owes us" And is it p saide that you conduct generally conducted and A. Control of the Stanz and billingsgate as an vention of the Democracy of Pennsylva its answer to my letter? You had traduced and abused me in your own new-paper for ust 1873. On a substitution from Dr. met with financial embarrassment, do you wour name was reported to the Convention a scene was enacted such as never before ceursed in any Democratic Convention this State. It had always been the usage of the political conventions to endorse the eport of the committee to name perma ent officers, and if there was to be a con est it was always fought out before the committee met, or during its deliberations. Not so, however, in your case, as the very nention of your name as President, raise ad Mr. Glatz, of York, interrupted the eading of the report. (I quote from the printed proceedings): 'And moved a non concurrence of the convention in the report of the committee so far as read giving as his feason that Speer had, as a member of Congress, taken back pay." You, in vain, attempted to stem the torrent, and said you hoped you would not be stabbed in the house of your friends. I quote again from the printed proceedings: "Messrs · C W. Carrigan and J. Lawrence Getz spoke in behalf of Mr Speer. The lat ter gentleman upheld the back-pay bill tising and paper books on presentation, and and was hissed from the floor. sense of the Convention was almost unanimously against Mr. Speer being the permanent Chairman. In a short speech he withdrew his name and moved that the name of Dr. Andrew Nebinger he substituted. This was carried and Dr Nebinger took the chair." The conven tion then proceeded to nominate James R Ludlow for Judge of the Supreme Court. and F M. Hutchison for State Treasurer and then the Committee on Resolutions re ported a series of resolutions, and amongst hem the following:

Resolved, That we condemn without reserve the net of Congress granting additional salaries and back-pay grabs as unjust and unjustifiable, and demand its immediate and unconditional repeal, demand its immediate and unconditional repeal, and we denounce every member of Congress, whether Republican or Democrat, who supported the law, or received the money procured thereby, and we especially denounce the conduct of President Grant in using the influence of his high position for its passage, and whose official signature made it a law. That is good Democratic doctrine, and I suppose you will not object to it go ing into Democratic households. It may de good. The printed report reads, "the reso lutions were adopted unanimously." You were a member of that Convention and must have voted for the resolution and your own condemnation, otherwise the re port could not have been adopted unani mously. This is the record you have made for yourself. When I said, therefore, that the $5,000 was "ill gotten gain," I was only repeating what the assembled repre sentatives of the Democracy of Pennsyl vania, and yourself of the number, had unanimously resolved. I will not now or ever call your attention to what the public press at the time said of your conduct unless by your conduct in the future you shall compel me to do so. I have endeav ored to prove what I said in my former letter, that you are sordid, selfish and un grateful, and in conclusion will warn you that when, in imitation of your illustrious prototype, you erect a gallows to hang Mordecai, have a care you are not sus pended from it yourself

SIMPLICITY SIMPLIFIED! Improvements September, 1878.

Notwithstanding the VICTOR has long been the peer of any Sewing Machine in the market—a fact supported by a host of volunteer witnesses—we now confidently claim for it greater simplicity, a wonderful reduction of friction and a rare combination of desirable qualities. Its shuttle is a beautiful specimen of mechanism, and takes rank with the highest achievements of inventive genius. Note.—We do not lease or consign Machines, therefore, have no old ones to patch up and re-varnish for our customers.

We Sell New Machines Every Time. Send for Illustrated Circular and prices. Liberal terms to the trade. Don't buy
