

FOR JUDGE OF THE SUPREME COURT: HON. HENRY GREEN, OF EASTON.

FOR AUDITOR-GENERAL: HON. JOHN A. LEMON, OF BLAIR.

Republican National Convention.

A National Convention of the Republican party met at Chicago on Wednesday, the second day of June...

ARE REPUBLICANS to be GAGGED?

Since our last issue we are in receipt of over a dozen letters from our friends in different sections of the county...

The convention nominated Hon. Geo. A. Jenks, of Jefferson county, for Supreme Judge, and Col. Robert P. Decker, of Philadelphia, was named as the man whom Col. Lemon will distance in the race for the Auditor Generalship.

THE President, on Tuesday, vetoed the Deficiency Appropriation bill on account of its unconstitutionality and the numerous riders it contained, which, he says, would interfere with his powers.

GEN. COFFROTH has his heart set on being a delegate to the Democratic National Convention, but his fondest hopes were knocked into a cocked hat, and the place he so much coveted was given to W. J. Baer, of his own county.

THE gang of Democratic thieves and bruisers, from Philadelphia, who committed all kinds of misdemeanors in Harrisburg during the holding of the Democratic State Convention in that city, have all been released on bail.

WM. L. FOX, the largest oil operator in the State, died in the cars, near Clarion on Thursday last, when on his way to court as a witness against the man Claney who shot our friend, W. W. Gaither a short time since. Mr. Fox was 25 years of age, and leaves an estate worth $3,000,000.

WE are in receipt of the Dayton daily Journal, giving an account of the destruction, by fire, of Memorial Hall, at the Soldiers Home, near that city, on Sunday morning last. The building was an elegant one, and was only finished in September last, at a cost of $35,000. The cause of the fire is unknown.

ONE day during the recent session of the Convention of School Superintendents, at Harrisburg, a reporter waited upon the members of that body, individually, and solicited an expression of their choice for President, with the following result: Blaine, 38; Edmunds, 7; Grant, 5; Sherman, 1; Washburne, 1; Hancock, 10; Seymour, 3; Tilden, 3; Bayard, 2; "Straws show," &c.

THE retirement of Postmaster General Key from the Cabinet will receive the hearty approval of the Republican party. The place should never have been tendered him. The Philadelphia Times says of him, "He was a Confederate Brigadier in a small way; was a Democratic United States Senator in a small way for a brief accidental term; was the positive advocate of the legality of Tilden's election over Hayes in the Senate and carried it so far as to brand the Hayes title as a fraud; and was the accidental pickle next to the wind when Hayes was laboring under the conciliation dream and thus found himself in the Cabinet; was never Postmaster General beyond the use of his name, and now that the evening shadows are lengthening about the Hayes administration he very naturally seeks a life office in which to retire. As there is no Republican party in Tennessee of any account to take care of Judge Key; as the Republicans of that State wouldn't take care of him if they had the power, and as the Democrats would spew him out for being neither hot nor cold, he had to look to the President to provide for him, and he has been quartered in a District Judgeship for life. He will make an amiable, easy-going, honest Judge, as far as he knows, and that is considerable to say about a public official these days. Assistant Postmaster General Tyler, having been the real Cabinet officer all the time, will now be given the full honor with the responsibility, and the duty of carrying Indians for the Republicans will be specially assigned to his portfolio. He will do his level best to perform his task successfully, and more can't be asked of any man."

