

Around the Fireside.

The happiest men who live are those who cultivate the soil.

Cows for Small Farms.
The better we become acquainted with the merits of the Jersey cows, say the Rural World, the more we are satisfied that she is the animal for small farmers—those who keep from one to ten cows.

Cleaning Coat Collars, Etc.
(1.) The best material for cleaning coat collars and grease spots of all kinds is pure benzine. The article is sold at the principal drug stores in cities. That used by painters is not pure enough, and has a very unpleasant odor, which the pure article has not, and the little which it has soon disappears.

The Power of Song.
Incidents respecting the origin and power of some of the hymns in the New Methodist Hymnals are furnished by a correspondent of the Northwestern Christian Advocate. We give a few of the most interesting of these incidents:

Dry Cows.
It is a common practice among some dairymen to give their cows, while dry, but scanty living. When a cow ceases to give milk or is dried up any food is considered good enough for her.

Un drained clay lands are more subject to thistles than any lands we have. Sometimes a single cutting will kill them—when the stalk is hollow and a heavy rain follows, filling them with water, which causes them to decay at the root.

Charcoal for Fowls—An old turkey raiser gives the following experiment: Four turkeys were fed on meal, boiled potatoes and oats.

EVERY egg which is worth saving for hatching should be marked with the date it was laid and put away in a cool place, and turned over every day or two, if kept a little time before sitting.

APPLE CUSTARD PIE—Three cupfuls stewed apples, nearly a cupful of sugar; six eggs, one quart of milk. Sweeten the apples well and let cool, mix the eggs with the apples, season with nutmeg, stirring in the milk slowly. One crust.

Coming.
"At seven, or at midnight, or at the cock-crowing or in the morning."
It may be in the evening,
When the work of the day is done,
And you have time to sit in the twilight
And watch the sinking sun,
While the bright day dies slowly
Over the sea,
And the hour grows quiet and holy
Passing along the street,
While you hear the village children
Passing along the street,
Among those thronging footsteps
May come the sound of my feet;
Therefore I tell you: Watch
By the light of the evening star,
When the room is growing dusky
As the clouds afar;
Let the door be on the latch
In your home,
For it may be through the glooming
I will come.

It may be when the midnight
Is heavy upon the land,
And the black waves lying dumbly
Along the sand;
When the moonlight draws close,
And the lights are out in the house,
When the fire burns low and red,
And the watch is ticking loudly
Beside the bed;
Though your sleep, tired out, on your couch,
Still your heart must wake and watch
In the dark room,
For it may be at midnight
I will come.

It may be in the morning
When the sun is bright and strong,
And the dew is glittering sharply
Over the little lawn;
When the waves are laughing loudly
Along the shore;
And the birds are singing sweetly
About the door;
With the long day's work before you,
And the neighbors come in to talk a little
Of all that must be done;
But remember that I may be the next
To come in at the door,
To call you from all your busy work,
In your room,
And it may be in the morning
I will come.

Pilgrimages to Buffalo, N. Y.
are made by thousands of invalids annually to consult with the medical and surgical staff of the World's Dispensary and Invalids' Hotel, the largest private sanitarium in the world. All chronic diseases are treated by scientific methods. The practice is divided among nine eminent specialists. Among the most popular domestic medicines in the land are those manufactured by this Association, among which are Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery, greatest of alteratives or blood cleansers, and Dr. Pierce's Pellets (little pills), which have largely superseded the old-fashioned coarse pills. Compound Extract of Smart-Weed is deservedly popular as a remedy for diarrhoea, dysentery, flux and kindred diseases; also as a pain killer and remedy for colic. Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription is the great remedy for female weakness and associated derangements. Dr. Sage's (Cattarrh) Remedy is the "Old Reliable." Invalids' Guide-Book—10 cents, post-paid. Address World's Dispensary Medical Association, Buffalo, N. Y., or London, England.
