a very neat and artistic design. We think it is a very good one, and we think it is a very good one, and we think it is a very good one.

Wm. Slaughter, a colored lad of this town, was sentenced to the penitentiary for robbing a barber shop in Greensburg, at the late term of the Westmoreland County Court, and was sentenced to eight months' confinement. He is a native of this town, and was brought here by a merchant, who had taken him to his establishment, and he is now in the penitentiary.

Persons making promissory notes on the printed forms used at banks should care to get the latest one over the top of the date. A new one, printed for 1880, must be used or the whole date written before the printed figures on the note. The change of a figure on a note impairs the validity of it.

A large number of telegraph men are engaged in putting up the new lines for the American Union Telegraph Company on the Allegheny and Pennsylvania railroads, and as they expect to finish the work from Pittsburgh to Philadelphia by the first of March, we may expect, at that time, a pair of telegraph men in this State.

An exchange says if your local paper happens to tread on your toes a little in performing its mission, don't get your back up and breathe, and think for a season, and see if you can't remember some of the favors and kindnesses shown you in this paper. You're right that it may not be long before you may want some favors again.

The Parnell meeting in Altoona, on Thursday night last week, for which preparation had been made for weeks, was a complete failure, in fact it may be dubbed a complete failure, as only about four hundred persons were present during the delivery of the address by the author General W. B. Parnell, by subscription. "Old Grog Huntingdon" could have done better than that.

On Friday evening last the School Directors of this borough elected Miss Sadie McCoy, of the town of Altoona, as the principal of the school to be held in the building which has been removed to school No. 7, a position made vacant a short time ago, by the resignation of Miss Belle Kelley. As there were no other candidates, the directors held three sessions before determining on a choice.

The Altoona Tribune's Hollidaysburg correspondent says of Senator Lemo, the Republican candidate for Auditor General, that he is a man who will carry Little Blair by a solid vote. At his home, people who see him every day will say his politics aside and will vote for him, and will vote for him not because he is a politician, but because he is John Lemo. And all this is from the pen of a rank Democrat.

Albert Stortzmann, the Hollidaysburg detective, who was arrested Saturday night, and taken to jail, but as it was paying nothing to him, he bounced the first freight train that came along and hid himself somewhere.—Why not take a better route, and get to Hollidaysburg, and inquire if him where "Jim" lived, as he was bankrupt, and would like to see him. For the time being, he is out of jail, but he has no other residence.

The Huntingdon Journal, which which there is none better or more deserving of a widely extended circulation, recently began its 44th year. As a party organ the Republicans of this county have not had a better paper, and as a gatherer of the current news of the day and the local happenings thereabouts it has no superior. May it continue to have, as Brother Fox has said, the largest circulation of any paper in this county.

Rev. J. A. Peters, one of the ablest men in the German Reformed Church ministry, and pastor of the Lancaster church, was united in marriage to Miss M. H. Harsh, at the residence of the bride's mother, near Water Street, this county, on Thursday last, in the presence of a large number of the friends of both parties. The contracting parties, our friend Rev. M. H. Sangre, of Alexandria, performed the ceremony, and he did it to the satisfaction of all concerned.

Our friends, the Presbyterian friends of Altoona, are to cancel the debt, $12,000, on their church property, and in about half an hour after the sermon was delivered at the usual hour, the church was sold, and provided for $1,500 of this amount they expect to realize from the sale of the old church property (Penn Street Hall). The balance, $10,500, was subscribed to by persons who were not present at the Sunday meeting, and the whole matter closed up by the end of the week.

A young man named Barr, of our town, on Tuesday evening, while under the influence of liquor, made an attempt to board one of the local freight trains while in motion, a short distance below town, when he was arrested by the police, and taken to jail. He was removed to his home. We understand he has been in the habit of jumping on moving trains every chance he could get, and has been arrested on several occasions. This time, he may give them a wide berth in the future.

We are informed that on Saturday evening, 28th inst., the Warrickmark Literary Society will hold a Court and try a case of breach of promise, which promises to prove an interesting affair. This society has the reputation of getting up some of the best style, and is as good, if not better, than any other literary association in the county. The members take a very active part, and perform their respective duties with apparent pleasure. The public are cordially invited to be present on this occasion.

On Sunday a week, a photographer named Sears, who for some weeks past has been stopping at Carothers' hotel in Orbiscola, was disturbed that quiet community from centre to circumference by attempting to make his exit from the hotel, and in so doing, he was arrested by the police, and taken to jail. It is reported that he was suffering greatly from some cause, when a physician was called, and gave him some of the best remedies which relieved him of his sufferings. A letter notifying him of the death of a sister is said to have been sent to him, and he was so affected by it, that he is not likely Sears will put himself in such a Sours-dion predicament again.