THE DEMOCRATIC CONVENTION

Pursuant to public notice the Democratic State Convention met at Harrisburg on Wednesday of last week, and was largely attended. The delegates were, in most cases, gentlemen of intelligence and character, but the gang of rascals taken there from Philadelphia by the Randall wing of the party, were a disgrace to any organization with which they are permitted to associate. Even the Patriot, the central organ of the party, denounced them in the bitterest terms. When the delegates arrived at Harrisburg there was bad blood exhibited between the rival factions. So determined were the Tilden-Randall followers to get control of the convention, that the night previous they took possession of the Opera House, where the convention was held, and for a time refused to admit Wallace and his men, even defying Mayor Patterson and his extra police force when they made an effort to dislodge them. The followers of Wallace were refused tickets of admission, and during the forenoon things about the building presented an ugly appearance, for the room was packed with roughs and thieves who had accompanied Randall from Philadelphia, all of whom carried their revolvers and blisses and were anxious for an opportunity to use them. But the storm was averted, and about noon the leaders of the cause, Wallace and Randall, walked to a prominent place in the hall, where they could be seen by the crowd, and after a brief conference they shook hands, buried the hatchet, and everything looked lovely. This lovefest was greeted with cheers and Mr. Cassidy announced that harmony had been established, when speeches were made by Randall, Wallace, Vaux, Stenger, Spear, and many other lesser lights.

A permanent organization was effected by electing R. E. Monegan, of West Chester, permanent chairman, with the usual number of Vice Presidents and Secretaries. On taking the chair the President made the usual regulation speech, returning "thanks for the honor conferred," &c., and closing by predicting the success of the Cincinnati nominees. This was first blood for Tilden. An effort was made to adopt the unit rule, which, after a bitter debate, was defeated.

The convention nominated Hon. Geo. A. Jenks, of Jefferson county, for Supreme Judge, and Col. Robert P. Decker, of Philadelphia, was named as the man whom Col. Lemon will distance in the race for the Auditor Generalship. Our townsman, Hon. R. Milton Spear, was elected a delegate at-large to the Cincinnati convention, and Col. John S. Miller was chosen as a Presidential Elector for this (XVIIIth) district. In another column we publish the platform adopted.

The Harrisburg Telegraph, in a short article on the result of the convention, says that the proceedings, when bold and skinned of their seam, reveals a number of facts not very creditable to Senator Wallace, while from the same connection we gather that Speaker Randall has gained a substantial triumph over his old antagonist. The right, according to the ancient usages of the Democratic party, was with Wallace. He went into convention paroled in the right, in which a brave man never yields—but Senator Wallace, adhering manfully to the right, began at once to compromise. This instantly revealed the weakness of the man. It uncovered Senator Wallace's defects in leadership, which Randall took advantage with the consummate skill of an adroit manager, and carried off the honors of the day, leaving his antagonist not only hors d' combat, but actually in the ditch. This came from Mr. Wallace agreeing to a compromise, the effect of which will be the admission of a part of the Vaux delegation as delegates. The Vaux men have no more right to seats in this convention than the strongest Republican in Pennsylvania. The McGowan delegation came to this convention with a right to their seats which was impregnable, yet Mr. Wallace agrees to a compromise which rejects half of the McGowanites and accepts half the Vauxites. In this compromise he compromised away right. He could have afforded in a struggle for the right of regular representation, to be defeated by the fraud, corruption and intimidation in which the Randall men owe whatever success they have gained. But we cannot afford to hold up his head longer as a trusted leader of his party, he having compromised away a right, an adherence to which makes a party a party, and a departure from which makes of a party an unruly mob. When Senator Wallace did this he ruined himself by leaving the impression on his followers that he is unfit to lead. This impression can never be effaced. It was made in a moment of extreme peril, when a leader's greatness ought to show itself. But Wallace failed in the emergency, and his disaster is now his eternal ruin. What a fall is here! The hearts of the anti-Tilden men will ache with pain.

The Harrisburg Patriot was in an angry mood on Wednesday last, and when in that condition it charges boldly that an agent of Tilden's was in that city with a "bar!" and offered the sum of three thousand dollars to a delegate from a rural district if he would substitute a certain provision in his stead as a member of the convention. The Patriot says that it has the names of the persons to this transaction, and "will not hesitate to give them if it should be necessary." Blurt them out, Mr. Patriot, or forever hold your peace about corruption in Republican Conventions.

