

BLAINE OF MAINE.

On the first page of to-day's JOURNAL we publish a correct likeness and a brief but truthful biographical sketch of Hon. James G. Blaine, the people's choice for President, and ask for it a careful reading. There is no man who has a warmer place in the affections of the American people to-day than Senator Blaine, and the Republican party will be blind to its best interests if it fails to select him as its standard bearer in the coming contest.

WHEN Kemble, Salter, Rumberger and Crawford pleaded guilty, and Petroff was convicted of corrupt solicitation in connection with the Pittsburgh riot bill, the Harrisburg Telegraph says that it was announced on what was deemed good authority that the remaining cases against E. J. McCune, C. Long, G. F. Smith, D. C. Clarke, A. W. Leisinger and Dr. Shoemaker had been abandoned. Some of the counsel for the Commonwealth had even made statements to that effect, and it was generally understood that with the sentence of those convicted would end the celebrated cases. Such, however, is not the fact. They are to be tried, and the trials are set down to begin on April 29th, three days after the others are sentenced. District Attorney Hollinger intimated some time ago that he knew nothing of any arrangement by which the Commonwealth was to let up on the remaining parties accused of rioting, and Representative Wolfe informed a Telegraph reporter on Monday, March 29, that he was not a party to any such agreement and would insist on the prosecution as a member of the Legislative Prosecuting Committee.

AT the last session of the Legislature a committee, consisting of the Governor, State Treasurer, three Senators, and five Representatives, was appointed to prepare a new general revenue bill. We see it stated, that the members of this committee will meet in the Executive Chamber, in Harrisburg, on Tuesday the 18th day of May next, to discharge the duties of their appointment, and all persons familiar with the subject, or who have any suggestions to make, are invited to be present.

FRANK B. GOWEN one of Vaux's fast friends, has been elected a delegate to the Democratic State convention from Philadelphia. Tally one for Tilden.

NEWSPAPERIAL.—The Lancaster Examiner was fifty years old on the 15th of the present month, but instead of showing signs of old age it seems to grow more vigorous as time passes. The Examiner is one of the ablest papers in the State, and its labor for the success of Republican principles we are glad to know is fully appreciated by the members of the party in that stronghold of Republicanism. Its present editor, Maj. John A. Hiestand, has been connected with it for the last twenty-two years, and for the last four years has been sole proprietor. We wish the Examiner and its fearless editor long life and prosperity.

The Harrisburg Register came to us last week in an entire new dress and enlarged to mammoth proportions, having increased its size from twenty-four columns to thirty-six. The paper does not look as neat and bright as it should look in its new clothes, but we suppose this is owing to the hurry and labor incident to a change of type and the remodeling of the form of the paper, and that when the printers get the hang of the new order of things it will come out sparkling like a new "dollar of the daddies." Our old friend Over has a right to feel proud over the improvement he has made in the Register since it came into his hands, about twelve years ago. The paper is now an honor to the city, and the Republicans of Blair should give it an increased support. We congratulate our old friend on this evidence of his prosperity, and now that he has built up a first class printing establishment we hope he may rake in the shekels in such quantities that in a few years at most he can retire from the thankless post of an editor with a competency sufficient to enable him to live at ease during the declining years of his life.

GIVEN UP BY DOCTORS.—"Is it possible that Mr. Godfrey is up and at work, and cured by so simple a remedy?" "I assure you it is true that he is entirely cured, and with nothing but Hop Bitters; and only ten days ago his doctors gave him up and said he must die." "Well—day! That is remarkable! I will go this day and get some for my poor George—I know hops are good." [apr.23-21.]