THE COMING CENSUS.—The following are the names of the persons who are to be taken in regard to the taking of the census in June next, as furnished that paper by Hon. J. Simpson, Auditor, Supervisor for this district. The names are as follows: Altoona, 2,100; Hollidaysburg, 1,200; Greensburg, 1,000; Altoona, 2,100; Hollidaysburg, 1,200; Greensburg, 1,000.

The census of the population, wealth and industry of the United States will be taken during the week ending Saturday, June 1st, next. The census of 1870 was taken on the 1st day of July, and the results will be made public in the fall of 1871. The census of 1876 was taken on the 1st day of July, and the results will be made public in the fall of 1877. The census of 1880 will be taken on the 1st day of July, and the results will be made public in the fall of 1881.

That was a grand scene presented by Rev. Mr. Douglas, on Sunday morning, in company with the members of the church, by several electric rays of light, which were directed upon the members of the church, and the results were most interesting. The members of the church were most attentive, and the services were most profitable.

It will be of some satisfaction to business men to know that the census of 1880 will be taken on the 1st day of July, and the results will be made public in the fall of 1881. The census of 1870 was taken on the 1st day of July, and the results will be made public in the fall of 1871. The census of 1876 was taken on the 1st day of July, and the results will be made public in the fall of 1877.

The census of the population, wealth and industry of the United States will be taken during the week ending Saturday, June 1st, next. The census of 1870 was taken on the 1st day of July, and the results will be made public in the fall of 1871. The census of 1876 was taken on the 1st day of July, and the results will be made public in the fall of 1877. The census of 1880 will be taken on the 1st day of July, and the results will be made public in the fall of 1881.

The census of the population, wealth and industry of the United States will be taken during the week ending Saturday, June 1st, next. The census of 1870 was taken on the 1st day of July, and the results will be made public in the fall of 1871. The census of 1876 was taken on the 1st day of July, and the results will be made public in the fall of 1877. The census of 1880 will be taken on the 1st day of July, and the results will be made public in the fall of 1881.

The census of the population, wealth and industry of the United States will be taken during the week ending Saturday, June 1st, next. The census of 1870 was taken on the 1st day of July, and the results will be made public in the fall of 1871. The census of 1876 was taken on the 1st day of July, and the results will be made public in the fall of 1877. The census of 1880 will be taken on the 1st day of July, and the results will be made public in the fall of 1881.

The census of the population, wealth and industry of the United States will be taken during the week ending Saturday, June 1st, next. The census of 1870 was taken on the 1st day of July, and the results will be made public in the fall of 1871. The census of 1876 was taken on the 1st day of July, and the results will be made public in the fall of 1877. The census of 1880 will be taken on the 1st day of July, and the results will be made public in the fall of 1881.

The census of the population, wealth and industry of the United States will be taken during the week ending Saturday, June 1st, next. The census of 1870 was taken on the 1st day of July, and the results will be made public in the fall of 1871. The census of 1876 was taken on the 1st day of July, and the results will be made public in the fall of 1877. The census of 1880 will be taken on the 1st day of July, and the results will be made public in the fall of 1881.

The census of the population, wealth and industry of the United States will be taken during the week ending Saturday, June 1st, next. The census of 1870 was taken on the 1st day of July, and the results will be made public in the fall of 1871. The census of 1876 was taken on the 1st day of July, and the results will be made public in the fall of 1877. The census of 1880 will be taken on the 1st day of July, and the results will be made public in the fall of 1881.

The census of the population, wealth and industry of the United States will be taken during the week ending Saturday, June 1st, next. The census of 1870 was taken on the 1st day of July, and the results will be made public in the fall of 1871. The census of 1876 was taken on the 1st day of July, and the results will be made public in the fall of 1877. The census of 1880 will be taken on the 1st day of July, and the results will be made public in the fall of 1881.

The census of the population, wealth and industry of the United States will be taken during the week ending Saturday, June 1st, next. The census of 1870 was taken on the 1st day of July, and the results will be made public in the fall of 1871. The census of 1876 was taken on the 1st day of July, and the results will be made public in the fall of 1877. The census of 1880 will be taken on the 1st day of July, and the results will be made public in the fall of 1881.

The census of the population, wealth and industry of the United States will be taken during the week ending Saturday, June 1st, next. The census of 1870 was taken on the 1st day of July, and the results will be made public in the fall of 1871. The census of 1876 was taken on the 1st day of July, and the results will be made public in the fall of 1877. The census of 1880 will be taken on the 1st day of July, and the results will be made public in the fall of 1881.

The census of the population, wealth and industry of the United States will be taken during the week ending Saturday, June 1st, next. The census of 1870 was taken on the 1st day of July, and the results will be made public in the fall of 1871. The census of 1876 was taken on the 1st day of July, and the results will be made public in the fall of 1877. The census of 1880 will be taken on the 1st day of July, and the results will be made public in the fall of 1881.