For months the bill for the distribution of the money allowed by the Geneva Award has been debated in the United States Senate, but without any prospect of arriving at any satisfactory understanding. The ship-owners, who lost heavily by the depredations of the Rebel privateers fitted out in English ports, say that it belongs to them, while the insurance companies contend for a share. For the present it has been indefinitely postponed.

THE San-Diego mayor of San Francisco, Kallough, will have to vacate a position he has disgraced since his election. The Citizens' Committee has taken the initiative steps looking to his impeachment.

THE BLAINE 'BOOM' BOOMING.

The Philadelphia Inquirer, on Tuesday, published the announcement that the delegation to the Chicago Convention from that city has given notice that it did not intend to adhere to the unit rule, and will vote nearly solidly against Grant. Senator Cameron is to be notified of this intention. They are for Blaine.

A dispatch to the Chicago Lake Ocean under date of May 3, says that the DeKalb County Republican Convention to day, after a stormy session, elected nine delegates to the State Convention, who were instructed to vote as a unit for Blaine for President. A dispatch to the same journal from Paris, Ill., says that the DeKalb County Republican Convention to day elected four delegates to the State Convention.

The Mercer County Republican Convention the same day, elected six delegates to the State Convention instructed for Blaine. The council for the prisoners argued that the sentence was not warranted by the law, and the Board taking the same view, unanimously recommended their pardon, as follows:

To His Excellency, Henry M. Reel, Governor of Pennsylvania: The Board of Pardoners would recommend that so much of the sentence of the Court of Quarter Sessions of Dauphin county, imposing imprisonment by separate and solitary confinement at hard labor in the Eastern Penitentiary on William H. H. Crane, decided such as F. Rumerger, Emil J. Petroff and Charles B. Salter, by the crime of corrupt solicitation of members of the Legislature, be remitted, and that the remainder thereof, imposing payment of fine and costs and disqualifications to hold any office public or private, under the Commonwealth, be executed, for the following reasons: The act of 1874 defining the crime of corrupt solicitation provided for the punishment of imprisonment, but it was held in the courts by the Constitution of this State to be unconstitutional in so far as it imposed conditions not contained in the original statute. The act of 1874 is therefore void, and the prisoners shall be set at liberty, and that the prisoners shall be fed and clothed as provided by law. In numerous analogous cases the courts have held that such a sentence is void and that the prisoners shall be set at liberty, and that the sentence is void and that the prisoners shall be set at liberty, and that the sentence is void and that the prisoners shall be set at liberty.

The Board of Pardoners had a special session in Harrisburg, on Friday last, for the purpose of hearing argument for and against the pardon of the legislative bribery. The council for the prisoners argued that the sentence was not warranted by the law, and the Board taking the same view, unanimously recommended their pardon, as follows:

To His Excellency, Henry M. Reel, Governor of Pennsylvania: The Board of Pardoners would recommend that so much of the sentence of the Court of Quarter Sessions of Dauphin county, imposing imprisonment by separate and solitary confinement at hard labor in the Eastern Penitentiary on William H. Arkansas is a Democratic State by 20,000 majority, and she instructs her delegates for Grant, while California is a Republican State and instructs her delegation for Blaine. Is it fair that Democratic States should name a candidate for Republican States to elect?

Somerset county had a large and enthusiastic meeting, on Tuesday last week, to protest against the unit rule, which was addressed by such stalwart Republicans as Gen. Kootz, Col. Edie, and others—Three conferees were appointed to meet similar conferees from the other counties of the district, to choose two delegates to Chicago who will vote the sentiment of the people of the district, which is enthusiastically for Blaine.

Maj. Pomeroy, of the Chambersburg Repository, who is a pronounced Grant man, says this: "No one can accuse us of being an enthusiastic admirer of Blaine, but if we do name a delegate from this district to Chicago, we would give him a hearty support, because the district demands it. Mr. Blaine ought to have this district, and he has developed so much general strength, that it might be well to consider whether it would not be better to nominate him by acclamation."

"BIRDS OF A FEATHER." A couple of weeks ago we made the prediction that the meeting of the Democratic State Convention would take to Harrisburg the most disorderly body of Democrats that had assembled in this State since those under McCausland applied the torch to Chambersburg, and, according to the papers of that city, Democratic, as well as Republican papers, our prediction was more than verified. Philadelphia contributed largely to the rabble, as is evidenced by the Telegraph when it says that the worst gang of cut-throats, thieves and murderers that ever infested Harrisburg, attempted to "run the city" to use their language, accompanied the Philadelphia delegates to the Democratic convention. It comprised bruisers with half a nose, an eye out and part of an ear; roughs with fingers stiff in previous fights; prize fighters, shoulder hitters, women insulters, pickpockets and highwaymen, and was the most frightful filth from the Philadelphia slums that has ever been emptied into Harrisburg. Drunken, besotted villians flourished revolvers and threatened death to those who should attempt to arrest them; huge brutes impudently on weaker persons, and the cut purse and robber took deftly from the pocket or the sleeping apartment. It is a satisfaction to know that about seventeen of these villians are in jail.

The Patriot says that "the heartfelt prayer of the people of Harrisburg is by any more incursions of George W. Miller and his gang of door-keepers, good Lord, deliver us." The same paper "thanks God" for Andrew H. Dill as chairman of the State Committee. Under his administration honest men will have recognition in Democratic conventions and pimps and thieves will not be permitted to keep the doors and falsify the count."

REWARDING A MURDERER. The readers of the JOURNAL will no doubt remember the details of the unprovoked and cold-blooded murder of three of the Chisholm family, as published in these columns at the time, by a mob of unrepentant rebels, under the lead of one Philip H. Gully, in Kemper county, Miss. Judge Chisholm's crime was that he was a Republican, and to get him out of the way they arrested him, threw him into prison without warrant, and while locked in his dingy prison-room the mob was summoned and he was shot to death; but not content with the life of the parent, two of his innocent children, a little son and daughter, who attempted to shield their father from the fury of that blood-thirsty mob, were riddled with shot, and their dead bodies carried by the hand of slaughter. This man Gully, who lead and hounded on the mob in its work of blood, has just been rewarded for the part he took in getting a Republican out of the way, by being appointed to a lucrative office, by Governor Stone, of Mississippi. The position given this red-handed murderer is that of census-taker for Kemper county, and the reason why the Governor has the power to appoint the census-takers is that in Mississippi this year a State, as well as a United

The Riot Bribers Set at Liberty. A UNANIMOUS RECOMMENDATION. The Board of Pardoners had a special session in Harrisburg, on Friday last, for the purpose of hearing argument for and against the pardon of the legislative bribery. At the regular meeting of the Directors of the Pennsylvania Railroad Company, in Philadelphia, on Saturday last, Col. Thomas A. Scott, resigned his resignation as a member of the Board of Directors and as President of that corporation to take effect on the first prox. The following is his letter resigning these positions:

PHILADELPHIA, May 1, 1880. GENTLEMEN:—After a service of nearly thirty years with the company, and having tendered my resignation as its President and as one of its directors, to take effect June 1st, I do this only because I am persuaded by my physical condition that it is impossible for me to continue in the service of the company, and that I should be relieved from the cares and responsibilities of the position. I had hoped to continue in the service of the company during the remainder of my life, but under the circumstances, to this no longer practicable. It has not been without much regret that I have reached this conclusion as the one that is best for the company, and a faithful adherence to the conservative policy set forth in your last annual report, in my judgment, brings about the best results for the shareholders. I am, however, gratified by the confidence you have placed in me, and I am proud to have been able to do so much for the company. I have received from them in the performance of the duties that have devolved upon me. Very respectfully yours, THOMAS A. SCOTT.

A LOOSING JOKE.—A prominent physician of this city, who is a lady, patient who was complaining of her continued ill health, and of his inability to cure her, "My Bitter!" The lady took it in earnest and used the Bitters, from which she obtained permanent health. She now laughs at the doctor for his joke, but he is not so well pleased with it, as it cost him a good patient.