The census of the population, wealth and industry of the United States will be taken during the week ending Saturday, June 1st, next. The census of 1870 was taken on the 1st day of July, and the results will be made public in the fall of 1871. The census of 1876 was taken on the 1st day of July, and the results will be made public in the fall of 1877. The census of 1880 will be taken on the 1st day of July, and the results will be made public in the fall of 1881.

The census of the population, wealth and industry of the United States will be taken during the week ending Saturday, June 1st, next. The census of 1870 was taken on the 1st day of July, and the results will be made public in the fall of 1871. The census of 1876 was taken on the 1st day of July, and the results will be made public in the fall of 1877. The census of 1880 will be taken on the 1st day of July, and the results will be made public in the fall of 1881.

The census of the population, wealth and industry of the United States will be taken during the week ending Saturday, June 1st, next. The census of 1870 was taken on the 1st day of July, and the results will be made public in the fall of 1871. The census of 1876 was taken on the 1st day of July, and the results will be made public in the fall of 1877. The census of 1880 will be taken on the 1st day of July, and the results will be made public in the fall of 1881.

The census of the population, wealth and industry of the United States will be taken during the week ending Saturday, June 1st, next. The census of 1870 was taken on the 1st day of July, and the results will be made public in the fall of 1871. The census of 1876 was taken on the 1st day of July, and the results will be made public in the fall of 1877. The census of 1880 will be taken on the 1st day of July, and the results will be made public in the fall of 1881.

The census of the population, wealth and industry of the United States will be taken during the week ending Saturday, June 1st, next. The census of 1870 was taken on the 1st day of July, and the results will be made public in the fall of 1871. The census of 1876 was taken on the 1st day of July, and the results will be made public in the fall of 1877. The census of 1880 will be taken on the 1st day of July, and the results will be made public in the fall of 1881.

The census of the population, wealth and industry of the United States will be taken during the week ending Saturday, June 1st, next. The census of 1870 was taken on the 1st day of July, and the results will be made public in the fall of 1871. The census of 1876 was taken on the 1st day of July, and the results will be made public in the fall of 1877. The census of 1880 will be taken on the 1st day of July, and the results will be made public in the fall of 1881.

The census of the population, wealth and industry of the United States will be taken during the week ending Saturday, June 1st, next. The census of 1870 was taken on the 1st day of July, and the results will be made public in the fall of 1871. The census of 1876 was taken on the 1st day of July, and the results will be made public in the fall of 1877. The census of 1880 will be taken on the 1st day of July, and the results will be made public in the fall of 1881.

The census of the population, wealth and industry of the United States will be taken during the week ending Saturday, June 1st, next. The census of 1870 was taken on the 1st day of July, and the results will be made public in the fall of 1871. The census of 1876 was taken on the 1st day of July, and the results will be made public in the fall of 1877. The census of 1880 will be taken on the 1st day of July, and the results will be made public in the fall of 1881.

The census of the population, wealth and industry of the United States will be taken during the week ending Saturday, June 1st, next. The census of 1870 was taken on the 1st day of July, and the results will be made public in the fall of 1871. The census of 1876 was taken on the 1st day of July, and the results will be made public in the fall of 1877. The census of 1880 will be taken on the 1st day of July, and the results will be made public in the fall of 1881.

The census of the population, wealth and industry of the United States will be taken during the week ending Saturday, June 1st, next. The census of 1870 was taken on the 1st day of July, and the results will be made public in the fall of 1871. The census of 1876 was taken on the 1st day of July, and the results will be made public in the fall of 1877. The census of 1880 will be taken on the 1st day of July, and the results will be made public in the fall of 1881.

The census of the population, wealth and industry of the United States will be taken during the week ending Saturday, June 1st, next. The census of 1870 was taken on the 1st day of July, and the results will be made public in the fall of 1871. The census of 1876 was taken on the 1st day of July, and the results will be made public in the fall of 1877. The census of 1880 will be taken on the 1st day of July, and the results will be made public in the fall of 1881.

The census of the population, wealth and industry of the United States will be taken during the week ending Saturday, June 1st, next. The census of 1870 was taken on the 1st day of July, and the results will be made public in the fall of 1871. The census of 1876 was taken on the 1st day of July, and the results will be made public in the fall of 1877. The census of 1880 will be taken on the 1st day of July, and the results will be made public in the fall of 1881.

The census of the population, wealth and industry of the United States will be taken during the week ending Saturday, June 1st, next. The census of 1870 was taken on the 1st day of July, and the results will be made public in the fall of 1871. The census of 1876 was taken on the 1st day of July, and the results will be made public in the fall of 1877. The census of 1880 will be taken on the 1st day of July, and the results will be made public in the fall of 1881.

The census of the population, wealth and industry of the United States will be taken during the week ending Saturday, June 1st, next. The census of 1870 was taken on the 1st day of July, and the results will be made public in the fall of 1871. The census of 1876 was taken on the 1st day of July, and the results will be made public in the fall of 1877. The census of 1880 will be taken on the 1st day of July, and the results will be made public in the fall of 1881.